

the master as washing days; but no washing or drying of clothes shall on any account be permitted between decks.

16. On Sunday mornings the passengers shall be mustered at ten o'clock A.M. and will be expected to appear in clean and decent apparel. The Lord's Day shall be observed as religiously as circumstances will admit.

17. No spirits or gunpowder shall be taken on board by any passenger; and if either of those articles be discovered in the possession of a passenger, it shall be taken into the custody of the master during the voyage, and not returned to the passenger until he is on the point of disembarking.

18. No loose hay or straw shall be allowed below for any purpose.

19. No smoking shall be allowed between decks.

20. All gambling, fighting, riotous or quarrelsome behaviour, swearing, and violent language, shall be at once put a stop to. Fire arms, swords, and other offensive weapons shall, as soon as the passengers embark, be placed in the custody of the master.

21. No sailors shall be allowed to remain on the passenger deck among the passengers, except on duty.

22. No passenger shall go to the ships' cook-house without special permission from the master, nor remain in the fore-castle among the sailors on any account.

23. In vessels not expressly required by the said "Passengers Act, 1852," to have on board such ventilating apparatus as therein mentioned, such other provision shall be made for ventilation as shall be required by the Emigration Officer at the port of embarkation, or in his absence, by the officers of Customs.

24. And to prevent all doubts in the construction of this Order in Council, it is hereby further ordered that the terms "United Kingdom," "Passenger," "Passenger Ship," and "Master," shall herein have the same significations as are assigned to them respectively in the said "Passengers Act, 1852."

And the Right Honourable Sir John Pakington, Bart. one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of October 1852.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Foreign Deserters' Act, 1852," it is provided, that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of any foreign power, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to a subject of such power, when within Her Majesty's dominions or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to Her Majesty, that due facilities have been or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and in those of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburg:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters' Act, 1852," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared that, from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to subjects of His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, or to citizens of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburg, when such ships are within Her Majesty's dominions or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and the Commissioners for the Affairs of India are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
