Hull General Cemetery Company.

Incorporation of Company, Power to Maintain and Enlarge Cemetery in the parish of Cottingham, in the East Riding of the county of York. To Increase Capital, and for other purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session for an Act to incorporate the Company or Association called "The Hull General Cemetery Company," who now carry on the business of the burial of the dead, of all sects and denominations, in their present Cemetery, situate in the township of Cottingham, in the parish of Cottingham, in the East Riding of the county of York; and to enable the said Company to sue and be sued in the name of the said Company, or in the name or names of one or more of the Directors or officers thereof; and to make other provisions for the constitution and regulation of the Company; and to vest in the said Company, when so incorporated, all the lands, buildings, and other works, debts, effects, and other property of every description, rights, powers, and privileges, now vested in the said Company or Association, or in any trustee for them, or otherwise belonging to, or exercisable by, the said Company or Association. To enable the said Company to maintain, alter, and improve their present Cemetery, situate in the township of Cottingham, and parish of Cottingham, in the East Riding of the county of York, containing in the whole nineteen acres, one rood, and twenty-two perches of land, or thereabouts, and bounded on the east by a certain road or lane, called Newland Tofts-lane; on the north and west respectively, by land belonging, or reputed to belong, to William Duesbury Thornton Duesbury, of Skelton Lodge, in the county of York, Esquire, the trustee of the late William Watson Wilkinson, Esq. deceased; and on the south, by the Darring-ham Drain. And to construct and maintain an enlargement of their said Cemetery, upon the whole, or some portion of certain fields or closes of land, respectively belonging, or reputed to belong, to the said William Duesbury Thornton Duesbury, as trustee of the said William Watson Wilkinson, deceased, and now in the occupation of James Longhorn, as tenant thereof, and respectively situate in the township of Cottingham and parish of Cottingham aforesaid, and lying on the north side of and adjoining the present existing Cemetery of the said Company; and which said fields or closes of land are bounded on the east by the said road or lane, called Newland Tofts-lane; on the north and west by other lands, belonging or reputed to belong to the said William Duesbury Thornton Duesbury, as such trustee of the said William Watson Wilkinson, deceased, as aforesaid, and now in the respective occupations of William Longhorn and Robert Tindal, as tenants thereof respectively; and on the south by the present Cemetery of the said Company.

And it is intended to apply for powers to divert, alter, widen, or stop up, temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike and other roads, lanes, footpaths, ways, ditches, drains, and streams within or adjacent to the said lands hereinbefore specified, as it may be necessary or expedient to divert, alter, widen, or stop up, for the purposes of the said intended Cemetery, and enlargement thereof, or the works connected therewith respectively, and to make all necessary approaches and communications to and from the same.

And it is intended to apply for powers to purchase, compulsorily or by agreement, lands and houses required for the purposes of the said Cemetery, and enlargement thereof, or the works connected therewith respectively; and to vary or extinguish all or any existing rights, easements, or privileges in any manner connected with or incidental to such lands and houses which would in any way impede or interfere with the construction or use of the said Cemetery, and enlargement thereof, or either of them; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights, privileges, or exemptions. And also to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the deed or deeds of settlement, or other deeds or bye-laws regulating the said Company, or to annul the same deed or deeds and bye-laws, and to grant to the Company other and further powers and provisions in lieu thereof.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to increase the capital of the said Company, by the creation and issuing of additional shares, or half shares, and to consolidate such increased capital with the present capital of the Company, and to enable the respective shareholders to make such arrangements as they shall think fit, and to allot shares to persons not being shareholders in the Company, and to raise money on the credit of the bonds of the Company, or otherwise.

And it is intended to apply for powers to enable the said Company to levy fees, tolls, rates, rents, and duties for and in respect of the burial of the dead within their said present Cemetery, and also within the said intended enlargement thereof; and for and in respect of the use of the said Cemetery, or the enlargement thereof, or the use of any chapel, vault, building, or other work connected therewith respectively; and to confer such rights and privileges in respect thereof as to the said Company shall seem fit.

And to pay or compensate any clergyman, minister, or other person or persons whatever, for any loss of fees, profits, or emoluments which may accrue to him or them by means of the establish-
