

Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on Tuesday the fifteenth day of March next :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this order be forthwith published in the London Gazette ; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the parish church of Saint Mary Islington, and of the chapel of ease in the Holloway-road, in the said parish, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said fifteenth day of March next.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of February, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and also of the third section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Hart, in the county and diocese of Durham, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Hartlepool, in the said parish of Hart, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and also in the third section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Hartlepool,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: the boundary line of the district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Hartlepool, commences from a bound stone placed by the sea shore, close by the Town Moor, and proceeds westerly therefrom in a straight line, passing on the south side of Moor House as far as the Stripes along the same, crossing Northgate and down Sunny Side to the south-eastern corner of Victoria Dock, then skirting the south-western side of that dock until it reaches the boundary line of the parish of Stranton, then proceeds along such boundary line until it leaves the same at the southernmost point of the last field belonging to Low Warren Farm, and from thence proceeding westerly to the south-western corner thereof, and from thence following the boundary of such farm until it reaches the sea shore, where another bound stone is placed, and from such bound stone proceeds south-easterly along the sea shore to the point where the first-mentioned bound stone is placed and where the boundary commenced, which district chapelry is more particularly shewn by the map or plan hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, or continue to be published in the said church of the Holy Trinity, at Hartlepool, and also that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, or continue to be solemnized or performed, in the same church, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent for the time being of Trinity Church aforesaid, for his own use and benefit.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect; agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of February, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Report from the General Board of Health, dated the eighteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

"We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and
