"That the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, The Right Honourable Edward Strutt (now Chancellor of your Majesty's said duchy of Lancaster), the said Charles March Phillipps, the said George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, the said Charles March Phillipps, the said Richard William Penn Curzon Earl Howe, and William Herrick, as such respective patrons as aforesaid, and which said George Harry, Earl of Stamford and Warrington, as Lord of the said Manors of Ulverscroft and Groby, the said Charles March Phillipps, as Lord of the said Manor of Sheepshed, the said Richard William Penn Curzon, Earl Howe, on behalf of the Most Honourable the Marquis of Hastings, a minor, as Lord of the said Manor of Whitwick, the said William Herrick, as Lord of the said Manor of Beau Manor, and Edward Dawson, of Whatton House, in the said county of Leicester, Esquire, as Lord of the said Manor of Belton, are the patrons of the said church called the Oaks Church, have severally consented to the said proposed alteration of boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of the Oaks Church on Charnwood Forest, as required by the sixteenth section of the said Act passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent and submit to your Majesty, that such proposed alteration of boundaries should not in any manner prejudice, alter, or affect the right of patronage of the said church, called the Oaks Church, as settled by your Majesty's said Order in Council.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the boundaries of the said district be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of April, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," as enlarged by the twelfth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual the Church Building Acts," and extended by the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the district parish of Christ Church, Saint Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate in Carlisle-street, in the said district parish of Christ Church, Saint Marylebone, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' as enlarged by the twelfth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual the Church Building Acts,' and extended by the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Saint Marylebone,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The district chapelry of Saint Matthew, Saint Marylebone, is bounded on the north by a line drawn in the centre of Princess-street; on the east by a line drawn in the centre of Grove-road and Grove-place; on the south by a line drawn in the centre of Earl-street East and Earl-street West; and on the west by a line drawn in the centre of the Edgware-road, as such district chapelry of Saint Matthew, Saint Marylebone, is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Matthew, in Carlisle-street aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be received on account of and paid over to the Reverend Robert Walpole, Bachelor of Divinity, the present rector or incu-
