Witness my hand this 1st day of November 1852.

G. J. Wigley, Superintendent Registrar.

Rivers Thames and Medway Conservancy.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to provide for the conservancy of the river Thames, between Yenleete, in the county of Kent, and the City Stone at Staines, in the county of Middlesex, and of the river Medway, as far as the jurisdiction of the Corporation of London extends therein; and to vest in a board or committee all the rights, title, powers, and privileges which the Corporation of the city of London, or the Lord Mayor of the said city, have heretofore possessed at common law, by prescription, usage, charter, or under any Act of Parliament, in and over the rivers Thames and Medway, within the limits aforesaid, and the soil and bed thereof, and the several rivers, streams, creeks, and watercourses within the flow and reflux of the tide of the said river Thames, and connected therewith; and that it is intended by such Act to apply for powers to make bye-laws for the regulation, management, and improvement of the river Thames; and to set out boundaries, and to lay down, make, maintain, and grant and license all necessary embankments, cuts, channels, reservoirs, and other works, and to widen, deepen, straighten, dredge, protect, and otherwise improve the bed, channel, and banks of the said rivers, and of all parts of the waters connected therewith; and to take down and rebuild bridges; and to remove all obstructions to the free navigation of the said rivers, and to impose penalties upon all persons placing or continuing obstructions on the said rivers; and to remove the same; and to appoint and remove harbour masters and other officers; and to place buoys, beacons, and mooring chains in the said rivers; and to compel the removal of wrecks therefrom; and to raise and supply ballast from the bed of the river Thames, with all necessary powers for that purpose; and also to make, maintain, grant and license basins, docks, harbours, piers, jetties, and quays, with all proper conveniences for the navigation and improvement of the said rivers, and for the safety and use of the vessels navigating the same. And it is also intended by the said Act to take powers to erect and regulate steam-boat and other piers: and power for the purchase of lands, houses, tenements, and hereditaments, waters, and buildings for the purposes aforesaid, and for landing-places and piers; and to purchase private moorings; and to levy rents, tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the navigation of the said rivers, and for the said piers; and to settle, regulate, vary, or extinguish all rights and privileges, or claims of rights and privileges, which may in any manner interfere with the improvement of the said rivers, and the navigation, or with the powers sought to be conferred by the said Act; and to compound for tolls, and to confer exemptions from tolls, rates, and duties, and to give other rights and privileges. And it is further intended to repeal all Acts, charters, and customs which may be inconsistent with the powers aforesaid, and the provisions of the said intended Act. And for the above purposes, it is intended by the said Act to alter and amend, and so far as may be necessary, to repeal, all or some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, relating to the Thames navigation and port of London, or some of such Acts; that is to say: the public Acts, 14th Geo. the 3rd, cap. 91; 17th Geo. the 3rd, cap. 18; the local and personal Acts, 50th Geo. the 3rd, cap. 204; 52nd Geo. the 3rd, cap. 46; 54th Geo. the 3rd, cap. 223; 5th Geo. the 4th, cap. 123; 8th Vic. cap. 1; 39th Geo. the 3rd, cap. 69; 42nd Geo. the 3rd, cap. 49; 43rd Geo. the 3rd, cap. 124; 45th Geo. the 3rd, cap. 63; 47th Geo. the 3rd, sess. 2, cap. 31; 10th Geo. the 4th, cap. 124; 10th Geo. the 4th, cap. 130; and 4th and 5th

Wm. the 4th, cap. 32. And it is intended by the said Act to take power to raise money on the credit of the tolls, rates, and duties to be granted by the said Act, and the other tolls and dues in the said rivers and the banks thereof, and upon the estates and revenues of the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London, or upon any part thereof, for carrying the several purposes of the Act into execution, and all other powers which may be necessary for carrying into effect the purposes aforesaid. And notice is hereby also given, that on or before the thirty-first day of December next, printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.—Dated the first day of November 1852.

Edward Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

Stroud and Chalford Turnpike Trust.

(Continuation of Term; Repeal or Amendment of Act.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the 54th year of the reign of King George the 3rd, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining certain roads from the town of Stroud, and several other places therein mentioned, all in the county of Gloucester;" and to continue and extend the term granted by the said Act, or any further term granted by any subsequent Acts, or to repeal the said first-mentioned Act, either wholly or in part, and to create a further term and make further provisions with reference to the said roads, or some of them; and powers will be taken in the said Bill to continue or alter the tolls, rates, and duties granted by the said first-mentioned Act, or some of them; to levy new tolls, rates, or duties; to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, or duties; to pay off, compound, or make other arrangements with reference to the mortgages, debts, and other charges on the said roads or tolls; to vary or extinguish some of the rights, privileges, and remedies of the mortgages and other credits thereon, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges; to continue or alter the agreements made under the powers of the first-mentioned Act with the trustees of the Chalford and Bisley Turnpike Road, and with or between the trustees of the Cirencester and Tetbury Turnpike Road, and the trustees of the Cirencester and Stroud Turnpike Road respectively, and to authorize those trustees respectively to enter into further agreements and arrangements with each other and with the trustees acting under the proposed Bill; and (so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the said intended Bill) to alter and amend the powers and provisions of the following Acts of Parliament relating to the three last-mentioned roads (that is to say): 31 Geo. 2, chapter 65; 20 Geo. 3, chapter 70; local and personal Acts: 41 Geo. 3, chapter 85; 3 Geo. 4, chapter 63; 23 Geo. 3, chapter 106; 52 Geo. 3, chapter 27; and 6 Geo. 4, chapter 143; to alter the tolls, rates, or duties granted by those Acts respectively, or some of them, and to confer exemptions from the payment thereof; and notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 31st day of December next, printed copies of the said intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office in the House of Commons.—Dated this second day of November 1852.

E. C. Little, Solicitor for the Bill.

Alston Turnpike Roads.

(Continuation of Term and Powers as to Roads, Bridges, and Ferries; Repeal or Amendment of Act; Contributions by Townships and Parishes towards Repairs.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the 5th year of the reign of King George the 4th, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from Burtryford, in the county of Durham, through Alston, in the county of Cumberland, to Burnstones, in the county of Northumberland, and from Summerrod's Bar, near Hexham, to Alston aforesaid, and several other roads in the said counties, and in the North Riding of the county of York, and for erecting bridges over the River Tyne," and to continue and extend the term granted by the said Act, or any further term granted by any subsequent Acts, or to repeal the said first-mentioned Act either wholly or in part, and create a further term, and make further provisions with reference to the said roads and bridges, or some of them with reference to providing ferries in lieu of the bridges at Bellingham, on the north branch of the River Tyne, and at West Boat, in the parish of Hexham, on the south branch of the River Tyne, both in the county of Northumberland; and with reference to the prohibition of all other ferries near either of the two last-mentioned bridges. And powers will be taken in the said Bill to continue or alter the tolls, rates, pontage, and other duties by the said first-mentioned Act granted; to levy new tolls, rates, pontage, and other duties; to pay off, compound, or make other arrangements with reference to the mortgages, debts, and other charges on the said roads, bridges, tolls, pontage, rates, or duties; to vary or extinguish some of the rights, privileges, and remedies of the mortgagees and other creditors thereon; to make provision for the performance of statute duty on the said roads, or the payment of contributions or compositions instead thereof by the inhabitants of the several townships, parishes, and other places following; that is to say: the several townships of Middleton, Newbiggin, and Forest and Frith, in the parish of Middleton in Teesdale, and the township of Forest in the parish of Stanhope, all in the county of Durham; the parish of Whitfield, the several townships of Dean Raw, Langley, Elrington, Haydon Bridge South Side, Fourstones and Nether Warden, in the parish of Warden; the township of Westquarter in the parish of Hexham, the parish of Kirkhaugh, the parish of Knarsdale, the parish of Lambley, and the township of Hartley Burn in the parish of Haltwhistle, all in the county of Northumberland; the parish of Alston, the several townships of Glassonby, Gamblesby, Hunsonby, and Winskell, in the parish of Addingham, the township of High Quarter in the parish of Kirkoswald, the parish of Melmerby, the parish of Ousby, the parish of Longwathby, the parish of Edenhall, and the township of Carlton in the parish of Penrith, all in the county of Cumberland, or otherwise to provide for the maintenance and repair of the said roads, or some of them, or some part thereof, by the said parishes, townships, and places, notwithstanding that the whole of the new roads by the first-mentioned Act authorized, or any one or more of those new roads, have not yet been made or completed, or were not made and completed in the manner or within the time by that Act limited for that purpose, and to vary or alter the highway rates and other rates and payments within those townships, parishes, and places respectively; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby lastly given, that printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 31st day of December next.

Dated this thirtieth day of October 1852.

Plymouth Corporation Waterworks.

(Powers to Construct additional Reservoirs and Works; Increasing and Regulating and Extending limits of, Supply to Borough and Neighbourhood of Plymouth; Powers to Corporation to raise Money for Special and General Purposes; Amendment of Local and General Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or to repeal and re-enact all or some of the powers and provisions of the Acts following (that is to say): an Act of the twenty-seventh of Elizabeth, intituled "An Act for preservation of the haven of Plymouth;" and an Act of the fifth of George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for enabling the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy to purchase certain premises for completing a victualling establishment at Cremill Point, near Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and for supplying the said establishment with water;" and to grant the like or other powers and provisions in lieu thereof.

And it is proposed by the intended Act or Acts to enable the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, to make, lay down, and maintain the works following, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and to make lateral deviations from the line of the proposed works, the limits of which deviations will be defined upon the plans hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

Firstly. A reservoir or reservoirs, with all proper and necessary filtering beds, weirs, sluices, buildings, and other works and conveniences connected therewith, in a field or close of land called or known by the name of Homer Leat Park, belonging to William John Fleming Langmead, Esquire, and in the occupation of James Horswill, and situate in the parish of Tamerton Folliott, in the said county of Devon, near a place called Franklings, and on the south side of the road leading from Tamerton to the turnpike road leading from Plymouth to Tavistock; and to divert into such reservoir or reservoirs, filtering beds, and works, the waters of the cut or channel called the Plymouth Leat, into which the waters of the river Mew, otherwise Meavy, now flow, from a point on the said cut or channel in the said field or close of land, at or near the bridge carrying the before-mentioned road leading from Tamerton to the said turnpike road over the said Plymouth Leat.

Secondly. Sluices, cuts, channels, pipes, and other works and conveniences, between the said cut or channel called the Plymouth Leat, at the point last-mentioned, and the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, filtering beds, and works, all which reservoir or reservoirs, filtering beds, weirs, sluices, buildings, cuts, channels, pipes, and other works and conveniences are intended to be wholly made, laid down, and maintained in the said parish of Tamerton Folliott.

Thirdly. Aqueducts, mains, or conduit-pipes, with all proper and necessary works and conveniences, commencing at such intended reservoir or reservoirs, filtering beds, and works, in the said parish of Tamerton Foliot, thence proceeding from and passing through or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places of Tamerton Foliot, Egg Buckland, Saint Budeaux, Penny Cross, otherwise Weston Peverell, Compton Gifford, Saint Andrew, Plymouth, and Charles, Plymouth, or some or one of them, all in the said county of Devon, and terminating in the said parish of Charles, Plymouth, at or near a place called Drake's Place, in the said parish of Charles, Plymouth, and there communicating with and joining the higher reservoir, belonging to the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses.

And it is also proposed by the intended Act or Acts to enable the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses to supply water to the town and borough of Plymouth and the neighbourhood thereof, including the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places following (that is to say): Tamerton Foliot, Egg Buckland, Saint Budeaux, Penny Cross, otherwise Weston Peverell, Compton Gifford, Stoke Damerell, East Stonehouse, Saint Andrew, Plymouth, and Charles, Plymouth, all in the said county of Devon, or some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively.

And it is also proposed by the intended Act or Acts to apply for powers to make, lay down, and maintain all necessary and convenient roads, tunnels, pipe-tracks, embankments, fences, bridges, aqueducts, cuts or channels of communication, arches, piers, abutments, shafts, weirs, pipes, mains, conduits, reservoirs, culverts, sluices, drains, engines, and other works and conveniences; and also to fence out, take down, remove, cross, divert, break-up, alter, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads, railways, canals, tramways, navigations, bridges, rivers, streams, drains, pipes, mains, aqueducts, waters, watercourses, sewers, streets, lanes, highways, foot-paths, public passages, and places within the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or such of them as it may be found expedient so to deal with for any of the purposes of the intended Act or Acts.

And it is also proposed by the intended Act or Acts to apply for powers to purchase and take, by compulsion or agreement, lands, mills, houses, buildings, streams, waters, and other property, rights, privileges, easements, tenements, and hereditaments, either for the purposes of the said intended new works, or for improving and enlarging the existing works, and increasing the supply of water therefrom, or for any other purposes of the intended Act or Acts; and to levy tolls, rates, and duties, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

And it is also proposed by the intended Act or Acts to enable the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses to raise money for the purposes aforesaid, and also for the general purposes of the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, by mortgages, bonds, annuities, or otherwise, on the security or credit of all or any part of their corporate property, and the rates, assessments, rents, charges, and payments to be authorized by the intended Act or Acts.

And it is also proposed by the intended Act or Acts to re-enact parts of the said Acts of Elizabeth and George the Fourth, and to incorporate the whole or parts of the following Acts, namely, "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;"

"The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Public Health Act, 1848;" and Acts supplemental thereto, or one or more of them.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the proposed reservoir or reservoirs, sluices, cuts, and other works, together with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Devon, at his office, at the Castle of Exeter, in the county of Devon; and that copies of so much of these plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to the several parishes or extra-parochial places respectively, in which the works, or any of them, will be situate, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the same thirtieth day of November, be deposited, as regards the same parishes respectively, with the parish clerks thereof respectively, at their respective residences; and as regards the same extra-parochial places respectively, with the parish clerks of immediately adjoining parishes respectively, at their respective residences.

And notice is hereby also given, that copies of the Bill relating to the objects aforesaid will be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.—Dated the third day of November 1852.

Whiteford, Town Clerk, Solicitor for the Bill.

Burford, Leachlade, and Swindon Turnpike Roads (First and Second Districts).

(Continuation of Term; Repeal or Alteration and Amendment of Acts; Alteration of Tolls and Application thereof; Altering Rights of Creditors; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to renew or grant a further term in the roads hereinafter mentioned, and to continue, repeal, alter, amend, and extend some of the powers and provisions of the local and personal Act, 53 George III. chapter 42, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the road from Burford, in the county of Oxford, to Leachlade, in the county of Gloucester, and also the road from thence through Highworth to the Cricklade and Swindon turnpike road, in the county of Wilts;" and also of the local and personal Act, 32nd George the III. chapter 153, therein recited, and extended to the objects and purposes of such Act, or wholly to repeal the said Acts, and to grant further, better, and more effectual powers in lieu thereof and in addition thereto.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended by the said Act, so to be applied for, to confer an exemption from tolls on foot passengers passing over the bridge across the river Isis or Thames, at or near the said town of Leachlade, and to vary or alter the tolls now taken, or authorized to be taken, in the said districts of roads and bridge, or either of them, and to levy other tolls in lieu thereof, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights, privileges, and exemptions, and to make further and additional provision for the repair, improvement, and maintenance of the said roads and bridge, and the regulation of the said trusts, and the application or appropriation of the tolls or revenue thereof.

And notice is also hereby given, that there may be inserted in the said Act clauses and provisions with reference to the payment of the interest and principal of the mortgage and other debts owing upon the credit of the tolls collected upon the said districts of roads and bridge; and for altering the rate of interest now payable, and for fixing the rate of interest to be hereafter paid in respect of such debts, or the proportion of tolls to be applied in payment of interest and principal, and for making other arrangements with respect to the existing charges upon the said several districts of roads and bridge, and for altering the mode of paying off the existing mortgage and other creditors of the said trusts.

And notice is hereby given, that printed copies of the said intended Act or Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 31st day of December next.

Dated this 5th day of November 1852.

James S. Price, Burford, Clerk of the First District.

Henry C. Crowdy, Highworth, Clerk of the Second District.

Trinder, Eyre, and Durnford, 39, Parliament-street, Parliamentary Agents.

Allendale Turnpike Road and Branches.

Continuation of Term, Repeal or Amendment of Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions, of an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act for making and maintaining a turnpike road leading out of the Alston turnpike road, at Branch End, in the county of Northumberland, through Catton, Allendale Town, and Allenheads, to Cow's Hill, in the county of Durham, with several branches therefrom," or to repeal the said Act and make other provisions instead thereof; and in such Bill powers will be taken to direct, determine, and alter the application of the tolls collected or to be collected upon the said road and branches; and also to continue or alter the tolls authorized to be collected by the said Act, and to levy new tolls, and also to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls; and provision will also be made in the said Bill to extinguish, pay off, compound, or make other arrangements with reference to the debts, arrears of interest, and other charges on the said roads or tolls, and to vary or extinguish the rights and remedies of the mortgagees and other creditors thereon, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby lastly given, that printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 31st day of December next.—Dated this first day of November 1852.

Chas. Head, Solicitor for the Bill.

IN PARLIAMENT.—Session 1852–53.

Crystal Palace Estate at Sydenham.

(Closing of Thickets-lane and Diversion of Penge-road.)

APPPLICATION will be made to Parliament (as soon as may be after the meeting thereof) in this present month of November, for leave to introduce a Bill.

1. For making and maintaining a new road or public carriage-way upon land belonging to the Crystal Palace Company, or contracted to be purchased by them, in the hamlet of Penge, in the parish of Battersea, in Surrey, which new road will commence in a public carriage-way or road (called the Anerley-road) in the said hamlet of Penge, leading from Norwood to Beckenham, and will terminate in another road or public carriage-way (called the Penge-road) leading from Penge to Dulwich and London, near the bridge of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway, over the last-mentioned road.

And power will be taken in the same Bill to close, as soon as the said new road is completed, a certain road or bridle-way called Thickets-lane, which communicates between and connects the two existing roads hereinbefore described, and intersects the land belonging to or contracted to be bought by the said Company in the hamlet and parish aforesaid, and for vesting the soil of the said road in the Company.

2. And also for making and maintaining another public road or carriage-way through other land of the same Company, or which they have contracted to buy, in the said hamlet of Penge and parish of Battersea, and also in the parishes, chapels, or hamlets of Sydenham; Lewisham, and Beckenham, in Kent, which road will commence in the said road from Penge to Dulwich and London, near the aforesaid bridge, and will terminate in the existing road from Sydenham to London, in a plantation lately purchased or agreed to be purchased of John Cator, Esq. by the said Company.

And power will be taken in the said Bill to close, so soon as the new road herein last-described is complete, so much of the said existing road from Penge to Dulwich and London as lies between the commencement therein of the last-described new road and the point where it now terminates, at or near Rockhills, in the road from Norwood to Sydenham and Dulwich next herein-after mentioned; and all of which said existing road proposed to be closed is situate in the said hamlet of Penge, in the said parish of Battersea, and in the said parishes of Beckenham and Lewisham, in the county of Kent, some or one of them; and for vesting the soil of the road so closed in the said Company.

3. And also for widening on the western side thereof in the parishes of Battersea, Lambeth, Croydon, and Camberwell, and hamlet of Dulwich, or some or one of them, in Surrey, that part of the said road from Norwood to Sydenham and Dulwich which forms the north-western boundary of the said Penge-place estate, on which the Crystal Palace is in course of erection.

4. The Bill will contain powers to purchase lands and houses compulsorily for the purposes aforesaid, and also powers to purchase compulsorily a certain plot or parcel of land containing about two acres, belonging to or vested in the surveyor of highways of the said hamlet of Penge, which land abuts on the eastward and southward upon land belonging to the said Company, on the west on the road or bridle-way hereinbefore described, and on the north on the said road from Penge to Dulwich and London.

The Bill will abolish all rights or privileges which may interfere with any of the above objects.

A plan and section of the proposed new roads, and a book of reference to the plan, together with a copy of this notice, will be deposited, from and after Monday, the 8th day of November instant, for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for Surrey, at Lambeth; at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for Kent, at Maidstone; at the residences of the parish clerks of Croydon, Camberwell, Lambeth, Lewisham, Beckenham, Battersea, Norwood, Sydenham, and hamlet of Penge; and with the clerk of Dulwich College Chapel; and also at the office of the clerk of the works of the Crystal Palace, at the said palace, on the said Penge-place estate.

Copies of the intended Bill may be obtained on application to Messrs. Johnston, Farquhar, and Leech, No. 65, Moorgate-street, London; or to Messrs. Dyson and Co., 24, Parliament-street, Westminster, on or after Monday the 8th day of November instant, and copies of it will also be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on that day, or as soon thereafter as the House will permit.

Dated the 1st day of November 1852.

Johnston, Farquhar, and Leech, Solicitors for the Bill.

Brimpsfield and Upton Saint Leonard's Turnpike Road.

(Construction of Road from Brimpsfield to Upton Saint Leonard's, to connect the Stroud, Painswick, and Gloucester Turnpike Road with the Cirencester and Gloucester Turnpike Road; Power to levy Tolls; Arrangements with Trustees of those Roads.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, for leave to bring in a Bill to appoint a body of trustees, with powers to sue and be sued, and all other proper powers for making and maintaining a new turnpike road, to commence by a junction with the present turnpike road from Gloucester to Cirencester, at or near to a place in the parish of Brimpsfield, in the county of Gloucester, where the road to Brimpsfield joins the last mentioned turnpike road, and near to the nine-mile stone from Gloucester, and to terminate by a junction with the present turnpike road, from Stroud, through Painswick to Gloucester, at or near to a place in the parish of Upton Saint Leonard's, in the said county of Gloucester, situate about midway between Winnycraft's farm and the King's Head Inn, together with all proper and necessary bridges, viaducts, culverts, and other works connected therewith, which said intended road and works will be made or pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places following, or some of them (that is to say): Upton Saint Leonard's, Matson, Prinknash Park, Cranham, Brimpsfield, Elkstone, and Cowley, all in the county of Gloucester.

And powers will be taken in the said Bill to effect the purposes following (that is to say):

To make lateral deviations from the line of the said intended road to the extent or within the limits defined upon the plans hereinafter mentioned; and (so far as may be required for the purposes of the said intended road and works) to cross, break up, divert, alter, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, any turnpike and other roads, highways, footpaths, streams, canals, navigations, sewers, railways and tramways, within the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places, or any of them.

To purchase, by compulsion and otherwise, all lands, houses, and hereditaments, required for the purposes of the said intended road and works, and to vary or extinguish any rights or privileges connected with such lands, houses and hereditaments.

To erect and maintain turnpike houses, gates, and toll bars, and to levy tolls upon or on the sides of the said intended road, and to confer exemptions from the payment of such tolls.

To borrow money on mortgage or bond on the security of such tolls, and to charge upon the said tolls any sums subscribed or advanced for the purposes of the said intended road or Bill.

To alter or vary the highway rates and other assessments in the several parishes and extra-parochial places aforesaid, or some of them.

To enable the trustees acting under the said Bill to enter into and carry into effect agreements and arrangements with the trustees of the present turnpike road from Gloucester to Cirencester, and the trustees of the present turnpike road from Stroud (through Painswick) to Gloucester, or with either of these bodies, with respect to the maintenance and repair of the roads, or any part of the roads, under the control of the contracting bodies, or either of them, and with respect to the amount, collection, and application of the tolls arising thereon, the number and position of the turnpike gates and toll bars thereon, the exemption or partial exemption from toll of traffic passing over the roads or parts of the roads of any two or more of the contracting bodies, or any other matters connected with the said roads, and (so far as may be necessary for those purposes) to amend the Acts relating to the two lastly specified roads respectively; that is to say: 6th George Fourth, chapter 143; 18th George Third, chapter 98; 40th George Third, chapter 97; and 59th George Third, chapter 42, or either of them; to vary or alter the tolls imposed by those Acts, or either of them, and to confer exemptions from the payment of such tolls.

To confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby lastly given, that on or before the thirtieth day of November 1852, duplicate plans and sections of the intended road and works, with a book of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and occupiers of the lands and houses proposed to be, or which may be taken for the purposes thereof, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office at the Shirehall, in the city of Gloucester; and that on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each parish and extra-parochial place in or through which the intended road and works will be made or pass, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection in the case of each such parish with the parish clerk thereof, at his residence; and in the case of each such extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his residence; and that on or before the 31st day of December next, printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 5th day of November 1852.

Edwards and Freston, Solicitors for the Bill.

Severn Navigation Improvement Commission. Amendment of Acts, New Works, and Further Powers.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of the Queen, intituled "An Act for improving the navigation of the Severn, from the entrance lock of the Gloucester and Berkeley Canal, and from the entrance lock of the Herefordshire and Gloucestershire Canal, in the county of Gloucester, to Gladder or Whitehouse Brook, in the county of Worcester;" also of another Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of the Queen, intituled "An Act to alter and extend the provisions of an Act for improving the navigation of the River Severn;" and also of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of the Queen, intituled "An Act to alter and extend the provisions of the Acts for improving the navigation of the River Severn."

And it is intended by the said Bill to apply for powers to improve the navigation of the River Severn, from or from near a point called the Upper Lode, in the parishes of Tewkesbury and Forthampton, in the county of Gloucester, and in the parish of Bushley, in the county of Worcester, to Diglis Severn Works, in the parishes of Saint Peter the Great and Saint John in Bedwardine, in the county of Worcester, by erecting a dam across the said river at the Upper Lode aforesaid, and making a new cut or channel for the said river across the Tewkesbury Ham, at the Upper Lode, in the parish and borough of Tewkesbury, commencing at the River Severn, in the parish and borough of Tewkesbury, and terminating at the said River Severn, in the said parish and borough of Tewkesbury, thereby diverting and carrying the waters of the said River Severn through the said cut or channel, together with all necessary locks, dams, sluices, bridges, drains, culverts, embankments, and other works and conveniences. Also to make a towing path from the north side of the said River Severn, in the parish of Bushley, in the county of Worcester, near the Upper Lode aforesaid, along the bank of the said intended new cut or channel, to rejoin the existing towing path on the west side of the said river, in the parish of Forthampton, in the said county of Gloucester, and to abandon, relinquish, and stop up so much of the original navigation of the said River Severn as may be rendered unnecessary by reason of the making of such cut or channel and the execution of the works aforesaid, which said River Severn, the navigation whereof is so intended to be improved, and the locks, dams, weirs, new cuts, channels, towing path, sluices, bridges, and works, are situate within, or will pass from, through, into, or near the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or extra-parochial places following, or some of them (that is to say): Forthampton, Tewkesbury, Mythe, and Mythe Hook, in the borough of Tewkesbury, in the county of Gloucester; Bushley, Ripple, Queenhill, Holdfast, Upton-upon-Severn, Earl's Croome, Hanley otherwise Hanley Castle, Severn Stoke, Great Malvern, Madresfield, Clevedon, Powick, Kempsey, Saint Peter the Great, and Saint John in Bedwardine, in the county of Worcester; and it is intended to apply for powers to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, whether temporarily or permanently, all such roads and ways within the said parish of Tewkesbury, as it may be necessary to cross, divert, alter, or stop up for the purposes of the said works; and also to apply for powers for the compulsory purchase of lands, houses, and hereditaments for the purposes of the said Bill, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands, houses, and hereditaments proposed to be taken.

And it is intended by the said Bill to authorize the said Commissioners to raise a further sum of money, by mortgage or otherwise, upon the credit of the tolls, rates, and duties authorized to be collected upon the said Severn Navigation, for the purpose of carrying into effect the several objects aforesaid, and of completing and maintaining the improvements and works authorized to be executed by the said Acts, or either of them.

And it is intended by the said Bill to amend, alter, or repeal all and every, or such and so many, of the clauses and provisions contained in an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for extending the horse towing path on the banks of the River Severn, from Worcester Bridge to a certain place below the city of Gloucester, called the Lower Parting, situate at the corner of Portham Mead, in the county of Gloucester," as may be necessary for the purposes and objects aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, of the said River Severn, between the points aforesaid, within which the same is intended to be improved, and also duplicate plans and sections of the said intended dams and weirs, and the said cuts, channels, and other works, together with books of reference to such last-mentioned plans, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office, in Gloucester, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Worcester, at his office, in Worcester, on or before the thirtieth day of November 1852; and on or before the said thirtieth day of November 1852, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the parishes in which the said intended dam and weir, and the said cuts or channels and other works are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, and also so much of the said plans and sections as relates to the said River Severn in each such parish, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode; and in case of an extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining such extra-parochial place, at his dwelling-house; and that on or before the thirty-first day of December next, printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.—Dated this third day of November 1852.

Thos. Waters, Clerk to the Severn Commission.
Worcester.

Sugar (Muscovado), 100 tons; half to be delivered in a month, and the remainder in a month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Soap (Mottled), 50 tons; half to be delivered in a month, and the remainder in a month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat, will be paid for any weight exceeding 60 lbs. per bushel.

The tea and sugar to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and the soap to be tendered for at a price exclusive of the Excise drawback, which will be allowed to the contractor.

No tender will be received for a less quantity of wheat than 500 quarters, of tea than 10,000 lbs. of sugar than 20 tons, and of soap than 10 tons.

Samples of the wheat (not less than 2 quarts), of the tea (not less than 1 lb. from the Bonded Warehouse), of the sugar (not less than 2 lbs.), and of the soap (not less than a bar), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, at the office of Commander Bevis, at Liverpool, and of the Collector of Customs, at Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him, duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and those for tea and sugar must be accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £20 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of each of the contracts.
