Whitehall, March 28, 1853.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto John Sherburne Sherburne (heretofore John Sherburne Tench), late of the Wilderness, Hampton Wick, in the parish of Hampton, in the county of Middlesex, but now of Park-place, Finchley, in the same county, Gentleman, Her Royal Licence and authority, that he may continue to use the surname of Sherburne, in lieu of that of Tench, and that he may also bear the arms of Sherburne, and that such surname and arms may in like manner be taken, borne, and used by his issue, the said arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Hull and Holderness Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Bill is now pending in the Honourable the House of Commons, intituled "A Bill to incorporate a Company for making a railway from Kingston-upon-Hull to or near to Withernsea-in-Holderness, with a branch therefrom, and for other purposes," and that application is intended to be made to Parliament for leave to make an alteration in the course of the main line of the said intended railway, as shewn on the plans deposited, in pursuance of the Standing Orders of Parliament, in the month of November last; such alteration to commence in a field numbered 18 on the said plans, in the township of Winestead, and parish of Winestead, thence to pass in, through, or into the parish and township of Patrington; thence in, through, or into the parish and township of Winestead aforesaid; thence in, through, or into the said parish and township of Patrington, and to terminate in a field numbered 12 on the said plans, in the township of Patrington, and parish of Patrington aforesaid; and, for the purpose of effecting such alteration to make a deviation in the course of a certain drain, called Winestead Level Drain, in the said townships of Winestead and Patrington, to the extent which will be defined on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of the said intended alteration in the line of the said railway, and of the said deviation of Winestead Level Drain, with a book of reference thereto, will, together with a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of March in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the East Riding of the county of York, at his office, in Beverley, in the said Riding; and also with the Clerk of the Peace for the town or borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, and county of the same town or borough, at his office, No. 23, Bishop-lane, in the said borough of Kingston-upon-Hull; and that, on or before the same day, a copy of so much of the said plan and section, and book of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said alteration is proposed to be made, will, together with a copy of this notice, be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence.

Dated this twenty-fourth day of March, 1853.

Levett and Champney,
Robinson and Atkinson, } Solicitors.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Dover and Deal Railway and Cinque Ports, Thanet, and Coast Junction Company.

BY direction of Richard Richards, Esq., the Master of the High Court of Chancery, charged with the winding up of this Company, notice is hereby given, that the said Master purposes, on the 9th day of April, 1853, at twelve o'clock at noon, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, to proceed to make a call on the nine contributories of the said Company who are hereinafter named; that is to say: on the Right Honourable Albert Lord Londesborough, the Honourable William John Pym Gore, Hubert de Burgh, Henry William Beauclerk, John Brent, Lieutenant-Colonel Lothian Dickson, Thomas Flight, Lumsden Mackeson, and Joseph Thompson; and that the Master purposes that such call shall be for £2,350, to be paid by the before-mentioned nine contributories, in equal shares, or to be paid by such of the said before-mentioned nine contributories; and in such shares, as the said Master, after hearing the parties interested, and the evidence, shall direct.

All persons interested are entitled to attend at such day, hour, and place, to offer objections to such call.
R. Richards.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Metropolitan Carriage Company.

I JOSEPH HUMPHRY, the Master of the High Court of Chancery charged with the winding up of this Company, hereby give notice, that I shall, at my chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, on the 7th day of April next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, or at such other adjourned time or place as I may then or afterwards fix, appoint an Official Manager of this Company; and I give notice that all parties interested are entitled to attend at such time and place, and to offer proposals or objections as to any such appointment.—Dated this 23rd day of March, 1853. J. Humphry.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

1853.—29.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the petition, declaration, and provisional specification of William Bardwell, of No. 4, Great Queen-street, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, applying for letters patent for his invention of "improvements in treating sewage waters and matters," the certificate of the law officer allowing provisional protection thereon, advertised in the London Gazette, on the 14th day of January last, and the records relating thereto in the Office of the Commissioners of Patents, have been severally amended by the substitution of the name William Bardwell for "William Bendwell," the same having been written William Bendwell, in error.—March 29th, 1853.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.
