PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the church called Christ Church, recently erected and consecrated in the said parish of Ealing, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named or called "The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Ealing," and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: the boundary of the said district chapelry commences at the north-east corner of the parish on the east side of Apperton Bridge, runs along the river Brent, and also the boundary of the said parish on the north side to the north-west boundary of the parish on the road to Greenford; thence southward by the parish boundary as far as the landmark standing in the Uxbridge-road, near the Old Hats; thence eastward in the centre of the high road to the north-east corner of Ealing Dean Common; thence following the road through Mattock-lane to the western end of the Grove; thence by the road in the Grove, formerly Love-lane, on to Ealing-common; thence by the road in a north-easterly direction to the Uxbridge-road, and along the centre thereof to the boundary mark at Fordhook dividing the parishes of Acton and Ealing; thence by the parish boundary running north to the north-east corner at Apperton Bridge aforesaid; which said district chapelry of Christ Church, Ealing, is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured blue.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed in Christ Church aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.
