

Mary Magdalen, Old Fish-street, and in the burial-ground of Saint Gregory by Saint Paul, and in the vault in that ground;

With the exception of existing rights in the churchyard and vaults of Saint Andrew, Holborn, and in all that portion of the burial-ground in Gray's-inn-road belonging to that parish which has already been used for interments; and with the same reservation burials in the latter ground wholly to cease at the end of twelve months;

With the exception of existing rights in the church vaults and churchyard of Saint Mary, Whitechapel, and wholly within the work-house ground, and the school ground of that parish;

In the churchyard of Saint Mary-le-Strand, and in the burial-ground in Russell-court;

In the burial ground of Saint Gabriel, Fenchurch-street, and within the church walls of Saint Margaret Pattens;

In the churchyard and vaults of the parish of Trinity, Minorics;

With the exception of existing rights in the churchyard of Saint Mary, Newington, and in that part of the burial-ground of Saint Peter, Walworth, which has been already used; burials with the same reservation wholly to cease in the latter ground at the end of the year;

With the exception of existing rights in the churchyard and vaults of Saint Sepulchre (London and Middlesex), and wholly in the Durham-yard burial-ground;

And with the exception of existing rights in all that portion of the churchyard of Saint John the Baptist, Hoxton, which has been used; burials, with the same reservation, wholly to cease in the churchyard and church vaults of the same after the expiry of eighteen months:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on Thursday the twenty-first day of July next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parishes, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said twenty-first day of July next.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the incumbents and vestry clerks of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the last session of Parliament intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the following places:

In St. Leonard's, Shoreditch—1st. With the reservation of existing rights of burial, in all that portion of the churchyard which has already been used for interments.

2nd. With the same reservation, to cease entirely in the churchyard at the end of this year

3rd. With the same reservation, to cease at once in the vaults under the church.

4th. In the burial ground in the Hackney Road, to cease at once.

St. Martin in the Fields—1st. In the vaults under and round the church.

2nd. In the Tavistock Burial Ground, in Drury Lane.

St. Thomas, Southwark—In the church vaults and burial ground.

St. Magnus the Martyr, and St. Margaret, New Fish-street, and St. Michael, Crooked-lane—

1st. In the churchyard and burial ground of St. Michael.

2nd. With reservation of existing rights, in the vaults of the parish church.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on Thursday the twenty-first day of July next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parishes, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said twenty-first day of July next.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June, 1853.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the incumbents and vestry clerks of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the under-mentioned parishes with the following exceptions and qualifications:

St. George's-in-the-East—In the vaults under the church and in that portion of the churchyard which has already been used for interments: the burials in the unused ground, and the exercise of private rights, to be continued for twelve months, but after that time the whole to be closed.

St. Mary Aldermanbury—In the churchyard and church vaults.

St. Olave Hart-street—In the churchyard and church vaults.

Paddington—With the exception of existing rights, in the portion of the churchyard of St. Mary which surrounds the church, and is situate within the railing or fence by which the church is enclosed. With the same reservation, interments in the remaining portion of the churchyard should in future be con-
