

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1853.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 11, 1853.

NOTICE is hereby given, that his Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold Levees at St. James's-Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Wednesday, the 20th instant.

Wednesday, the 27th instant.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure that presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered equivalent to presentations to the Queen.

Addresses to the Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEES AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who purpose to attend the Levees, at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be delivered at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for approbation ; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levees but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of April, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the law of copy-right," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorized by him, to import into any port in the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British dominions, for sale or hire, any printed book, first composed, or written, or printed and published in any part of the United Kingdom wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British dominions :

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," books, wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed, or written, or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British possessions abroad : And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to the protection in the colonies of works entitled to "copyright in the United Kingdom;" it is enacted, that in case the legislature, or proper legislative authorities, in any British possession, shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such possession, and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same, in the proper manner, to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty, and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council, declaring that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said

Acts, or any other Acts, against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books, first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards such colony; and thereupon such Act or Ordinance shall come into operation except so far as may be otherwise provided therein, or may be otherwise directed by such Order in Council: And whereas an Ordinance has been passed by the Legislature of the Island of Mauritius, No. 24, of 1851, "for securing in this Colony the rights on works entitled to copyright in the United Kingdom," whereby provision is made for protecting the rights of British authors in the said island:

And whereas Her Majesty hath expressed Her royal approval of the said Ordinance:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by the authority of the Act hereinbefore lastly recited, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that so long as the said Ordinance shall remain and continue in force within the said island, all prohibitions in either of the said hereinbefore-recited Acts of the Imperial Parliament, or in any other Acts thereof contained, against the importing into the said island, or against the selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing therein, foreign reprints of books, first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards the said island.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Most Noble the Duke of Newcastle, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of April, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial grounds or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and at the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month, or where any order made under "The Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," directing the provisions of that Act for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, to be put in force, is in force within such part or parts, then seven days at the least before such representation is so considered: Provided always that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas, after giving to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, a representation was made by the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials in the grounds attached to the parish church of the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, commonly called "The Old and New Grounds," should be discontinued, and that burials should be discontinued in the ground attached to the chapel of ease in the Holloway-road, in the said parish, and commonly called the "Chapel of Ease Burial Ground," subject to the following exception and qualification; that is to say: that burials should be permitted for the next two years in that part of the said ground which had not yet been used, and the right of interment, with proper precautions, in private vaults in the said ground, should be reserved:

And whereas Her Majesty in Council was pleased on the seventh day of February last to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on Tuesday the fifteenth day of March last; and such notice has been published in the London Gazette; and copies thereof have been affixed on the doors of the parish church of Saint Mary, Islington, and of the chapel of ease in the Holloway-road, in the said parish, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said fifteenth day of March last:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the grounds attached to the parish church of Saint Mary, Islington, commonly called "The Old and New Grounds," be discontinued from and after the twenty-first day of this instant April; and that burials be discontinued in the ground attached to the Chapel of Ease, in the Holloway-road, and commonly called "The Chapel of Ease Burial Ground," subject to the following exception and qualification; that is to say: that burials be permitted for the next two years from and after the date of this Order, in that part of the said ground which has not yet been used; and that the right of interment, with proper precautions, in private vaults in the said ground be reserved.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of April, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial grounds or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month, or where any order made under "The Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," directing the provisions of that Act for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, to be put in force, is in force within such part or parts, then seven days at least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish;

And whereas, after giving to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, a representation was made by the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials in the grounds attached to the said parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, should be discontinued, with the exception and qualification that burials should be permitted for the next two years in that portion of the said ground which had not yet been used, on condition that it is used only for parishioners:

And whereas Her Majesty in Council was pleased, on the twenty-first day of February last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on Wednesday the thirtieth day of March last; and such notice has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed on the doors of the parish church of Saint George, Bloomsbury, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said thirtieth day of March last:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the grounds attached to the parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, be discontinued from and after the twenty-first of this instant April, with the exception and qualification that burials be permitted for the next two years in that portion of the said ground which has not yet been used, on condition that it is used only for parishioners.

Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-Place, March 31, 1853.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 21st April next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford and Gosport, the undermentioned quantities of BLACK SILK HANDKERCHIEFS, Deptford 9,000 number; Gosport 19,000 number; one-third of each quantity to be delivered by the 30th of June, another third by the 31st of August, and the remainder by the 30th of September next, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders will not be received for less than half of each of the above quantities, and separate tenders must be made for each place, and no attention will be paid to any offer not so made.

Samples may be seen at the said office between the hours of ten and two only, and also at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, and at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Black Silk Handkerchiefs," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £20 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT for IRON PLATE WORKERS' WARES.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, March 30, 1853.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 26th April next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with IRON PLATE WORKERS' WARES, Consisting of Ash Buckets, Buoys, and Casks and Tanks for Oil, Tar, and Paint, &c., &c., under a contract for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles may be seen and a form of the tender obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Iron Plate Workers' Wares," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £800 for the due performance of the contract.
