FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1853.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of February, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for enabling Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain mining lease, about to be granted by the Rector of the parish of Camborne, in the county of Cornwall:

"Whereas by the said last-recited Act it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for any Ecclesiastical Corporation, aggregate or sole (with certain exceptions which do not include rectors), from time to time, with the consent or consents thereby required, to grant or demise by lease, in manner thereafter mentioned, any mines, minerals, quarries, or beds, belonging to such Corporation, together with the right of working, or of opening and working the same:

"And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that in case of any lease of mines, minerals, quarries, or beds granted thereunder, such portion of the improved value accruing under such lease, as by the authority provided in the first-recited Act shall be determined, not being more than three-fourth parts, nor less than one moiety of such improved value, shall forthwith, and from time to time, as the same shall accrue, be paid to us, and shall be subject to the provisions relating to monies payable to us:

"And whereas, with the consent required by the said Act, and otherwise in accordance with the provisions thereof, it is proposed by the Reverend Hugh Rogers, the present rector of Camborne aforesaid, to grant, or demise by lease, certain lands, with the mines and minerals lying and being thereunder, situate in the said parish of Camborne, belonging to him as such rector, with full power to the lessees to open and work the said mines:

"And whereas the improved value to accrue under the lease so proposed to be granted as aforesaid, will, according to the meaning of the same Act, be the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease, after deducting the rent at present received for the said lands:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that three fourth parts of the whole net amount (after deducting so much as would be equal to the present rent of the said lands) of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease so to be granted, whether consisting of rent, royalty, or otherwise, shall, by such lease, be made directly payable to us, and that we shall have all the like remedies in respect of such three-fourth parts of any such reservation as aforesaid, as if the same were a separate rent reserved to us as lessors, or grantors, and reversioners of the premises comprised in such lease, independently of the rights and remedies of the said Hugh Rogers, and his successors, rectors of Camborne, in respect of the remaining one-fourth part thereof, without any priority or preference between us and the said rector for the time being; and, further, that we shall have full benefit and advantage, either jointly with, or separately from, the said Hugh Rogers and his successors, rectors of Camborne for the time being, of all or any of the covenants, conditions, and agreements in the said lease to be contained on the lessees' part, in like manner as if we had been grantors, lessors, and reversioners as aforesaid, and as in such lease shall be expressed; and that, for effectuating such objects, the said lease shall, and may, be framed in such manner, and contain all such clauses and provisions as we shall approve, and shall have full force accordingly, any rule of law, statute, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the monies which shall from time to time be received by us, by virtue or on account of the reservation or reservations aforesaid (after deducting therefrom all costs, charges and expenses which we may have incurred in respect of the said lease, or in receiving such monies) shall be invested in the three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities; and the dividends arising therefrom shall be from time to time invested in like manner, until such annuities, with the accumulations thereon, shall produce such a sum as shall appear to us, and to the patron for the time being of the said Rectory of Camborne, to be sufficient to provide a parsonage house for the Incumbent of the District of Penponds, within the said parish; and that such parsonage house shall be erected according to plans and specifications to be approved by us and the patron for the time being of the said rectory; and that, after such specific appropriation, all the remaining stock and monies, and the monies to be received in future by us under the said lease, shall, after deducting all costs, charges, and expenses incident to the receipt, investment, or disbursement of the said monies, be from time to time applied towards augmenting the income of the incumbent of the district of Penponds for the time being, or towards making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Camborne (including the district of Penponds, and any other district which may now exist or may hereafter be formed out of the said parish), in such manner as we, with the consent of the patron thereof for the time being, may recommend in any future scheme, to be ratified by your Majesty in Council."

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament; but that no such measure shall be proposed without the consent of the patron for the time being of the Rectory of Camborne aforesaid."

And whereas due notice of the said scheme has been given, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, and no objections have been made thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Exeter.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of February, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Ma-

esty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the income of the Archbishop of York.

"Whereas the Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of York, hath, with a view to the regulation of his income, according to the provisions of the said Act, entered into an agreement with us in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"Agreement made this twelfth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the one part, and the Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of York, of the other part.

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' after reciting that Her Majesty had issued a commission to certain persons therein named to inquire, amongst other things, whether any and what improvement could be made in the existing law and practice relating to the incomes of archbishops and bishops, so as to secure to them respectively fixed instead of fluctuating annual incomes, and that it was expedient that until the said Commissioners should have made their report and Parliament should have determined upon some permanent mode of effecting the object last aforesaid, temporary arrangements should be made for that purpose; it was enacted that, notwithstanding the provisions of the therein first-recited Act, and any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council founded thereon relating to or providing for the payment to or by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of fixed annual sums, it should be lawful, by the authority and in the manner by and in which the arrangements for carrying into effect the recommendations in the said Act recited might then be made (that is to say, by a scheme of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, confirmed and ratified by an Order of Her Majesty in Council), so to regulate from time to time the amounts, times, modes, and conditions of payments to be made to or by the said Commissioners as the case might be, by or to any archbishop or bishop who should have succeeded to a see upon any avoidance thereof happening after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, or any other archbishop or bishop who might signify his willingness to accept such annual income as thereafter mentioned in lieu of his present income, as to secure to every such archbishop or bishop the annual income named for the archbishop or bishop of his see, in the same or any other Act then in force, or in any Order of Her Majesty in Council duly made and published, and no more:

"And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette, it was provided that, in order to leave to the Archbishop of York for the time being the average annual income of ten thousand pounds, there should be paid to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, by the archbishop succeeding to such see upon the then next avoidance thereof, and his successors, the fixed annual sum of two thousand five hundred pounds, by equal half-yearly payments in every year :

“ And whereas the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, succeeded to the said see upon such next avoidance, which occurred before the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and now is archbishop thereof, and he hath signified his willingness, in accordance with the provisions of the said herein-recited Act, to accept, as from the first day of January now last past, the said annual income or yearly sum of ten thousand pounds, and no more, in lieu of the present and future income arising from his said see, or receivable by him under the provisions of the said recited Order in Council, or of any other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments of any kind or description whatsoever received or enjoyed by him, and to enter into an agreement with the said Commissioners for regulating the income to be received by him as from the said first day of January now last past, in manner hereinafter mentioned :

“ Now it is hereby agreed by and between the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, as follows ; that is to say :

“ 1. That the said Archbishop shall, on the twenty-ninth day of September next, and thereafter, half-yearly, on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September, in every succeeding year, deliver to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall from time to time direct, a correct account in writing, certified under his hand, of all moneys actually received by him, whether consisting of arrears or otherwise accrued due since the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in respect of the revenues of his see, or of such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, during the half-year ending on the thirtieth day of June or the thirty-first day of December, as the case may be, then last past, and also of all moneys remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or of any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid on account of such arrears as aforesaid, or otherwise, at the date of such account ; and in such account to be forthwith delivered, and in every such future half-yearly account, shall be included as money actually received by the said archbishop, such a sum as shall from time to time be agreed upon between him and the said Commissioners, or, in case of their disagreement, then as shall be determined by two indifferent persons, one to be chosen by the archbishop and the other by the said Commissioners, or, in case of the disagreement of such two persons, then by an umpire to be chosen by them, as a fair and reasonable occupation rent to be charged against the said archbishop for such parts of the estates of the said see, other than and except the palace belonging to the said see at Bishopthorpe, with the grounds and premises thereunto belonging, as shall have been in the possession or occupation of the said Archbishop, or of any person or persons under his authority or permission (other than and except under any lease or agreement for a lease to be granted or entered into after the execution of these presents, with the consent of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as hereinafter mentioned,) during the preceding half-year, or any part thereof, and according to the term of his, her, or their having been in such possession or occupation ; and if it shall appear by any such account that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as shall be allowed by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or their surveyor or receiver, the net amount actually received has exceeded five thousand pounds, being one-half of the said amount of the annual income so fixed for the said see as aforesaid, the surplus shall at the same time be paid by the said archbishop ; and he doth hereby agree to pay such surplus to the credit of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, at the Bank of England, and that upon the account so delivered being examined and approved by the treasurers of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for the time being, their receipt for the amount of such surplus shall be given to the said archbishop, and shall be a good and valid discharge for all payments or contributions in respect of the said annual sum of two thousand five hundred pounds for which the said archbishop is liable under the said Order in Council ; but if it shall appear, upon due investigation of any such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount so received is less than one-half of the said annual income so fixed as aforesaid for the said see, there shall be paid by the said Commissioners, and they do hereby agree to pay to the said Archbishop, on the first day of November or the first day of May, as the case may be, then next following, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency :

“ 2. Provided always, and it is further agreed by the said Archbishop, that subject to the right of apportionment (if any), hereinafter mentioned, after the delivery of such account, all arrears of rents due, or other payments in respect of the see, or of any such profits or emoluments as aforesaid, which may have remained unpaid at the end of the half year to which such account shall relate, shall form part of the future revenues of the said see, and shall when received, be included in the account for the then current half year, so to be delivered to the said Commissioners as aforesaid ; and the said archbishop shall take and use all lawful means and remedies for obtaining and compelling payment of all such moneys as last mentioned, within a reasonable time, or it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to use the name and act as the attorneys of the said archbishop, in demanding, obtaining, or compelling payment of such moneys, and giving good and sufficient discharges for the same, and all moneys so recovered after payment of the costs of obtaining or compelling payment thereof, and of all incidental expenses, shall be carried over to the common fund of the said Commissioners.

“ 3. Provided nevertheless, that with respect to all such sums of money as may have accrued in respect of the same revenues, profits, or emoluments, on the said first day of January now last past, and may have been or shall be hereafter received by the said archbishop, he, the said archbishop, shall be entitled to such apportioned part thereof (if any) as his legal personal representative would have been by law entitled to in case he had died on that day, and the said see had thereby become void.

“ 4. Provided also, and it is hereby further mutually agreed between the said archbishop and the said Commissioners, that all moneys which shall be due to the said archbishop on account of his said see, or any such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, at the time of his avoidance of the said see, whether by death or otherwise, or which in case of the avoidance thereof by death, shall accrue to his legal personal representatives, including all arrears accrued due since the said thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, subject to such right of apportionment (if any), as aforesaid, shall be considered as belonging to the said Commissioners, and shall and may be received or recovered by them, or by the said archbishop, or his representatives, on their behalf, and paid over to them with as little delay as practicable, and upon such avoidance an account shall forthwith be made and rendered by the said archbishop or his representatives, as the case may be, to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall require, of all moneys received or to be accounted for as moneys received by him or them since the then last half yearly account, and also of all moneys then remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, and if it shall appear by such account that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount received, or to be accounted for, has exceeded so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income, or sum of ten thousand pounds, as would be in proportion to the number of days which shall have intervened between the thirtieth day of June or the thirty-first day of December, whichever shall have happened next before such avoidance of the said see, and in that event, then the said archbishop, or his representatives, as the case may be, shall pay over such surplus to the credit of the said Commissioners, at the Bank of England; or if it shall appear upon the examination of such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net income so received and to be accounted for, is less in amount than so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income of ten thousand pounds, as shall be in proportion to such intervening number of days as last mentioned, then the said Commissioners shall pay to the said archbishop, or his legal personal representatives, such a sum of money as shall make up such deficiency.

“5. And the said Archbishop doth further agree that, before granting any lease, or entering into any agreement for granting a lease, by way of renewal, or in any other way disposing of the possession of any property belonging to the said see, or any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, on the property from whence the same shall arise, for any estate, term, or interest whatsoever therein, whether by parole or otherwise, and whether for valuable consideration or not, he will submit to the said Commissioners for their approval a statement in writing of his proposal to grant, enter into, or make such lease, agreement, or disposition, and of all the considerations (if any) whether by way of fine, premium, rent, royalty, or other nature, kind, or description whatsoever, to be received, taken, reserved, or rendered, for the granting or making thereof, together with all other terms of such intended lease, agreement, or disposition, and an explanation of the principle upon which such fine or other like consideration (if any) shall have been calculated, and that no such lease shall be granted, or agreement entered into, or other disposition made, without the consent of the said Commissioners, in writing under their common seal, and if it shall appear that the amount of any fine, or other like consideration, shall in any case exceed one-half of the said annual income of ten thousand pounds, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct such fine to be paid to them, and the said archbishop doth hereby agree that the same shall be so paid accordingly.

“6. Provided always, that this agreement, with all matters herein contained, is subject to the approval and ratification of Her Majesty in Council; and the said Commissioners do hereby agree forthwith to prepare and lay before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, recommending and proposing that Her Majesty should approve and ratify the same accordingly, so that the same, when ratified, shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

“In witness whereof the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have hereunto set their common seal, and the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, hath hereunto set his hand, the day and year first above written.

“(Signed) T. Ebor.”

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the said agreement be approved and ratified by your Majesty in Council, so that the same shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of York.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,’ have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments, vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said deanery of Lincoln, became vested in us on the decease of the Very Reverend George Gordon, Doctor of Divinity, the late holder of the said dignity, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said deanery of Lincoln, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Catton, in the East Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of York, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Kexby, in the said parish of Catton, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed particular district should consist of the township of Kexby, and should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Kexby,' and that the boundaries thereof should be as follow; that is to say: on the north, by the township of Scoreby, in the said parish of Catton; on the east, by the River Derwent; on the south, by the parish of Elvington; and on the west, by the parish of Dunnington, as such district chapelry of Kexby is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Paul, at Kexby, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of the said diocese of York, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to Saint Paul's Church, at Kexby, in the parish of Catton, be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, in the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of February, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Report from the General Board of Health, dated the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

"We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the parish of Clevedon, in the county of Somerset (the number of the said petitioners greatly exceeding thirty in the whole), directed Thomas Webster Rammell, a superintending inspector appointed for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to visit the said parish, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses, as to the sewerage, drainage and supply of water, the state of the burial grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any local Acts of Parliament in force within such parish for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said parish, or having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; also as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of that Act;

"And the said superintending inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by that Act, and hath reported in writing to the said Board upon the said several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters with respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act;

"And copies of the said report, accompanied by a notice, stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed;

"And it appears by the said report, that there is no local Act of Parliament in force within the said parish for paving, lighting (otherwise than for the profit of proprietors or shareholders), cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving such parish or any part thereof, or in anywise relating to the purposes of the said Public Health Act;

"Now, therefore, we, the said General Board of Health, do hereby, in pursuance of the Public Health Act, humbly report to your Majesty that it appears to us to be expedient:

"1. That the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act printed by your Majesty's printers, should be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said parish of Clevedon, in the county of Somerset, and that such area, places, and parts of places should be and constitute a district for the purpose of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

"2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act should consist of nine persons, and that the entire number should be elected for the whole of the said district.

"3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health should take place on the twenty-third day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

"4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board of Health should go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said first election of that Local Board takes place; but in case the day so appointed should fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then that such one-third should go out of office on the day next following.

"5. That every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds, or should be so resident, and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds.

"6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, Arthur Hallam Elton, Esq., of Clevedon Court, should have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and ratepayers, and should perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Arthur Hallam Elton, from illness or other sufficient cause, should be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or should be absent, or should refuse to act, then that John Speed Frowd, Esq., of Clevedon aforesaid, should exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

"7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification, required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, should be given to the said Arthur Hallam Elton, at his residence, Clevedon Court, situate within the aforesaid district of Clevedon; or in case he should refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said John Speed Frowd, at his residence, Montpellier Lodge, likewise within the district of Clevedon aforesaid.

"Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this first day of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

(Signed)

*William Molesworth.
T. Southwood Smith."*

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said report into consideration, is pleased to approve thereof, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, order and direct:—

1. That from and after the date of this Order, the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said parish of Clevedon, in the county of Somerset, and that such area, places, and parts of places, shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act, shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health shall take place on the twenty-third day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board of Health shall go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year, subsequently to that in which the said first election of that Local Board takes place; but in case the day so appointed shall fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then such one-third shall go out of office on the day next following.

5. That every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds:

6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, Arthur Hallam Elton, Esq., of Clevedon Court aforesaid, shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and ratepayers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Arthur Hallam Elton, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then that John Speed Frowd, Esq., of Clevedon aforesaid, shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said Arthur Hallam Elton, at his residence, Clevedon Court, situate within the aforesaid district of Clevedon, or in case he shall refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said John Speed Frowd, at his residence, Montpellier-lodge, likewise within the district of Clevedon aforesaid. Wm. L. Bathurst.
