Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 11, 1853.

NOTICE is hereby given, that his Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold Levees at St. James's-Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Wednesday, the 20th instant.
Wednesday, the 27th instant.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure that presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered equivalent to presentations to the Queen.

Addresses to the Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of April, 1853.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following ; viz. :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that on the ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, they made a representation to your Majesty in Council, with the several consents testified under hand and seal of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of the diocese of Peterborough, of the Right Honourable George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, patron of the parish church of the parish of Newtown Linford, in the county of Leicester, and in the said diocese of Peterborough, of the Right Honourable Robert Adam Christopher, then Chancellor of your Majesty's duchy of Lancaster, and as such patron in right of the crown of the parish church of the parish of

Whitwick, in the county and diocese aforesaid, of Charles March Phillipps, of Garendon Park, in the said county of Leicester, Esquire, patron of the parish church of the parish of Sheepshed, in the county and diocese aforesaid, of the said George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, the said Charles March Phillipps, of the Right Honourable Richard William Penn Curzon, Earl Howe, on behalf of the most Honourable the Marquis of Hastings, a minor, and of William Herrick, of Beau Manor Park, in the said county of Leicester, Esquire, patrons with Edward Dawson, of Whatton House, in the said county of Leicester, Esquire, of the church of the consolidated chapelry district of Saint Paul, Woodhouse Eaves, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and forming a majority of the patrons of such last-named church and district, as required by the twentieth section of the Act secondly hereinafter mentioned or referred to, that it appeared to your Majesty's said Commissioners to be expedient, and they therefore humbly prayed that certain contiguous portions of the said parishes of Newtown Linford, Whitwick, and Sheepshed, and of the said consolidated chapelry district of Saint Paul, Woodhouse Eaves, might be formed into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church called the Oaks Church, situate in that portion of Charnwood Forest, which is within the said parish of Newtown Linford, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the ninth section of an Act, passed in the eight and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and in the nineteenth and twentieth sections of an Act, passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called "The Consolidated Chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest," and that the boundaries thereof should be those mentioned in the said representation, and hereinafter described ; that is to say :

"The boundary of the consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest, commences at the crossing of the Sheepshed and Newtown and the Loughborough and Bosworth-roads, near Warren Hill, as shewn on the eastern side of the map or plan hereunto annexed, and proceeds in a south-westerly direction along the centre of the Loughborough and Bosworth-road, to where it joins the Sheepshed and Wherscroft-road, along that road in an eastwardly direction for one
