Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1853.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of December 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the militia in England," it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to raise and from time to time to keep up any number not exceeding eighty thousand private militia men to serve for the several counties, ridings, and places required by the therein first recited Act to raise militia, fifty thousand of whom may be raised in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two and thirty thousand in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

And it is thereby provided, that if it shall happen that the number of men to be raised in either of such years shall not be fully raised in the year in which the same is appointed to be raised, the number deficient may be raised as soon as may be thereafter.

And it is thereby further enacted, that for the purpose of raising the number of men required to be raised under that Act, the lieutenants of the said several counties, ridings, and places should in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, as soon as conveniently might be after the passing of that Act, and in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, at such time as Her Majesty should by Order made with the advice of Her Privy Council appoint for that purpose, direct their deputy lieutenants or the colonels or commanding officers of the regiments, battalions, or corps of militia of their respective counties, ridings, and places, without delay to proceed to raise and enrol volunteers to serve for the term of five years in the militia of such counties, ridings, and places, not exceeding the number of men for the time being authorized to be therein raised under that Act.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and appoint that the lieutenants of the said several counties, ridings, and places in the said Act mentioned shall, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, as soon as conveniently may be after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, direct their deputy lieutenants or the colonels or commanding officers of the regiments, battalions, or corps of militia of their respective counties, ridings, and places, without delay to proceed to raise and enrol volunteers to serve for the term of five years in the militia of such counties, ridings, and places, not exceeding the number of men for the time being authorised to be therein raised under that Act. And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and be transmitted to the respective lieutenants of the said counties, ridings, and places, in order that they should proceed upon the same, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act of Parliament.

C. C. Greville.

Master of the Horse's Office, December 30, 1852.

GEO. BLACK, Witness.
P. CAMPBELL, Witness.
Glasgow, December 29, 1852.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause, Almond v. Starkey, with the approbation of the Honourable Sir George Rose, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Auction Mart, Bartholomew-lane, London, on Tuesday the 8th day of February 1853, at twelve o'clock, by Mr. James Beadel, the person appointed by the said Master for that purpose, in two lots;

A moiety of certain freehold estates, comprising Nos. 122 and 123, Drury-lane, and No. 1, Princes-street, Drury-lane, being the Constitution public-house and premises adjoining. No. 123 consists of the public house and wine vaults, known as the Constitution, substantially erected, and situate opposite the back front of Drury-lane Theatre, with spacious bar and vat store, all in one, a small paved yard, extensive and lofty cellars, and several domestic apartments (with a private entrance in Princes-street). No. 122 consists of separate private entrance, a room used as a counting-house, with distinct entrance from the street, and made to communicate with the bar of the Constitution, a small workshop in the rear, and paved yard. In the basement, a spirit cellar communicating with the tavern, and various domestic apartments; the whole of this property is in the tenure of Mr. James Wilson. No. 1, Princes-street, Drury-lane, consists of a greengrocer's shop and coal shed, with sitting-room behind, on the ground floor, let to Mr. Simmonds, and private entrance to the rooms above, a large boarded room in the basement, suitable for stowage of coal, and four floors above, each containing two rooms. This is a substantially erected brick-built house.

Printed particulars and conditions may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, on personal application only; also of Messrs.
