AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of December, 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," and of the first section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relative to the assignment of ecclesiastical districts," and of the nineteenth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Wolstanton, of the chapelry district of Saint James New Chapel, of the particular district of Golden Hill, and of the parish of Audley, all in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, (such particular district of Golden Hill having been duly assigned under the power or authority for that purpose contained in the tenth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the first and second years of the reign of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled an Act to amend the Acts for building and promoting the building of additional Churches in populous parishes;') it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said parish of Wolstanton, the chapelry district of Saint James New Chapel, the particular district of Golden Hill, and the said parish of Audley, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated Church of Saint Thomas, situate at Kidsgrove, in the said particular district of Golden Hill, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the ninth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," and in the first section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relative to the assignment of ecclesiastical districts," and in the nineteenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Church Building Acts," and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Kidsgrove,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: The boundaries commence at the south-western end of the township of Brieryhurst, at the point marked A on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and proceed in a north-easterly and northerly direction, by the trace of an old brook course which divides the parishes of Church Lawton and Wolstanton, to the point marked B as aforesaid; then turn south-easterly, and proceed along the road leading from Hall Green to New Chapel, to the point marked C as aforesaid; and from thence, in a south-westerly direction, along the road leading from New Chapel to Kidsgrove, to the point marked D as aforesaid; and from thence, in a south-easterly direction, along a fence dividing lands, respectively belonging to Thomas Kinnersly, Esquire, and Charles Bourne Lawton, Esquire, to the point marked E as aforesaid; and thence take the boundary line between the townships of Brieryhurst and Oldcote, in a south-westerly direction, as far as the point marked F as aforesaid; thence south-easterly, following the boundary between the townships of Oldcote and Ranscliffe, along the western side of the Old-road leading from Kidsgrove to Tunstall, to the point marked G as aforesaid; thence south-westerly, along a fence dividing the said townships of Oldcote and Ranscliffe, to the point marked H as aforesaid; and from thence turn in a westerly direction along a brook course, to the point marked I as aforesaid; and from thence along the highway leading from Kidsgrove to Ranscliffe, in a southerly direction, to the point marked K as aforesaid; and continues along the same road through Ranscliffe, to the road leading to Tunstall from Talk o'the Hill, to the point marked L as aforesaid; and turn in a westerly direction along
