

any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same :

“ And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said prebend of Bartonsham (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and which was duly published in the London Gazette of the sixteenth day of May following, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof :

“ And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments ; and after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments, heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Bartonsham, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of October 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, “ passed in the last session of Parliament, for “ building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,” and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to make better provision for the assignment “ of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels “ augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of “ Queen Anne, and for other purposes,” or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following, viz. :

“ Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Thoydon Garnon, otherwise Coopersale, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Alban, situate at Coopersale, in the said parish of Thoydon Garnon, otherwise Coopersale, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘ An Act to amend and render ‘ more effectual an Act, passed in the last session ‘ of Parliament, for building and promoting the ‘ building of additional churches in populous ‘ parishes,’ and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘ An Act to make better provision for ‘ the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to ‘ churches or chapels augmented by the Governors ‘ of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other ‘ purposes,’ and that such proposed district should consist of the north-easternmost part of the said parish of Thoydon Garnon, otherwise Coopersale, and be named or called ‘ The District Chapelry of Coopersale,’ and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned ; that is to say :

“ The boundary commences at a point marked A on the map or plan hereunto annexed, by the side of the high road leading from London to Bishop's-Stortford, at the point where the road from Coopersale joins thereto, and thence proceeds in an easterly direction along the boundary line that divides the said parish of Thoydon Garnon, otherwise Coopersale, from the parish of Epping, to the point where those two parishes meet the parish of North Weald ; the boundary thence continues in an easterly and south-easterly direction along the boundary line that divides the said parishes of Thoydon Garnon, otherwise Coopersale, and North Weald, to the point where those two parishes meet the parish of Thoydon Mount ;
