TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 1853.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 11, 1853.

NOTICE is hereby given, that his Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold Levees at St. James's-Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Wednesday, the 20th instant.
Wednesday, the 27th instant.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure that presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered equivalent to presentations to the Queen.

Addresses to the Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEES AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who purpose to attend the Levees, at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be delivered at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for approbation ; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levees but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of April, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the ninth and tenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is among other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts, and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of such districts; and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court should be holden in each district.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly.

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be to the advantage of the public if the following alteration were made in certain of the districts of the courts, as specified or set forth in the aforesaid Order;

Her Majesty having taken the premises into consideration is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, the parish of Northaw, now in the district of the County Court of Hertfordshire, holden at Saint Albans, shall be in the district of the County Court of Hertfordshire, holden at Barnet.
