'siastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Prebendary of Leighton Beadesert, otherwise Leighton Buzzard, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, for the property belonging to him as such prebendary.

"Whereas, by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said Prebend of Leighton Beadesert, otherwise Leighton Buzzard, will (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), upon the first avoidance of the said prebend, become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required :

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such prebend, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments :

And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend James Morton, the present Prebendary of Leighton Beadesert, otherwise Leighton Buzzard, that with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council.

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said James Morton, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme and any duly gazetted order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), now belonging to the said James Morton as such prebendary as aforesaid, or to or in which he has or ought to have any estate, right, title, or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest therein (except as aforesaid), be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said James Morton to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance there shall be paid by us to the said James Morton the sum of three thousand two hundred and fifty pounds, provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease of the said lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, shall, since the fifteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, have been, or shall be granted or made by the said James Morton :

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

northern fences of that field, and of fields, Nos. 467, 466, 465, 464, 463, and 458, as far as the parish of Iver, when the boundary line again diverges to the south, and follows the boundary line which divides the said parishes of Langley and Iver, to the point where those parishes meet the parish of Horton, in or near to the said high road to Bath, when the boundary line of the said consolidated chapelry again proceeds in an easterly direction along the boundary line that divides the said parishes of Horton and Iver, as far as Deventon Ditch, at the point where the boundary commenced; as such consolidated chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, yellow, and green.

"That the consents of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend, Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, of the Dean and Canons of your Majesty's free chapel of Saint George, within your Castle of Windsor (patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Langley Marish, otherwise Langley Marsh), and of the Right Honourable Robert Monsey, Baron Cranworth, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, patron in right of the Crown of the parish church of the said parish of Stanwell (such two respective patrons being a majority of the patrons of the said three parishes of Langley Marish, otherwise Langley Marsh, Horton, and Stanwell, according to the provisions of the nineteenth and twentieth sections of the Act lastly hereinbefore-mentioned or referred to), have been severally obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Thomas Colnbrook (as required by the said last-named two sections and Act); in testimony whereof the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, Charles James, Bishop of London, and Robert Monsey, Baron Cranworth, have signed and sealed this representation; and the said Dean and Canons have caused their common or capitular seal to be hereunto affixed.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry, for the consecrated Church of Saint Thomas, at Colnbrook, be accordingly made, and the agreement in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or spiritual

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Report from the General Board of Health, dated the sixteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following ; that is to say :

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

"We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the parish of Redruth, in the county of Cornwall (the number of the said petitioners greatly exceeding thirty in the whole), directed Thomas Webster Rammell, a superintending inspector appointed for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to visit the said parish, and to make inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage and supply of water, the state of the burial grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any local Acts of Parliament in force within such parish for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said parish, or having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act ; also as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, and other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of that Act ;

"And the said superintending inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by that Act, and hath reported in writing to the said Board upon the said several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters with respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act ;

"And copies of the said report, accompanied by a notice, stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed.

"And it appears by the said report, that there is no local Act of Parliament in force within the said parish for paving, lighting (otherwise than for the profit of proprietors or shareholders), cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving such parish, or any part thereof, or in anywise relating to the purposes of the said Public Health Act ;

"Now, therefore, we, the said General Board of Health, do hereby, in pursuance of the said Public Health Act, humbly report to your Majesty that it appears to us to be expedient :

"1. That the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act printed by your Majesty's printers, should be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said parish of Redruth, in the county of Cornwall, and that such area, places, and parts of places should be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

"2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act should consist of nine persons, and that the entire number should be elected for the whole of the said district.

"3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health should take place on the twelfth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

"4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board of Health should go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said first election of that Local Board takes place ; but in case the day so appointed should fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then that such one-third should go out of office on the day next following.

"5. That every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds, or should be so resident, and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds.

"6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, the Reverend John Webster Hawksley, Rector of Redruth aforesaid, should have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and ratepayers, and should perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election ; and in case the said John Webster Hawksley, from illness or other sufficient cause, should be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or should be absent, or should refuse to act, then that Robert Tweedy, Banker, of Redruth aforesaid, should exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

"7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification, required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, should be given to the said John Webster Hawksley, at his residence, the Rectory, Redruth, situate within the aforesaid district; or in case he should refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Robert Tweedy, at his residence, Penryn-street, Redruth, likewise within the district aforesaid.

"Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this sixteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

*Edwin Chadwick.
T. Southwood Smith."*

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said report into consideration, is pleased to approve thereof, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, order and direct:—

1. That from and after the date of this Order, the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said parish of Redruth, in the county of Cornwall, and that such area, places, and parts of places, shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act, shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

5. That every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seised or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds; or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds:

6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, the Reverend John Webster Hawksley, Rector of Redruth aforesaid, shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and rate-

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such warrant; and from time to time by warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and to make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof; and it is provided that the power thereby given should extend to any increase, or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas it is expedient that new regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of the printed publications hereinafter mentioned;

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf by this warrant under our hands, direct that every printed price current, commercial list, course of exchange, shipping list, or other publication, respectively printed and published in the United Kingdom, although not strictly a newspaper, but bearing a newspaper stamp, the circulation of which by the post under the newspaper privilege shall be from time to time approved and allowed by the Postmaster-General, may be sent by the post free of British postage, or liable to British postage, according to the regulations and rates hereinafter set forth: that is to say; by the post from one town or place to another within the United Kingdom (except by private ships), free. But if there be any writing or marks on the publication so sent, in addition to the name and address of the person to whom sent, one penny.

By the post of a post town addressed to a person within the limits of such post town, or the suburbs thereof, one penny, which rate shall cover any writing or marks upon such publication.

Between places within the United Kingdom, by private ships, one penny.

By packet boats from the United Kingdom to any of Her Majesty's colonies, free; by private ships, one penny each.

From the United Kingdom to a foreign country in which British newspapers are allowed to pass by post, free of postage, by packet-boat free, and by private ships one penny each.

From the United Kingdom to a foreign country in which British newspapers are not allowed to pass by post free of postage, the same rate shall be chargeable on every printed publication sent by the post under the regulations of this warrant (whether by packet-boat or private ship), as if the same were a British newspaper.

By packet-boats between any of Her Majesty's colonies, whether direct or through the United Kingdom, free.

And we direct, that in all cases in which any printed publications sent by the post, under the regulations of this warrant, shall pass through a foreign country, or be transmitted by a foreign packet-boat, they shall be chargeable with any foreign postage payable thereon.

And we direct, that no such printed publications shall be sent by the post under the regulations of this warrant, unless the following conditions be observed:

First. No such printed publication shall exceed the weight of two ounces.

Second. Every such publication shall be sent without a cover, or in a band or cover open at the sides or ends.

Third. The rate of postage chargeable under the regulations aforesaid, on any publication posted within the United Kingdom, shall be pre-paid on the same being posted, not in money but by a postage stamp affixed outside the publication, or the band or cover thereof.

Fourth. There shall be no word or communication printed on the publication after it be published, nor (except in the case of a publication sent by the post from one town or place to another, within the United Kingdom, and a publication sent by the post of a post town addressed to a person within such post town, or its suburbs, on which respective publications a postage rate will be chargeable under this warrant), any writing or marks upon it, other than the name and address of the person to whom sent, nor shall there be any word or communication printed on the cover of any publication whatever, sent by the post under the regulations of this warrant, or any writing or marks upon it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent, and the printed name and address of the newsvender who shall send it.

Fifth. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such printed publication.

And in case any such publication or packet shall exceed two ounces in weight, or shall not be sent without a cover, or be sent in a band or cover not open at the sides or ends, or if the postage chargeable under the regulations of this warrant on any publication posted within the United Kingdom shall not be prepaid on the same being posted, not in money, but by a postage stamp or postage stamps affixed outside the publication or the band or cover thereof, every such publication or packet shall be charged with the like rate of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter; and in case either of the fourth or fifth conditions before mentioned shall not be fulfilled (except as aforesaid), the whole of such publication or packet shall be charged with treble the rates of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

And we further direct that every printed publication bearing a date of the day of publication sent by the post under the regulations of this warrant addressed to places out of the United Kingdom, shall, in all cases, be put into a post-office or receiving-office in the United Kingdom within seven days next after the day on which the same shall be published, the day of publication to be ascertained by the date of such paper; and in case any such publication, addressed to places out of the United Kingdom, shall be put into a post-office or receiving-office after the expiration of such seven days, the Postmaster-General may either detain the publication or forward it by post charged with full postage as a letter.

And we further direct that, for the purposes of this warrant, every printed bonâ fide supplement or additional sheet to any such publication shall be considered as a distinct publication, unless sent in the same cover or together with the publication to which it is a supplement or addition; and that every such supplement or additional sheet shall bear the stamp of a newspaper supplement, except that no such stamp shall be required on any supplement to the publication called Lloyd's List, provided such publication bear a newspaper stamp, and the supplement be sent with it.

And we further direct, that on every printed price current, commercial list, course of exchange, shipping list, or other printed publication which shall be posted within the United Kingdom, or posted in any of Her Majesty's Colonies (for transmission by packet-boat to any other of Her Majesty's Colonies), without bearing a newspaper stamp, or being a supplement to any such publication without bearing the stamp of a newspaper supplement (except as aforesaid), there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such publications, the full letter rates of postage.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed, or construed to extend to any printed votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, nor to any British newspapers liable to the stamp duties and duly stamped.

And we further direct that the several terms and expressions used in this warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
