

and that the following arrangement should be adopted for regulating such incomes.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that with respect to every dean and canon of the said cathedral church of Ripon, appointed after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, there shall be delivered to us by the treasurer of such church in every year, so soon as conveniently may be after the annual audit of the accounts of the chapter of the said church, a correct account in writing, in such form, and verified in such manner, as we shall from time to time direct, shewing the moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, shall have become due and payable to such dean or canon, in respect of the deanery, or of any such canonry of the said cathedral church, out of the corporate revenues thereof, including the said sum of three thousand three hundred pounds, or any proportionate part thereof, payable by us as aforesaid, for the year ending on the day up to which such accounts shall have been so audited as aforesaid; and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account that the amount so due and payable out of the said corporate revenues shall, in the case of such dean, exceed the sum of one thousand pounds, or, in the case of any such canon, the sum of five hundred pounds, then in every such case the amount of the surplus shall, at the same time, be paid by the said treasurer to our credit, at the Bank of England, and that upon any account so delivered being examined and approved by our treasurers for the time being, their receipt for the amount of any such surplus shall be given to the said treasurer of the said cathedral church, and shall be a good and valid discharge for the same, and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account that the amount so due and payable in the case of the dean of the said cathedral church shall be less than the sum of one thousand pounds, or in the case of any canon the amount so due and payable shall be less than the sum of five hundred pounds, then in every such case there shall be paid by us forthwith to such treasurer, on account of such dean or canon, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency, and the receipt of such treasurer, countersigned by such dean or canon, as the case may be, shall be a good and sufficient discharge for any claim which any such dean or canon may have on us in respect of the average annual income to which he may be entitled for the year to which the same account relates, under the provisions of the said first recited Act.

"Provided always, and we further recommend and propose, that all moneys which, according to the statutes and usages of the said cathedral church, may be receivable by any dean or canon thereof succeeding upon the first vacancy of the deanery, and of each canonry, happening after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, shall be included in the next yearly account to be delivered to us as aforesaid; and that the income of the dean or canon so newly appointed shall be made up or limited, as the case may be, in manner aforesaid, to such part of the sum of one thousand pounds or five hundred pounds, and no more, as shall be proportioned, according to such rate, to the period during which he shall have been appointed to such deanery or canonry.

"And that, upon every subsequent vacancy of the deanery or any canonry, all the moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, would, if such vacancy had not taken place, have become due and payable to the dean or canon making such vacancy, out of the corporate revenues of the said cathedral church for the year ending on the day of the next ensuing annual audit as aforesaid, shall be included in the account so to be delivered to us as aforesaid after such audit; and that the whole of any surplus above the sum of one thousand pounds in the case of a dean, and five hundred pounds in the case of a canon, shall be paid to us; and that in case the amount of such moneys shall be below the said sum of one thousand pounds or five hundred pounds, as the case may be, we shall not be called upon to pay in respect of such deanery or canonry any greater sums for that year than shall together be necessary to make up the income of such deanery or canonry for that year to one thousand pounds or five hundred pounds, as the case may be; and that the respective incomes of one thousand pounds to the dean and five hundred pounds to each canon, so to be secured as aforesaid, shall, on every such vacancy, be strictly apportionable between the dean or canon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the dean or canon succeeding thereto, any statutes or usage of the said cathedral church, relating to the division of the corporate revenues thereof, to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said cathedral church, or the deans and canons thereof, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the diocese of Ripon.
