FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1852.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th day of November 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for endowing the archdeaconry of Canterbury with a canonry in the cathedral church of Canterbury.

"Whereas by the first-mentioned Act it is enacted, that in the said cathedral church of Canterbury, the canonry held by the Archdeacon of Canterbury shall be subject to the provisions thereafter contained respecting the endowment of archdeaconries by the annexation of canonries thereto; and it is further enacted, that, subject to the consent of the bishop, any archdeaconry may be endowed, amongst other modes, by the annexation of a canonry.

"And whereas it is by the same Act enacted, that upon the endowment of any archdeaconry by either of the modes of endowment therein provided, and with the consent of the bishop of the diocese and of any archdeacon in possession at the time of the passing of the said Act, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments (except any right of patronage) belonging to such archdeaconry at the time of such endowment may, by the authority therein provided, be vested in us for the purposes of the said Act.

"And whereas it is by the said Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any dignitary or officer of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such dignitary or officer, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas the Venerable James Croft was, at the time of the passing of the said Acts, and still is Archdeacon of Canterbury, and also still holds the canonry in the same church which was held by him at the time of the passing of the said Acts, and he has agreed, in consideration of receiving from us the money payment hereinafter mentioned, to consent to the immediate transfer to us of his interest in the estates and endowments now belonging to his said archdeaconry on the permanent annexation thereto of the canonry in the said cathedral church of Canterbury now held by him:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the said James Croft, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that upon and from the day of the gazetting of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, the said canonry in the said cathedral church of Canterbury now held by the said James Croft shall become and be permanently annexed and united to the said archdeaconry of Canterbury, and that every person hereafter becoming Archdeacon of Canterbury shall be entitled to installation to the same canonry, and shall also be entitled to and invested with and shall and may hold and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and emoluments of the same canonry to all intents and purposes, so long as he shall remain such archdeacon, and no longer:

"And we further recommend and propose, with the like consents, that upon such annexation as aforesaid, all the lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and also all other lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments (if any) at any time heretofore annexed to and now forming part of the endowment of the said archdeaconry of Canterbury (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be disannexed from the said archdeaconry, and shall become and be absolutely transferred to and vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts:

"And we further recommend and propose that in consideration of and for such immediate transfer of such estates as aforesaid, there shall, on the completion thereof, be paid by us to the said James Croft, the sum of four thousand four hundred and seventy-five pounds:

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters to which this scheme applies, in conformity with the said recited Acts, or any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

"All that the parsonage and rectory of Lympe alias Lymne, in the county of Kent, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate in Lympe alias Lymne aforesaid, West Hythe and Stanford, in the said county of Kent, or elsewhere, all which are now (with certain exceptions) demised, or intended so to be, unto Robert Manners Croft, by virtue of a lease, dated the twenty-seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, granted by the said Archdeacon for the term of three lives.

"And also all that the rectory or parsonage of Stone, next Feversham, in the said county of Kent, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, all which are now demised or intended so to be unto Henrietta Wrench, by virtue of a lease, dated the thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, granted by the said Archdeacon for the term of twenty-one years from Michaelmas day then last past.

"And also all that the rectory or parsonage of Fenham, in the said county of Kent, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, all which are now (with certain exceptions), demised or intended so to be unto Messrs. Gillow, by a lease, dated the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, granted by the said Archdeacon for the term of twenty-one years from Midsummer day then last past.

"And also all those the rectories or parsonages of Linsted and Doddington, in the said county of Kent, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, all which are now, or were lately (with certain exceptions), demised, or intended so to be, unto Robert Manners Croft and Henry John Torre, by a lease, dated the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, granted by the said Archdeacon for the term of twenty-one years from the making of the said lease.

"And also all that the rectory or parsonage of Iwade, or Wade next Milton, in the said county of Kent, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, all which are now (with certain exceptions) demised, or intended so to be, unto John Rigden Neame, by a lease dated the twenty-fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, granted by the said Archdeacon for the term of twenty-one years from the twenty-third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

"And also all lands, tenements, houses, edifices, barns, buildings, cellars, meadows, glebe lands, orchards, gardens, commons, moors, marshes, common of turbary, pastures, feedings, woods, underwoods, waters, fishings, reversions, tithes, rents, duties, pensions, portions, obventions, fruits, profits, mines, quarries, and appurtenances, (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), to the several rectories, parsonages, lands, and hereditaments, hereinbefore mentioned, or in any way belonging, or therewith at any time held, used, occupied, or enjoyed."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Saint Pancras, in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same :

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said prebend of Saint Pancras (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof :

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments ; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable :

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or transfer, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Saint Pancras, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for regulating the incomes of the future deans and canons of the cathedral church of Ripon.

"Whereas it is by the first recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently may be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same), such annual sums shall be determined on to be paid, and shall accordingly be paid by us, or such deductions shall be allowed to be made out of the proceeds of any suspended canonry or canonries, as, after due enquiry and calculation, shall give to the dean of every cathedral and collegiate church in England an average annual income of one thousand pounds, and to the respective canons of every cathedral church in England an average annual income of five hundred pounds, and with regard to the cathedral church of Ripon as shall also enable the chapter thereof to provide for the efficient performance of all the duties of the said church and the maintenance of the fabric thereof :

"And whereas, by the secondly recited Act, it is declared and enacted, that notwithstanding such last recited provision, it shall be lawful to carry such purposes or any of them into effect by any mode of payment or contribution which may be deemed fit, as well as by the mode in the said first recited Act specified, and that the scale of payments and receipts may from time to time, in any case be revised, and, if need be, varied by the like authority, so as to preserve, as nearly as may be, the intended average annual incomes respectively, but not so as to affect any dean or canon in possession at the time of making any such variation.

"And whereas, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, issued in pursuance of the said Acts, and duly published in the London Gazette, we are authorized to pay in the manner and at the times therein mentioned, to the treasurer of the said cathedral church of Ripon, an annual sum of three thousand three hundred pounds or a proportionate part thereof, as by the said Order provided, to be applied in the proportions therein also mentioned, towards the efficient performance of the duties, the maintenance of the fabric, and the augmentation of the annual incomes of the deans and canons of the said church.

"And whereas upon further inquiry and consideration it appears to us to be expedient, that the scale of payments and receipts, under the said Order in Council, should be revised and varied, and that the following arrangement should be adopted for regulating such incomes.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that with respect to every dean and canon of the said cathedral church of Ripon, appointed after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, there shall be delivered to us by the treasurer of such church in every year, so soon as conveniently may be after the annual audit of the accounts of the chapter of the said church, a correct account in writing, in such form, and verified in such manner, as we shall from time to time direct, shewing the moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, shall have become due and payable to such dean or canon, in respect of the deanery, or of any such canonry of the said cathedral church, out of the corporate revenues thereof, including the said sum of three thousand three hundred pounds, or any proportionate part thereof, payable by us as aforesaid, for the year ending on the day up to which such accounts shall have been so audited as aforesaid; and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account that the amount so due and payable out of the said corporate revenues shall, in the case of such dean, exceed the sum of one thousand pounds, or, in the case of any such canon, the sum of five hundred pounds, then in every such case the amount of the surplus shall, at the same time, be paid by the said treasurer to our credit, at the Bank of England, and that upon any account so delivered being examined and approved by our treasurers for the time being, their receipt for the amount of any such surplus shall be given to the said treasurer of the said cathedral church, and shall be a good and valid discharge for the same, and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account that the amount so due and payable in the case of the dean of the said cathedral church shall be less than the sum of one thousand pounds, or in the case of any canon the amount so due and payable shall be less than the sum of five hundred pounds, then in every such case there shall be paid by us forthwith to such treasurer, on account of such dean or canon, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency, and the receipt of such treasurer, countersigned by such dean or canon, as the case may be, shall be a good and sufficient discharge for any claim which any such dean or canon may have on us in respect of the average annual income to which he may be entitled for the year to which the same account relates, under the provisions of the said first recited Act.

"Provided always, and we further recommend and propose, that all moneys which, according to the statutes and usages of the said cathedral church, may be receivable by any dean or canon thereof succeeding upon the first vacancy of the deanery, and of each canonry, happening after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, shall be included in the next yearly account to be delivered to us as aforesaid; and that the income of the dean or canon so newly appointed shall be made up or limited, as the case may be, in manner aforesaid, to such part of the sum of one thousand pounds or five hundred pounds, and no more, as shall be proportioned, according to such rate, to the period during which he shall have been appointed to such deanery or canonry.

"And that, upon every subsequent vacancy of the deanery or any canonry, all the moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, would, if such vacancy had not taken place, have become due and payable to the dean or canon making such vacancy, out of the corporate revenues of the said cathedral church for the year ending on the day of the next ensuing annual audit as aforesaid, shall be included in the account so to be delivered to us as aforesaid after such audit; and that the whole of any surplus above the sum of one thousand pounds in the case of a dean, and five hundred pounds in the case of a canon, shall be paid to us; and that in case the amount of such moneys shall be below the said sum of one thousand pounds or five hundred pounds, as the case may be, we shall not be called upon to pay in respect of such deanery or canonry any greater sums for that year than shall together be necessary to make up the income of such deanery or canonry for that year to one thousand pounds or five hundred pounds, as the case may be; and that the respective incomes of one thousand pounds to the dean and five hundred pounds to each canon, so to be secured as aforesaid, shall, on every such vacancy, be strictly apportionable between the dean or canon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the dean or canon succeeding thereto, any statutes or usage of the said cathedral church, relating to the division of the corporate revenues thereof, to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said cathedral church, or the deans and canons thereof, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

MARINE BARRACK CANTEENS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-Place, December 7, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Thursday the 30th instant, at one o'clock, the Canteens in the undermentioned barracks will be let from the 31st instant to the 1st January 1856, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

No person but of unexceptionable character, nor any person for more than one Canteen, or who will not undertake bona fide to reside in or occupy the Canteen, and conduct the business thereof in his own person, will be approved; and two sureties will be required for the regular payment of the rent, and of all sums which may become due in respect of the said Canteen, and for the due performance of the several conditions and stipulations of the indenture of lease. The revenue or other licences to be paid by the tenant.

The person whose proposal shall be accepted, and his sureties, must execute an indenture of lease and covenants relating thereto, the particulars whereof may be known by applying to this Office, or to the Barrack Masters at the several barracks.

The Christian and Surnames of two respectable persons, with their professions and places of abode, who will join the tenant in executing the indenture of lease as his sureties, must be inserted in the proposals. The tenant is to pay half the value of the stamps on the indenture of lease upon executing the same, and it is to be understood that the said Commissioners will not undertake to procure the tenant a licence.

A printed form of the tender and indenture of lease may be had at this office, or on application to the respective Barrack Masters. No tender will be received after one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words, "Tender for Marine Barrack Canteen," and must also be delivered at the Office of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, at Somerset-place.

By the Mutiny Act, Canteens are not liable to have troops billeted on them.

As all persons becoming tenants of Canteens will be bound to the strict performance of the covenants of the indenture of lease, and to the full payment of the rent and privilege of sale to the troops, without any remission or reduction under any circumstances whatever, they are hereby cautioned to make themselves fully acquainted with the conditions of letting, prior to their making a proposal.

The rents of the Canteens as tenements or dwellings are to be proposed at the sums stated opposite to each in the following list; therefore the biddings will be upon what is offered for every ten men per month, exclusive of sergeants occupying the barracks, the number being ascertained from the Barrack Master's returns, made up at twelve o'clock at noon on the first day of every month, and no changes in the occupation of the barrack which may take place in the progress of the month, either for or against the tenant, will be taken into account. No less number than ten will be charged against the tenant, nor will any odd number be calculated: thus, if the barrack should be occupied by 148 men on the first day of the month, only 140 will be calculated for that month. The bidders are also desired to introduce no fractional parts of a penny in their offers, as they will not be noticed, nor will any tenders be noticed except such as are strictly according to the form furnished.
