Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 2, 1853.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, 23rd June next, at two o'clock :

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and, from time to time, to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court should be holden in each district :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly :

And whereas it hath been represented, that it would be to the advantage of the public, if the following alteration were made in certain of the districts of the Courts, as specified or set forth in the aforesaid Order :

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, so much of the district of the County Court of Brecknockshire, holden at Crickhowell, as is included within a line drawn from the point where the three counties of Monmouth, Glamorgan and Brecon meet, northward along the boundary between the said counties of Glamorgan and Brecon to the place called Rhyd-y-Milwr (being the place where the boundary between the hundreds of Penkelly and Crickhowell, in the said county of Brecon, meets the said boundary of the county of Glamorgan); thence in a straight line in a north-easterly direction across the mountain called Trefil Ddû to the place called the Duke's Table, being at or near the source of the river Sirhowy; thence in a straight line in an easterly direction across the mountain called Trefil Glas, and Llangattock Hills to a stone boundary-post standing on the bank of Clydach Brook, a little to the north of the Farm House called Blaen Clydach; thence first in a south-easterly direction, and thence in an easterly direction, along the middle of the said last-mentioned brook or river to the mouth of a certain brook called Llamarch Brook, which empties itself into the Clydach Brook or river; and thence in a southerly direction up the middle of the course of the said Llamarch Brook to where it meets the northern boundary of the county of Monmouth; thence westward along the said northern boundary of the county of Monmouth to the point where the three counties of Monmouth, Glamorgan and Brecon meet as first described, shall be within and form part of the district of the County Court of Monmouthshire holden at Tredegar.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June, 1853.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh
