"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of West Ham and East Ham, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said two parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of Saint Emmanuel, situate at Forest-gate, in the said parish of West Ham, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act passed, in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Forest Gate,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: the boundary commences in the

Romford-road, at a point where the parish boundary line of East Ham crosses the said road, and proceeds in a northerly direction along the boundary line dividing the parish of East Ham from Little Ilford parish, thence westerly along the boundary line dividing the parish of East Ham from Wanstead parish until it meets the boundary line dividing the parish of West Ham from Wanstead parish, and thence westerly along the said boundary until it meets the boundary line dividing Church-street Ward from Stratford Ward, thence southerly along the said boundary to Forest-lane, thence easterly along the middle of the said lane to a point opposite the boundary stone placed on the south side of the lane, thence south in a straight line to the boundary stone placed on the south side of the Romford-road next the Round-houses, and continues south along the western hedge of Margery Hall Field to the boundary stone on the north side of the footpath leading from Stratford to Upton, thence east along the middle of the said footpath to Upton-lane, thence by an imaginary line drawn in a south-easterly direction through the premises now occupied severally by Ireson Joseph Dimsdale and William Wackerbarth to the boundary stone placed at the west end of the hedge dividing the properties of Samuel Shepperd and Sir John Henry Pelly, Baronet, thence easterly along the said hedge to Gipsey-lane, thence north along the middle of the said lane to a point opposite the north-west corner of the field forming allotment No. 33 in the tithe-apportionment map of the parish of East Ham, thence eastwardly along the said line forming the boundary between the southernmost side of the allotments Nos. 32 and 35 in the occupation of Mr. William Adams, and the most northerly side of allotments Nos. 33, 34, 36 and 37, now in the occupation of Mr. Joseph Ramsden, to the north-east corner of allotment No. 37, where the same joins White Post-lane and the boundary line which divides the parish of East Ham from Little Ilford parish, thence north along the said boundary line to the point where the boundary commenced in the Romford-road, as the same is more particularly delineated and described on the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon tinted dark green, and pink.

"That the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and also patron (in right of his see) of the parish church of the said parish of East Ham, and also of the Right Honourable Edward Geoffry, Earl of Derby, First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury (on behalf of your Majesty as patron of the parish church of the said parish of West Ham) have been respectively obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Forest Gate, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave to represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Charles James, Bishop of London, and Edward Geoffry, Earl of Derby, as such respective patrons as aforesaid (testified as aforesaid) with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners (testified as hereinafter mentioned), and of the said Charles James Bishop of London, (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church at Forest Gate aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised alternately by the vicars or incumbents for the time being, of the said parishes or parish churches
