WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for "the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act 'to make better provision for the spiritual care of 'populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the Dean and the Chapter of the cathedral church of Carlisle, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same :

"And whereas, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette on the seventeenth day of the following month of December, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said Dean and Chapter, excepting such portion thereof as by such Order is excepted, became vested in us, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases of the same:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Carlisle, which are so vested in us under the provisions of the said Order as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Carlisle.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

AT the Court at Rushingham-Palace, the 13th day of June 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes, and also for compensating certain spiritual persons whose emoluments have been diminished by reason of proceedings under the lastly-recited Act.

"Whereas by the first-recited Act it is enacted, that, except as therein otherwise specified, all the moneys and revenues to be paid to us, and all the rents and profits of the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments vested and to be vested in us by and under the authority of the same Act, together with all accumulations of interest produced by and arising therefrom, shall be from time to time carried over by us to a common fund, and by payments or investments made out of such fund, or if in any case it be deemed more expedient, by means of an actual conveyance and assignment of such lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of a portion thereof, additional provision shall be made by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by Orders of your Majesty in Council, ratifying schemes prepared by us,) for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required, in such manner as shall, by the like authority, be deemed most conducive to the efficiency of the established church; provided always, that in making any such additional provision out of any tithes, or any lands or other hereditaments allotted or assigned in lieu of tithes, so vested or to be vested in us, or out of the rents and profits thereof, due consideration shall be had of the wants and circumstances of the places in which such tithes now arise or have arisen:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the said common fund, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked C, the fixed annual sum set opposite to the name of such benefice or church in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year; provided nevertheless, that the amount of the first payment on the first day of May next, in respect of each of the annual sums specified in the said schedule, shall be calculated from such date as according to the circumstances of each case shall appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the lands and premises particularly described and numbered in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked F, now vested in us for the purposes of the said Act, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the gazetting thereof, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: the lands, situate in the parish of Allensmore, described in the same schedule, and therein numbered 1, shall be transferred to and vested in the Reverend Francis Baker, Vicar of Allensmore, in the county and diocese of Hereford, and his successors; the land, situate in the parish of Barton St. David, described in the same schedule, and therein numbered 2, shall be transferred to and vested in the Reverend Ebenezer Smith, Perpetual Curate of Barton St. David, in the county of Somerset and diocese of Bath and Wells, and his successors; the lands and premises described in the same schedule, and therein numbered 3, shall be transferred to and vested in the Reverend John Gibson, Perpetual Curate of Muggleswick, in the county and diocese of Durham, and his successors; the lands and premises described in the same schedule, and therein numbered 4, shall be transferred to and vested in the Reverend James Stovin, Vicar of Beekingham, in the county of Nottingham and diocese of Lincoln, and his successors; and the land and premises described in the same schedule, and therein numbered 5, shall, subject to the subsisting lease thereof, be transferred to and vested in the Reverend William Williamson, Vicar of Welton, in the county and diocese of Lincoln, and his successors.

"And we further recommend and propose, that, nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, when there shall be sufficient means for that purpose; and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any benefice, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And whereas the herein secondly-recited Act, together with the Acts therein recited, authorize the assigning at any time, and from time to time, to the incumbent of any church or chapel whose fees, dues, or other emoluments shall be diminished by or in consequence of any proceeding under the provisions of such secondly-recited Act, of such an annual sum as shall, upon due inquiry, appear to be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"And whereas by certain duly gazetted Orders of your Majesty in Council ratifying certain schemes prepared by us, pursuant to the same Act, the new parishes mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed marked G., have been duly constituted, and the perpetual curates thereof respectively have become entitled to receive certain fees, dues, and other emoluments arising therein, and we deem it just and reasonable that compensation should be made to the incumbents, chaplains, or vicars hereinafter referred to, whose fees, dues, or other emoluments have been diminished by or in consequence of such proceedings, and that the annual sums hereinafter also referred to should be assigned to such incumbents, chaplains, or vicars respectively:

"We therefore further recommend and propose, that in respect of the new parishes mentioned in the first column of the said schedule hereunto annexed, marked G, there shall be paid by us, to the several spiritual persons, incumbents, chaplains, or vicars, named and described in the second column of the same schedule, so long as they shall respectively remain such incumbents, chaplains, or vicars, and no longer, the annual sums mentioned in the third column thereof, by way of such compensation as aforesaid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year; and that the payment to be made in each case on the first day of May next shall be a sum calculated at the annual rate applicable to such cases from the day on which the fees, dues, and other emoluments became so as aforesaid receivable by the perpetual curates of such new parishes respectively.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Baldhu, in the county of Cornwall, and diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying such scheme), at any time to assign the right of patronage of any district or new parish constituted under the provisions of the said Act, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons, contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority :

"And whereas by a scheme duly prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council by us, and an Order ratifying the same, made by your Majesty in Council, on the nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly gazetted, the district of Baldhu was duly constituted out of the parishes of Kenwyn and Kca, and the district of Chacewater, in the said county of Cornwall, and diocese of Exeter :

"And whereas by the said scheme and Order the right of patronage of the said district and the nomination of the minister thereof, for the first such nomination, was, for the consideration therein mentioned, assigned to and vested in the Right Honourable George Henry Earl of Falmouth, since deceased :

"And whereas, on the passing of the said scheme, it was agreed by us to recommend that the right of patronage of the said district and the nomination of the minister thereof should be assigned in perpetuity to the said George Henry Earl of Falmouth, and his heirs, upon condition of his providing a fit church for such district, and also a repairing fund for such church :

"And whereas a church has since been provided within the said district by the said George Henry Earl of Falmouth, and such church has been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church of the said district for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district has accordingly become, under the provisions of the said Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes :

"And whereas the said agreement has not yet been carried into effect :

"And whereas a sum of one hundred and fifty pounds has been provided by the Right Honourable Evelyn Viscount Falmouth, the heir-at-law, of the said George Henry Earl of Falmouth, to be applied, in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, as a permanent fund towards the repairs and maintenance of the fabric of the said church; and it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in pursuance of our said agreement, and in consideration of the premises, the patronage of the said new parish should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned :

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said new parish of Baldhu, and the nomination of the perpetual curate thereof, shall be assigned to, and absolutely vested in, the said Evelyn Viscount Falmouth, and his heirs for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Prebendary of Grantham Australis, in the cathedral church of Salisbury, for the property belonging to him as such prebendary.

"Whereas by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said Prebend of Grantham Australis will (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), upon the first avoidance of the said prebend, become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required :

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such prebendary, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments :

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend Thomas Henry Mirehouse, of St. George's-hill, near Bristol, in the county of Somerset, the present prebendary of the said Prebend of Grantham Australis, that with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts, hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council:

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Henry Mirehouse, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage) now belonging to the said Thomas Henry Mirehouse, as such prebendary as aforesaid, or to or in which he has or ought to have any estate, right, title, or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest, therein (except as aforesaid) be, and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Thomas Henry Mirehouse to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that, in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said Thomas Henry Mirehouse the sum of six thousand two hundred pounds sterling, provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease, of the said lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, shall, since the sixteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, have been or shall be granted or made by the said Thomas Henry Mirehouse.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

"And the undersigned, in carrying it out, gives notice to you that the blockade of the above-mentioned part of this port is established from this date, granting a term of six days, counted from the same date, for foreign vessels to leave the inner roads, and twenty days for those that are in the outer roads.

"Which I have the honour of communicating to you for the ends consequent thereupon.

London and North Western Railway.

Tring and Oxford.

Alteration of line during progress of Bill.

WHEREAS a Bill is now pending in Parliament, intituled “A Bill to enable the London and North Western Railway Company to construct a railway from near Tring to Oxford, with a branch at Oxford, and for other purposes;” and whereas during the progress of the said Bill, and since the deposit of the plans and sections therein referred to, which plans and sections were deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Oxford, at his office, in Oxford, in the month of November, in the year 1852, it has been found expedient with a view to meet the requirements of the committee of the House of Commons to whom the said Bill was referred for the protection of the Oxford Observatory, that the railway by the said Bill intended to be authorised should, between the points on the line of such railway in the parishes of Marston, St. Giles, and Woolvercott, or the liberty or extra-parochial place of Godstow, hereinafter mentioned, be constructed according to a different line from that delineated upon the said plans deposited as aforesaid. Now notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session to insert in the said Bill all necessary and proper provisions for enabling the London and North Western Railway Company to construct the railway, by the said Bill proposed to be authorised, between the property numbered 55, in the parish of Marston, on the said plans deposited as aforesaid, and the property numbered 2, in the parish of Woolvercott, or the extra-parochial place of Godstow, on the said plans by a line situate wholly in the parishes of Marston, and St. Giles, and the parish of Woolvercott, or the liberty or extra-parochial place of Godstow; but differing in its course and direction from that delineated upon the said plans between the properties numbered as aforesaid thereon.

And it is proposed to insert in the said Bill powers to take lands and buildings, by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes of the said altered portion of railway; and to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with such lands and buildings, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction or maintenance thereof.

And it is also proposed to insert in the said Bill powers to stop up, alter, or divert, all such turnpike or other roads and highways, or streams, within the parishes of Marston, Saint Giles, and Woolvercott, or the extra-parochial place of Godstow, as it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert, by reason of the construction of the said railway, according to the altered line hereinbefore mentioned.

And it is proposed by the said Bill to take power to levy tolls for the use of the said altered portion of railway.

And notice is also hereby given, that plans and sections describing the direction line and levels of the said intended altered portion of railway, and the lands through which the same is intended to be made, together with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice, and of so much of the standing orders of the House of Lords as relates to the deposit of plans, sections, and other documents, will, on or before the 16th day of this present month of June, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Oxford, at his office, in Oxford, and with the respective Clerks of the parishes of Marston and St. Giles, at their places of abode, respectively, and in the case of the parish of Woolvercott, or the extra-parochial place of Godstow, with the clerk of the parish of Woolvercott, at his place of abode.

Dated this thirteenth day of June, 1853.
