

Wounded.

Granville G. Loch, captain R.N., dangerously, in left side of abdomen, wounding intestines, lived forty hours.

J. H. Bushnell, aged 23, lieutenant, severely, hand burnt in firing a rocket.

H. A. Hinde, aged 23, mate, very severely, right arm and left hand.

W. C. F. Wilson, aged 23, mate, very severely, through neck.

Henry Reeves, aged 21, ordinary seaman, slightly, in the head.

David Harris, aged 30, A.B., severely, in left arm.

George Chambers, aged 24, A.B., severely, in left shoulder.

William Lamb, aged 25, A.B., severely, in left lower jaw.

Charles Ashcroft, aged 36, A.B., severely, in left thigh.

Malcolm Gilbraith, aged 32, A.B., slightly, in belly.

Thomas Stobin, aged 23, A.B., severely, in left hip.

John Scott, aged 46, A.B., severely, in face.

Michael Coinsinon, aged 24, A.B., severely, in right arm and side.

Roger Pepperel, aged 26, A.B., severely, in right arm.

Edward Jones, aged 24, A.B., severely, in chest and side.

Thomas Brampton, aged 33, captain of fore-castle, severely, in right knee.

John Huxam, aged 21, ordinary seaman, severely, left hip.

Joseph Lillycrap, aged 30, captain of maintop, severely, right knee and right shoulder.

John King, aged 31, A.B., slightly, in left knee.

William Bryant, aged 21, A.B., severely, in right side.

Henry Boys, aged 22, A.B., very severely, neck and jaw.

Michael Harris, aged 22, ordinary seaman, severely, in left arm.

Frederick Wheatley, aged 32, private marine, severely, left wrist and thigh.

Henry Holland, aged 29, serjeant marine, dangerously, left lung, face, and shoulder.

John Banks, aged 21, private marine, severely, left thigh.

George Lock, aged 33, private marine, severely, in left knee.

Timothy Courney, private marine, slightly, in right cheek.

James Bolton, aged 39, private marine, slightly, in right arm.

William Meeson, aged 25, private marine, severely, in right arm.

William Fulton, aged 22, private marine, severely, through ball of thumb.

George Blanchard, aged 24, private marine, slightly.

George Hobbs, aged 23, private marine, slightly, in left arm.

Henry Jervis, aged 27, private marine, slightly, in chin.

James Collins, aged 22, private marine, severely, in right leg.

John Ayres, private marine, slightly, in ear.

Charles Battlebury, aged 40, private marine, dangerously, left shoulder, ball passing through chest.

John Mew, aged 22, private marine, dangerously, in left lung, ball lodged.

Her Majesty's Steam-sloop Sphinx.Killed.

Mark Batty, gunner, Royal Marine Artillery, left dead on the field.

Wounded.

J. H. Glover, aged 23, lieutenant, severely, in face, ball entered under right eye, passed out at ear.

John Randall, aged 28, stoker, severely, in left hip, behind trochanter.

Edward Chandler, aged 29, boatswain's mate, severely, in right upper arm.

George Palmer, aged 25, gunner, Royal Marine Artillery, severely, scalp wound.

George Warnock, aged 25, gunner, Royal Marine Artillery, severely, in back, ball removed from right side.

HENRY SLADE,

Assistant Surgeon.

The detachment of the 67th Regiment had five men killed (including Captain Price), and eighteen wounded.

Commodore Lambert to C. Allen, Esquire.

SIR, Rangoon, February 13, 1853.

I REQUEST you may be pleased to lay before the Governor-General in Council the enclosed report of the proceedings of the naval force in the Bassein River.

Commander Rennie's conduct has met my entire approval, in which I am sure his Lordship in Council will concur.

I have, &c.

G. R. LAMBERT, Commodore
First Class, Commander-in-Chief.

Commander J. Rennie, I.N., Commanding the E.I.C. Steam-frigate Zenobia, Senior Naval Officer in the Bassein River, to Commodore Lambert.

(Extract.) Bassein, February, 3, 1853.

I HAVE the honour to forward for your Excellency's information a detailed report of my proceedings since assuming charge as Senior Naval Officer in the Bassein River.

I arrived here on the evening of the 19th ultimo, and in conjunction with the officer commanding the garrison, was immediately requested by the Commissioner, Captain Fytche, to furnish a force for the purpose of effecting the important objects as stated in his letter, No. 18, of 1853.

At 8 A.M. of the 21st, accompanied by the Commissioner, I proceeded in the E.I.C. steam-vessel Nemesis, towing the boats of the E.I.C. steam-frigate Zenobia, up the Dugga Creek, for the purpose of driving out the chief at Khyoung Gou.

On reaching the village of Khan Gee Goung at 5 P.M. (some distance above where the Nemesis grounded on a former occasion), we found the depth of water would not permit of our proceeding further in the steam-vessel. I at 8 P.M. therefore left with the boats of the vessels, and reached the enemy's outposts at 2 P.M. of the following day, the 22nd.

On nearing the position the Burmese opened fire on the boats from a stockade on the left bank, from which they were speedily expelled by a discharge of grape and canister. Cutting our way through the stakes which extended right across the creek, and for some twenty yards in depth, we at once pushed on for the village of Khyoung Gou, about three miles distant.