

or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month, or where any order made under "The Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," directing the provisions of that Act, for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, to be put in force, is in force within such part or parts, then seven days at least before such representation is so considered; provided always that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the incumbents and vestry clerks of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the places hereinafter mentioned:

And whereas Her Majesty in Council was pleased, on the thirteenth of June last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-first day of July last; and such notice has been published in the London Gazette; and copies thereof have been affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parishes, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said twenty-first day of July.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that burials shall be discontinued from and after the fifteenth day of this instant August, in the following places, namely:

In St. Leonard's, Shoreditch—1st. With the reservation of existing rights of burial, in all that portion of the churchyard which has already been used for interments.

2nd. With the same reservation, to cease entirely in the churchyard at the end of this present year

3rd. With the same reservation, to cease from and after the said fifteenth instant, in the vaults under the church.

4th. In the burial ground in the Hackney Road, to cease from and after the said fifteenth instant.

St. Martin in the Fields—1st. In the vaults under and round the church.

2nd. In the Tavistock Burial Ground, in Drury Lane.

No. 21465.

D

St. Thomas, Southwark—In the church vaults and burial ground.

St. Magnus the Martyr and St. Margaret, New Fish-street, and St. Michael, Crooked-lane—1st. In the churchyard and burial ground of St. Michael.

2nd. With reservation of existing rights, in the vaults of the parish church.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial grounds or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places, within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month, or where any order made under "The Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," directing the provisions of that Act, for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, to be put in force, is in force within such part or parts, then seven days at least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the incumbents and vestry clerks of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the said parishes with certain exceptions and qualifications:

And whereas Her Majesty, in Council was pleased, on the thirteenth of June last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-first day of July last; and such notice has been pub-
