TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1852.

Whitehall, October 16, 1852.

THE following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty on the occasion of Her Majesty's return from Scotland, and were received very graciously :

To Her Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal borough of Preston, humbly desire to offer our heartfelt congratulations to your Majesty on your arrival in this town, and to express our high sense of your Majesty's gracious condescension in complying with the general desire that your Majesty should honour the inhabitants of Preston by making it a temporary resting place during your journey.

Your Majesty has arrived during a period of unexampled commercial and general prosperity, and we, in common with the whole of this great manufacturing district are now enjoying those manifold blessings which flow from your Majesty's wise, benign, and constitutional government, and which we feel are much enhanced by the brilliant example of public and private virtue which your Majesty and your illustrious Consort have at all times exhibited to the people of this great empire.

We fervently pray that the Almighty Disposer of all events, who has hitherto vouchsafed His merciful protection to your Majesty, your illustrious Consort, and your beloved Children, may still continue to shower down His choicest gifts upon you, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, united, and loyal people.

Given under our common seal this 13th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1852.

Thomas Monk, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Bishop of the diocese of Manchester, and the Vicar and Clergy of Preston, your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, embrace with peculiar satisfaction the opportunity graciously afforded by your Majesty's brief visit to our town to give expression to our sincere and heartfelt sentiments of respect and attachment to your royal Person, and of loyalty and allegiance to your Throne.

As representatives, in this town, of that pure and reformed branch of Christ's Holy Catholic Church, of which your Majesty is Supreme Governor in these realms over all persons, and in all causes, as well ecclesiastical as temporal, we desire to express our deep thankfulness to Almighty God for having disposed your Majesty to accord your gracious patronage and support to every scheme of usefulness commended to your Majesty's regard tending to promote the temporal and religious well-being of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

Opposed as we are as well to infidelity as to superstition and ecclesiastical tyranny, we trust that we shall continue to enjoy your Majesty's countenance and favour, and we feel assured that we shall only be fulfilling your Majesty's most earnest wish in doing our endeavour that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life.

That the Almighty Giver of all wisdom may guide and prosper your Majesty's counsels to the advancement of true religion and piety throughout your Majesty's dominions; and that the same merciful Providence may pour down upon your Majesty, His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, and your royal offspring, every temporal and spiritual blessing, is our constant and earnest prayer.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the inhabitants of the city and borough of Bangor, beg leave to approach your Majesty with expressions of devoted and dutiful attachment and loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Throne.

We rejoice in having this opportunity of expressing that attachment to your Majesty's person, which grew up in our hearts during your Majesty's residence in this neighbourhood before ascending the throne, and which every act of your Majesty's reign has since tended to strengthen and confirm.

Gratifying as a visit from their Sovereign must always be to your Majesty's subjects, the event, on this occasion, is rendered doubly interesting to us by the presence, for the first time amongst us, of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, a Prince in whose welfare we all feel the most warm and loyal interest, and whom we trust ever to see walking in the footsteps, and emulating the virtues, of his illustrious parents.

That your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a happy and grateful people, and that every blessing may attend your Majesty, His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, the Prince of Wales, and the other youthful members of your Majesty's family, is the earnest hope and fervent prayer of those of your Majesty's subjects who have now the honour to address you.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and the Clergy of the diocese of Bangor, approach your Majesty with feelings of respectful attachment to your Royal Person, and of veneration for the high office and dignity with which it has pleased God to invest you.

Twenty years have passed away since your Majesty and your Royal Mother honoured this neighbourhood with a residence of some weeks. That visit has made a lasting impression on the minds of the inhabitants of this part of the Principality of Wales, and is still a source of pleasing and grateful recollections.

On your Majesty, then the youthful Princess, and the presumptive heir of your venerable uncle, our best wishes, our hearts, and our prayers were fixed, as the hope of the nation, and our future Sovereign. We thank God that our prayers have been heard, and our warmest anticipations fulfilled and realized.

We now address your Majesty with the homage of our fealty and allegiance, as the Sovereign of these realms, the guardian of our laws and liberties, and the supreme head under Christ of the Church with which you hold communion, and which enjoys your protection and esteem. But we likewise witness with respect and thankfulness your Majesty's domestic virtues, exhibiting in all the relations of private life an example to your subjects of every rank and condition.

We offer up our fervent prayers to Almighty God that He will pour down the abundance of His blessings, temporal and spiritual, on your Majesty and your Royal Consort, and your interesting and hopeful offspring; that you may long reign over these your dominions in peace and prosperity, and that when your life has been prolonged to a good old age, you may at length exchange an earthly for a heavenly crown.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Magistrates, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your ancient and loyal city of Chester, beg leave, on behalf of ourselves and our fellow citizens, to express to your Majesty our most unfeigned gratification on the approach of your Majesty to the city of Chester.

We beg at the same time to offer to your Majesty the most heartfelt assurance of our loyalty, affection, and attachment to the sacred person of your Majesty, of the utmost esteem and respect for your Majesty's August Consort, and of deep and lively interest in the health and welfare of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and Earl of Chester, and the other branches of your Majesty's family.

We earnestly pray that, by the blessing of Divine Providence, your Majesty and Prince Albert, and the Royal Family, may long be preserved to enjoy uninterrupted happiness, and that your Majesty may long be spared to reign in prosperity and glory over a free, a happy, a loyal and devoted people.

Phil. S. Humberston,

Mayor of the City of Chester.

Chester, 13th October 1852.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean, and the Clergy of the Cathedral and City of Chester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, humbly approach your Majesty with the assurances of our devoted loyalty. We experience peculiar pleasure in having been graciously permitted by your Majesty to express these sentiments on the present occasion, when your Majesty is passing through this city, accompanied by your Royal Consort, and by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, who, to the other titles of his illustrious rank, adds that of the Earl of Chester.

The presence of your eldest son, and of other of the youthful members of your Royal Family, reminds us of the gratitude this country must ever owe to your Majesty for the tender affection and judicious care with which your parental duties are performed, as well as for the manner in which you exercise your benignant rule over all the people of the realm.

Whilst we delight to see your Majesty and your Royal Consort blessed with such happiness, and affording so bright an example in the relations of your private life, we rejoice in the thought that your Majesty must feel that happiness enhanced by beholding in every part of your route the great body of your people prosperous and contented, and the country marked by the extended application of those useful arts which are essentially connected with its social progress, and of which your Majesty and your Royal Consort have ever been the patrons.

We beg to assure your Majesty that, in humble dependence on the Divine blessing, it shall continue to be our earnest endeavour to teach the doctrines of our holy faith in the simplicity and purity of Scriptural truth, to promote the education of the children of the poor, and to extend the influence of those sound moral and religious principles, which are the only firm foundation of domestic happiness, of social order, or national prosperity.

We fervently pray that Almighty God may continue to bless your Majesty in your Family and your Government, and that you may long reign on the throne of your royal ancestors, and in the hearts of your loyal people.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Shrewsbury, most respectfully approach your Majesty, to tender on behalf of ourselves, and of every inhabitant of this ancient town, the homage of our sincere and devoted loyalty, and to give utterance to the feelings of extreme gratification at the presence of your Majesty which now pervade all classes of our fellow-townsmen.

The sentiments of loyalty, and of respect and attachment to your Majesty's Royal House, which animated the inhabitants of Shropshire when your Majesty and your Royal Parent honoured this town with your presence, have been strengthened and confirmed by the bright example of public and private virtues displayed by your Majesty since the happy event of your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms, and which virtues have endeared your Majesty's person and sway to the hearts of all your Majesty's loyal subjects.

We beg also to be permitted very respectfully to greet with a cordial welcome your Majesty's Royal Consort, whose judicious and unwearied exertions in the promotion of learning and science, and for the advancement and honour of this country, have secured for him the esteem of your Majesty's subjects.

And we trust also that in this ancient town; the scene of valour of a Prince of Wales, and where another illustrious individual bearing that title held his Court and extended the local benefits, it may not be deemed unfitting that we should express, as we do most heartily, our great satisfaction at the presence of His Royal Highness Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, and whom may God bless, protect, and strengthen.

Impressed with a deep sense of gratitude for your Majesty's wise and beneficial exercise of the royal authority, and duly valuing the inestimable privileges of the British Constitution, it is our earnest prayer that your Majesty may, by the Divine blessing, long enjoy every earthly happiness and prosperity, and reign over a free and contented people; and that the British Nation, in ages yet to come, may continue to appreciate that dispensation of an all-wise Providence, which entrusted the liberties and the happiness of this kingdom to the care of the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

In testimony whereof, we, the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, have affixed hereunto the common seal of the said borough.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Banbury, in the county of Oxford, desire to express on this, the first occasion of your Majesty's visit to our ancient and loyal town, our sentiments of attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family.

We experience the utmost pleasure and satisfaction in being enabled most cordially to thank your Majesty for the wise and judicious legislation which has hitherto distinguished your Majesty's patriotic reign, by which we believe the peace, happiness, and prosperity of your Majesty's subjects have to so great an extent been attained and secured; and we pray that the same care and concern for your Majesty's people which have always been the pervading feature of your Majesty's rule and government may, by the blessing of Divine Providence, continue to exercise their sway in your Majesty's future counsels.

The much desired, but almost unexpected and sudden visit of your Majesty, has, we regret, left us time only faintly to express, in a brief address, some of the loyal feelings of our hearts; but wherein we fail in words, we beg to supply, by assuring your Majesty of our thoughts and wishes, which extend to the full attainment by your Majesty of every happiness, social, domestic, and national, which can be desired by your Majesty or a grateful people.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of October 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the church called Christ Church, recently erected and consecrated in the said parish of Ealing, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named or called "The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Ealing," and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: the boundary of the said district chapelry commences at the north-east corner of the parish on the east side of Apperton Bridge, runs along the river Brent, and also the boundary of the said parish on the north side to the north-west boundary of the parish on the road to Greenford; thence southward by the parish boundary as far as the landmark standing in the Uxbridge-road, near the Old Hats; thence eastward in the centre of the high road to the north-east corner of Ealing Dean Common; thence following the road through Mattock-lane to the western end of the Grove; thence by the road in the Grove, formerly Love-lane, on to Ealing-common; thence by the road in a north-easterly direction to the Uxbridge-road, and along the centre thereof to the boundary mark at Fordhook dividing the parishes of Acton and Ealing; thence by the parish boundary running north to the north-east corner at Apperton Bridge aforesaid; which said district chapelry of Christ Church, Ealing, is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured blue.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed in Christ Church aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of October 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Report from the General Board of Health, dated the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

"We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the town of Bromyard, in the county of Hereford, the said town being a place having a known and defined boundary (the number of the said petitioners greatly exceeding thirty in the whole), directed Benjamin Herschel Babbage, a superintending inspector appointed for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to visit the said town, and to make public inquiry and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any local Acts of Parliament in force within such town, for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said town, or having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; also as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of that Act;

"And the said superintending inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by that Act, and hath reported in writing to the said Board upon the said several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters with respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act;

"And copies of the said report, accompanied by a notice, stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed; and the statement that has been received by the said Board has been duly deposited as required by that Act;

"And it appears by the said report, that there is no local Act of Parliament in force within the said township for paving, lighting (otherwise than for the profit of proprietors or shareholders), cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving such town, or any part thereof, or in anywise relating to the purposes of the said Public Health Act;

"Now, therefore, we, the said General Board of Health, do hereby, in pursuance of the Public Health Act, humbly report to your Majesty that it appears to us to be expedient:

"1. That the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act printed by your Majesty's printers, should be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the aforesaid town of Bromyard, in the county of Hereford, and that such area, places, and parts of places should be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

"2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act should consist of nine persons, and that the entire number should be elected for the whole of the said district.

"3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health should take place on the eighteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

"4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board of Health should go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said first election takes place; but in case the day so appointed should fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then that such one-third should go out of office on the day next following.

"5. That every person, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds, or should be so resident, and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than fifteen pounds.

"6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, William Barneby, Esquire, of Clater Park, near Bromyard aforesaid, should have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and ratepayers, and should perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said William Barneby, from illness or other sufficient cause, should be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or should be absent, or should refuse to act, then that Thomas Griffiths, Esquire, Clerk to the Guardians of the Bromyard Union, should exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

"7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, should be given to the said William Barneby, at his residence, Clater Park; or in case he should refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Thomas Griffiths, at his residence, High-street, Bromyard.

"Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this first day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

(Signed) Edwin Chadwick.
T. Southwood Smith."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said report into consideration, is pleased to approve thereof, and, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, order and direct:—

1. That from and after the date of this Order, the Public Health Act, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the town of Bromyard, in the county of Hereford; and that such area, places, and parts of places shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

3. That the first election of the said Local Board shall take place on the eighteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board of Health shall go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said first election takes place; but in case the day so appointed shall fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then such one-third shall go out of office on the day next following.

5. That every person, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds, or shall be so resident, and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than fifteen pounds.

6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, William Barneby, Esquire, of Clater Park, near Bromyard aforesaid, shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and ratepayers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said William Barneby, from illness, or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Thomas Griffiths, Esquire, Clerk to the Guardians of the Bromyard Union, shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said William Barneby, at his residence, Clater Park; or in case he shall refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Thomas Griffiths, at his residence, in High-street, Bromyard.
