

And in order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, we further direct, that it shall be lawful for any officer of the Post-office in the United Kingdom to delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, for the space of twenty-four hours from the time at which (or at his option until the dispatch of the mail next after that by which) the same ought otherwise to have been forwarded by him.

And we further direct, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to interfere with or affect the transmission by the post of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or of printed votes and proceedings of the Colonial Legislatures, nor of printed papers or other printed publications which are allowed to pass by the post under the newspaper privilege.

And we further order and direct, that if any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this present Warrant, shall contain any paper or thing besides a printed book, printed magazine, printed review, or printed pamphlet, and the binding thereof, or shall have any writing or marks upon the same or upon the cover or envelope thereof, except the name and address of the person to whom it is forwarded, or shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall in length, or breadth, or width, or depth, exceed the dimensions of two feet or twenty-four inches, or shall contain more than one printed book, or printed magazine, or printed review, or printed pamphlet, or shall contain any printed book, printed magazine, printed review, or printed pamphlet, the several sheets or parts of which, when more than one, shall not be sewed or bound together, or if the postage of any such packet posted in the United Kingdom, shall not be duly and properly pre-paid by British stamps when posted, or if the postage of any such packet, posted in the Colony of the Gold Coast, shall not be duly and properly pre-paid in money, or by colonial stamps, when posted, the same shall and may be detained and opened at any place in the United Kingdom, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or forwarded to the place of its destination; and any such packet, on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any packets sent through any foreign country to which a transit rate of postage would be payable thereon, nor to any packets sent by private ships.

And we further order and direct that the term "by the post" used in this Warrant, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by packet-boat; and that the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct that this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Provided, lastly, and we do hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

WHEREAS the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury did, by virtue of the powers vested in them by the 3rd section of the Act of the 8th and 9th Victoria, cap. 94, entitled "An Act for regulating the trade of the isle of Man," by their order of the 10th November, 1845, order and declare that all or any articles legally importable into the Isle of Man and not enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, and upon which the duty of fifteen pounds per cent. is thereby imposed, should and might from and after the passing of the said before-mentioned Act be imported into the Isle of Man duty free, so long as that order or any part thereof affecting such articles should continue in force. And whereas it is also by the said 3rd section of the said Act enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury "at any time and from time to time, as they shall consider expedient, to revoke the whole or any part of such order or orders, for admitting the aforesaid articles, or any of them, duty free, such order of revocation to take effect from a day to be named therein."

We, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, by virtue of the powers above recited, vested in us, revoke so much of such order of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the 10th November, 1845, as permitted the importation of perfumed spirits duty free into the Isle of Man, and, therefore, perfumed spirits will, from and after the date of this our order, under the 2nd section of the said Act of the 8th and 9th Victoria, cap. 94, become subject to the duty of fifteen pounds per cent. ad valorem.

And we do further direct that this our order be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, this 8th day of July, 1853.
