

footway leading from Maiden-lane aforesaid, to the gates of the Highgate Cemetry, thence passing along the said footway in a south-westerly direction to the said gates, thence in a southerly direction to the south-east corner of the said cemetery, thence in a south-westerly direction along the southern wall of the said cemetery to the south-west corner thereof, thence in the same direction along the southern side of the pleasure grounds of Holly Lodge, belonging to Miss Burdett Coutts, to the turnpike-road known as Highgate-hill, leading from Kentish Town to Highgate, thence in the same direction across the said turnpike-road and along the southern wall of the entrance lodge, to certain premises in the occupation of John Lawrence Tatham, thence in a southerly direction along the eastern boundary of such last-mentioned premises, thence in a westerly direction along the southern boundary of such last-mentioned premises to Millfield-lane, thence in a north-westerly direction up Millfield-lane to a certain footway leading from Millfield-lane aforesaid across two certain fields belonging to William David Earl of Mansfield, the one called or known as the Four Acre Field, and the other called or known as the Clump Field, to Hampstead Heath, thence in a westerly direction along such footway to Hampstead Heath aforesaid, thence in a southerly direction along the eastern sides or hedges of the said Clump Field and three other fields belonging to the said Earl, and called or known as the Eighteen Acre Field, the Parliament Hill Field, and the Park Field, the same being also the boundary line of the parishes of Saint Pancras and Hampstead, thence in an easterly direction along the south-eastern side or hedge of the said Park Field and of certain land known as the Saint Pancras Church Land, to the western corner of a certain other field belonging to the said Earl, called or known as the Home Field, thence in a south-easterly direction along the south western sides or hedges of the said Home Field, and of a certain paddock belonging to certain premises of the said Earl and known as the Gothic, thence in a north-easterly direction along the southern boundary of the said last-mentioned premises to the aforesaid turnpike-road, thence in the same direction across the said turnpike-road and along the front or southern side of the premises at the north end of Grove-terrace, in the occupation of Mr. Mainson, thence in the same direction along the northern wall or boundary of No. 27, Grove-terrace aforesaid, in the occupation of Thomas Seddon, thence in a straight line north-easterly with such last-mentioned wall along the southern side or hedge of a certain field belonging to the Earl of Dartmouth, and now in the occupation of Mr. Edward Lawrance, or his undertenant, to a certain brook or ditch called or known as the Fleet, thence in a south-easterly direction along the said brook or ditch to the southern corner of a certain field belonging to the Master and Wardens of St. John's College, Cambridge, thence in a north-easterly direction along the southern sides or hedges of such last-mentioned field, and of another field belonging to the said Master and Wardens to Maiden-lane aforesaid, and thence in a north-westerly direction up and along Maiden-lane aforesaid to the said footway in Maiden-lane where the boundary commenced, and as such consolidated chapelry of Saint Anne, Brookfield, Highgate Rise, is more particularly delineated in the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured blue, pink, and green.

"That the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and also patron (in right of his see) of the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Highgate, of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Saint Pancras, and of the Reverend Thomas Dale, vicar and incumbent of such last named parish church, and patron (in right of his vicarage) of the church of the said district chapelry of Kentish Town, have been severally obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Anne, Brookfield, Highgate Rise, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said Charles James, Bishop of London, and Thomas Dale, have signed and sealed this representation; and the said Dean and Chapter have caused their common seal to be hereto affixed.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Charles James, Bishop of London, the said Dean and Chapter, the said Thomas Dale, as such respective patrons as aforesaid (testified as aforesaid) and Anne Barnett, of Highgate Rise, in the said county of Middlesex Spinster (in whom, her heirs and assigns, the right of presentation and appointment of a minister, to serve the said church of Saint Anne, at Brookfield aforesaid, is now vested, under the powers contained in the twenty-third section of the Act of Parliament firstly hereinbefore mentioned, as amended by the fourth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the law relative to the assignment of ecclesiastical districts'), testified by her signing and sealing this representation (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said Charles James, Bishop of London, testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint Anne, at Brookfield aforesaid, shall during the life of her, the said Anne Barnett, be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by her, the said Anne Barnett, and from and after her decease, then such right of presentation and appointment as aforesaid shall become vested in, belong to, and shall be exercised, whenever occasion may require, by the Bishop of the said Diocese of London for the time being.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry, for the consecrated Church of Saint Anne, at Brookfield, in the consolidated chapelry of Highgate, be accordingly made, and the agreement in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of a minister to serve the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Wm. L. Bathurst,