"The boundary of the consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest, commences at the crossing of the Sheepshed and Newtown and the Loughborough and Bosworth-roads, near Warren Hill, as shewn on the eastern side of the map or plan hereunto annexed, and proceeds in a south-westerly direction along the centre of the Loughborough and Bosworth-road, to where it joins the Sheepshed and Wherscroft-road, along that road in an eastwardly direction for one hundred and forty yards to the boundary of the township of Woodhouse, and along the south-westwardly boundary line of that township to where it joins the liberty of Charley, from thence in a north-westwardly direction along the boundary line of Charley and Beau Manor, to where it joins the parish of Sheepshed, thence in the same direction until it joins the parish of Newtown Linford, thence in a south-westwardly direction till it joins the parish of Whitwick, near an ancient well, called Carter's Well, from thence the boundary of the consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church passes in a south-westwardly direction along the boundary line of the parishes of Whitwick and Markfield to the Whitwick and Leicester turnpike-road, near to Green Hill, and at the southern end of the Charley Mill-lane, from thence the boundary of such consolidated chapelry proceeds along the said turnpike-road, north-westwardly to the Hugglescote and Sheepshed-road, including the Forest Rock Public-house, on the westerly side of the said road, and proceeding thence along the said Whitwick and Leicester turnpike-road, for a distance of four hundred and forty yards to a bound-stone; from the said turnpike-road the boundary of such consolidated chapelry passes in a northwardly direction to another bound-stone, on the northern side of the Oaks-road, and along the centre of that road westwardly, for a distance of seven hundred and seventy yards, to the road leading from Belton to Whitwick; thence along the centre of that road north-eastwardly, to where it joins the boundary of the parish of Sheepshed, near 'Burrow's Springs,' where it leaves the Belton-road and passes along the Sheepshed parish boundary to the Loughborough and Ashby-de-la-Zouch turnpike-road; from thence the boundary of such consolidated chapelry passes eastwardly along the centre of that road to the junction of the Woodhouse-road, near Snells Nook, and along the centre of the last-mentioned road south-eastwardly, crossing the Forest Canal, to where that road joins the parish of Loughborough; from thence in a south-westwardly direction to an ancient landmark, called 'Nettle Bed Bush,' where it joins the liberty of Beau Manor, and the said consolidated chapelry district of Saint Paul, Woodhouse Eaves; and from thence the boundary proceeds south-westwardly, along the boundary line of Sheepshed and Beau Manor, to the Sheepshed and Newtown-road; and from thence in a south-eastwardly direction along the centre of that road to where it crosses the Loughborough and Bosworth-road, at the point where the description of the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest commences, as the same was more particularly delineated on the map or plan annexed to the said representation, and thereon coloured pink, green, blue, and yellow.

"That in the said representation it was further stated that it had been mutually agreed between the said several patrons (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, and also of the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, testified as therein mentioned), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, called The Oaks Church, should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion might require, be exercised by, the lords of the several manors, for the time being, of Groby, Whitwick, Beau Manor, Sheepshed, Ulverscroft, and Belton, in the county of Leicester.

"That by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, your Majesty was graciously pleased, by and with the advice of your Privy Council, to approve of and to order, as it was thereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry should be accordingly made, and the agreement in respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, called the Oaks Church, should be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that having taken into consideration the existing circumstances of the said consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest aforesaid, it appears to them to be expedient that the present boundaries thereof should be altered, as hereinafter mentioned, under and by virtue of the powers or authority contained in the sixteenth section of the said Act, passed in the eight and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, and that such proposed or altered boundaries should be those next hereinafter set forth, in lieu of, and in substitution for, the said boundaries hereinbefore mentioned, and comprised in your Majesty's said Order in Council, of the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

"The boundary of the consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest, commences at the crossing of the Sheepshed and Newtown, and the Loughborough and Bosworth-roads, near Warren Hill, as shown on the eastern side of the map or plan hereunto annexed, proceeds in a south-westerly direction along the centre of the Loughborough and Bosworth-road, to where it joins the Sheepshed and Ulverscroft-road, along that road in a south-eastwardly direction for one hundred and forty yards to the boundary of the township of Woodhouse, and along the south-westwardly boundary line of that township to where it joins the liberty of Charley, from thence in a north-westwardly direction along the boundary line of Charley and Beau Manor to where it joins the parish of Sheepshed, thence in the same direction until it joins the parish of Newtown Linford, thence in a south-westwardly direction till it joins the parish of Whitwick, near an ancient well, called 'Carter's Well;' from thence the boundary of the said consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church passes in a southwardly direction along the boundary line of the parishes of Whitwick and Markfield to the Whitwick and Leicester turnpike-road, near to Green Hill, and at the southern end of the Charley Mill Lane; from thence the boundary of such consolidated chapelry proceeds along the said turnpike-road north-westwardly to the Hugglescote and Sheepshed Road, including the Forest Rock Public House, on the westwardly side of the said road, and proceeding thence along the said Whitwick and Leicester turnpike-road, for a distance of four hundred and forty yards to a bound stone; from the said turnpike-road the boundary of such consolidated chapelry passes in a northwardly direction to another bound-stone on the northern side of the Oaks-road, and along the centre of that road westwardly for a distance of seven hundred and seventy yards to the road leading from Belton to Whitwick, thence along the centre of that road north-eastwardly to where it joins the boundary of the parish of Sheepshed, near Burrows Springs, where it leaves the Belton-road and passes along the Sheepshed parish boundary to the Loughborough and Ashby-de-la-Zouch turnpike-road; from thence the boundary of such consolidated chapelry passes eastwardly along the centre of that road to its junction with the Sheepshed and Newtown-road, and from thence in a south-eastwardly direction along the centre of that road to where it joins the Loughborough and Bosworth-road, at the point where the description of the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest commences, as the same is more particularly delineated on the said map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink, green, blue, and yellow.

"That the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, The Right Honourable Edward Strutt (now Chancellor of your Majesty's said duchy of Lancaster), the said Charles March Philipps, the said George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, the said Charles March Philipps, the said Richard William Penn Curzon Earl Howe, and William Herrick, as such respective patrons as aforesaid, and which said George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, as Lord of the said Manors of Ulverscroft and Groby, the said Charles March Philipps, as Lord of the said Manor of Sheepshed, the said Richard William Penn Curzon, Earl Howe, on behalf of the Most Honourable the Marquis of Hastings, a minor, as Lord of the said Manor of Whitwick, the said William Herrick, as Lord of the said Manor of Beau Manor, and Edward Dawson, of Whatton House, in the said county of Leicester, Esquire, as Lord of the said Manor of Belton, are the patrons of the said church called the Oaks Church, have severally consented to the said proposed alteration of boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest, as required by the sixteenth section of the said Act passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent and submit to your Majesty, that such proposed alteration of boundaries should not in any manner prejudice, alter, or affect the right of patronage of the said church, called the Oaks Church, as settled by your Majesty's said Order in Council.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the boundaries of the said district be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the district parish of Christ Church, Saint Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate in Carlisle-street, in the said district parish of Christ Church, Saint Marylebone, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' as enlarged by the twelfth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual the Church Building Acts,' and extended by the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Saint Marylebone,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Matthew, in Carlisle-street aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be received on account of and paid over to the Reverend Robert Walpole, Bachelor of Divinity, the present rector or incum-lent of such district parish of Christ Church, Saint Marylebone, during his incumbency thereof, and that upon his avoidance of the said district parish, such fees should belong to the incumbent for the time being of the said church of Saint Matthew, in Carlisle-street aforesaid.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, and also the consent of the said Robert Walpole (as the incumbent of the said district parish of Christ Church, Saint Marylebone), as required by the Act and section secondly hereinbefore mentioned, in order that the sub-division of such district parish, by forming thereout a district chapelry as aforesaid, shall take effect from the assignment of such district chapelry, in testimony whereof the said Charles James, Bishop of London, and Robert Walpole, have signed and sealed this representation.
