

of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for supplying the city of Norwich, and the neighbourhood thereof, with water."

And it is intended by the said Act to enable the City of Norwich Water Works Company, incorporated by the said Act, to increase their capital by the creation of new shares, or by mortgage or bond, or by such other means as Parliament shall authorise and direct.

And it is also intended by the said Act, to apply for powers for the compulsory purchase of the interest of the mayor, aldermen, and citizens of the City of Norwich, in the engines, wells, conduits, pipes, cocks, fire-plugs, and works connected with the Old Water Works in the said city, belonging to the said mayor, aldermen, and citizens, and now under lease to the said Company, and for exonerating the said Company from all covenants contained in the existing lease, from the said mayor, aldermen, and citizens of the Old Water Works, and other premises and works contained therein, restricting the use or application of the head of water comprised in such lease during the remainder of the term thereby granted, and also from the covenant contained in the same lease for maintaining a certain reservoir situate in the Chapel Field in the City of Norwich, and all other covenants and liabilities contained in the said lease, relating to the supply of water to the inhabitants of the said City of Norwich, or in any way incident thereto, and also from all covenants contained in the said lease relative to fire-plugs, so as to place all the fire-plugs within the said city under the provisions of "The Water Works Clauses Act, 1847."

And it is also intended by the said Act to apply for necessary powers to enable the said Company to underlet all or any of the premises now held by the said Company under the said lease.

And it is also intended by the said Act to repeal or vary the thirteenth section of the said recited Act, and also to convert into stock the capital raised under the said recited Act, and to be raised under the said intended Act.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to alter and amend, if need be, the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 30th year of the reign of King George the 3rd, intituled "An Act for better supplying the City of Norwich with water."

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 31st day of December next, printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated the 11th day of November 1852.

In Parliament, Session 1853.

Warrington and Altrincham Junction Railway.

(Extension to Stockport.)

THE Warrington and Altrincham Junction Railway Company intend to apply to Parliament in the session of 1853, for leave to introduce a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes, viz:—

1st.—To authorize them to extend their railway from the town of Altrincham to or near to the town of Stockport, and to construct all necessary stations, approaches, and works in connexion with that extension. The extension will commence by a junction with the Warrington and Altrincham Junction Railway, at or near to the point in the township of Altrincham, in the parish of Bowdon, where the authorised line of the Warrington and Altrincham Junction Railway, now in course of construction, crosses the Duke of Bridgewater's Canal, and on the eastern side of the said canal, will pass through Bowdon, Altrincham, Timperley, Baguley, Ashton-upon-Mersey, Sale, Northen otherwise Northenden, Northen, Northen Etchells or Etchells-in-Northen, Stockport, Cheadle, Cheadle Moseley, and Cheadle Bulkeley, in Cheshire; Manchester, Didsbury, Heaton Norris, Heaton Mersey, and part of the borough of Stockport, in Lancashire; and will terminate in the timber yard of Messieurs John and William Bellhouse, at the west side of Wellington-road North, in Heaton Norris, in the parish of Manchester, and borough of Stockport.

2nd.—To authorize the same Company to purchase compulsorily lands and houses for the purposes of the said extension and works; to extinguish all rights and privileges which may interfere with the construction thereof; and to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the use thereof.

3rd.—To amend and extend the powers of "The Warrington and Altrincham Junction Railway Act, 1851," and to change the name of the Company, and of their undertaking.

A plan and section of the said extension, a book of reference to the plan, a published map on which the proposed extension will be laid down, and a copy of this notice will, before the first day of December next, be deposited at the office, at Chester, of the Clerk of the Peace for Cheshire, and at the office, at Preston, of the Clerk of the Peace for Lancashire; and copies of so much of the plan, section, and book of reference as relates to each parish in which the intended works are to be constructed, will, together with a copy of this notice, be deposited, before the same day, at the residence of the parish clerk of that parish; and with respect to extra-parochial places, at the residence of the parish clerk of an adjoining parish.

Copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons before the first day of January 1853.—Dated this tenth day of November 1852.

Leeds Gas Light Company.

(Amendment of Acts.—Increase of Capital.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the Acts following, relating to the Leeds Gas Light Company (that is to say): local and personal Acts, 58th George 3rd, cap. 56; and 6th and 7th Vic. cap. 30.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to authorise the Company to raise a further sum of money by the creation of new shares, either with or without a preference or priority in the payment of dividend, or by mortgage, or by both those means, or by such other means as shall be provided by the said intended Act, and also to enable the Company to convert all or any part of their share capital, for the time being, into stock, and to assign to such stock, or any part thereof, if they shall think fit, any preference or priority in the payment of dividends or other special privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the 31st day of December next, printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 12th day of November 1852.
