

third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Wednesfield, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Wednesfield Heath, in the said parish of Wednesfield, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Wednesfield Heath,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The boundaries of the district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Wednesfield Heath, commenced at the junction of Bushbury-lane with the Cannock-road, and proceed along the middle of Bushbury-lane in a southerly direction to Thorncroft-lane; then along the middle of Thorncroft-lane, in a north-easterly direction, to the road leading to Long Knowles and Wood End; then along the middle of that road in a southerly direction, to a turn in the same road, to the point where that road meets the field called Far Little Fulwell, No. 699, on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Wednesfield; and then proceed along the north-western, north-eastern, and eastern boundaries of the said field, and also along the north-eastern boundaries of adjoining fields, called Near Fulwell, Far Fulwell, Long Fulwell, and Near New Cross Piece, Nos. 700, 703, 704, and 706, on the said tithe commutation map; and then across the Wednesfield-road to the bridge opposite New Cross over the Birmingham Canal; then crossing the bridge and turning in a south-westerly, and afterwards, in a south-easterly direction, along the middle of the lane from that bridge to the bridge over the London and North-Western Railway; then in a south-easterly direction along the middle of the railway to the Nachell-road; then in a southerly direction along the middle of the Nachell-road to the road from Wolverhampton to Willenhall and Walsall; and then along the middle of that road, in a westerly direction, to the boundary of the township of Wolverhampton; then along the boundary of the township of Wolverhampton, in a north-westerly direction, until it reaches the boundary of the township of Bushbury; then in a north-easterly direction along the last-named boundary to Bushbury-lane, where the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Wednesfield Heath commenced, and which are more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured yellow.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed in the said church of the Holy Trinity, at Wednesfield Heath aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should, from and after the next avoidance of the parish church of the said parish of Wednesfield, belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, at Wednesfield Heath, be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
