AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the episcopal income of the Bishop of Peterborough.

"Whereas the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Peterborough, hath, with a view to the regulation of his episcopal income, according to the provisions of the said Act, entered into an agreement with us in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"Agreement made this twenty-third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the one part, and the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Peterborough, of the other part.

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," after reciting that Her Majesty had issued a commission to certain persons therein named to inquire, amongst other things, whether any and what improvement could be made in the existing law and practice relating to the incomes of archbishops and bishops, so as to secure to them respectively fixed instead of fluctuating annual incomes, and that it was expedient that until the said Commissioners should have made their report and Parliament should have determined upon some permanent mode of effecting the object last aforesaid, temporary arrangements should be made for that purpose; it was enacted that, notwithstanding the provisions of the therein first-recited Act, and any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council founded thereon, relating to or providing for the payment to or by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of fixed annual sums, it should be lawful, by the authority and in the manner by and in which the arrangements for carrying into effect the recommendations in the said Act recited might then be made (that is to say, by a scheme of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, confirmed and ratified by an Order of Her Majesty in Council), so to regulate from time to time the amounts, times, modes, and conditions of payments to be made to or by the said Commissioners, as the case might be, by or to any archbishop or bishop who should have succeeded to a see upon any avoidance thereof happening after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, or any other archbishop or bishop who might signify his willingness to accept such annual income as thereafter mentioned in lieu of his present income, as to secure to every such archbishop or bishop the annual income named for the archbishop or bishop of his see, in the same or any other Act then in force, or in any Order of Her Majesty in Council duly made and published, and no more:

"And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and duly published in the London Gazette, it was provided that, in order to leave to the Bishop of Peterborough for the time being the average annual income of four thousand five hundred pounds, there should be paid by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to the bishop succeeding to such see upon the then next avoidance thereof, and his successors, the fixed annual sum of one thousand one hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments in every year:

"And whereas the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, succeeded to the said see upon such next avoidance, which occurred before the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and now is bishop thereof, and he hath signified his willingness, in accordance with the provisions of the said herein-recited Act, to accept, as of and from the first day of this instant month of July, the said annual income or yearly sum of four thousand five hundred pounds, and no more, in lieu of the present and future income arising from his said see, or receivable by him under the provisions of the said recited Order in Council, or of any other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments of any kind or description whatsoever received or enjoyed by him, and to enter into an agreement with the said Commissioners for regulating the income to be received by him as from the said first day of July, in manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now it is hereby agreed by and between the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, as follows; that is to say:

"1. That the said Bishop shall, on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September, in the next and every succeeding year, deliver to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall from time to time direct, a correct account in writing, certified under his hand, of all moneys actually received by him, whether consisting of arrears or otherwise accrued due since the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in respect of the revenues of his see, or of such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, during the half-year ending on the thirty-first day of December, or the thirtieth day of June, as the case may be, then last past, and also of all moneys remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or of any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid on account of such arrears as aforesaid, or otherwise, at the date of such account; and in such account to be forthwith delivered, and in every such future half-yearly account, shall be included as money actually received by the said bishop, such a sum as shall from time to time be agreed upon between him and the said Commissioners, or, in case of their disagreement, then as shall be determined by two indifferent persons, one to be chosen by the bishop and the other by the said Commissioners, or, in case of the disagreement of such two persons, then by an umpire to be chosen by them, as a fair and reasonable occupation rent to be charged against the said bishop for such parts of the estates of the said see, other than and except the palace belonging to the said see at Peterborough, with the grounds and premises thereunto belonging, as shall have been in the possession or occupation of the said bishop, or of any person or persons under his authority or permission (other than and except under any lease or agreement for a lease to be granted or entered into after the execution of these presents, with the consent of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as hereinafter mentioned,) during the preceding half-year, or any part thereof, and according to the term of his, her, or their having been in such possession or occupation; and if it shall appear by any such account that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments, costs of agency, and deductions as shall be allowed by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or their surveyor or receiver, the net amount actually received has exceeded two thousand two hundred and fifty pounds, being one-half of the said amount of the annual income so fixed for the said see as aforesaid, the surplus shall at the same time be paid by the said bishop; and he doth hereby agree to pay such surplus to the credit of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, at the Bank of England, and that upon the account so delivered being examined and approved by the treasurers of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for the time being, their receipt for the amount of such surplus shall be given to the said bishop; but if it shall appear, upon due investigation of any such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount so received is less than one-half of the said annual income so fixed as aforesaid for the said see, there shall be paid by the said Commissioners, and they do hereby agree to pay to the said bishop, on the first day of May or the first day of November, as the case may be, then next following, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency;

and such payment shall be in full satisfaction and discharge of the said augmentation or payment of one thousand one hundred and fifty pounds, to which such bishop is or would have been entitled under the provisions of the said Order in Council of the twenty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

“2. Provided always, and it is further agreed by the said bishop, that subject to the right of apportionment (if any) hereinafter mentioned, after the delivery of such account, all arrears of rents due, or other payments in respect of the see, or of any such profits or emoluments as aforesaid, which may have remained unpaid at the end of the half year to which such account shall relate, shall form part of the future reveques of the said see, and shall, when received, be included in the account for the then current half year, so to be delivered to the said Commissioners as aforesaid; and the said bishop shall take and use all lawful means and remedies for obtaining and compelling payment of all such moneys as last mentioned, within a reasonable time, or it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to use the name and act as the attorneys of the said bishop, in demanding, obtaining, or compelling payment of such moneys, and giving good and sufficient discharges for the same, and all moneys so recovered after payment of the costs of obtaining or compelling payment thereof, and of all incidental expenses, shall be carried over to the common fund of the said Commissioners.

“3. Provided nevertheless, that with respect to all such sums of money as were accruing in respect of the same revenues, profits, or emoluments actually due and payable but not received on the said first day of July now last past, and have been since, or shall be hereafter received by the said bishop, he, the said bishop, shall be entitled to such part or apportioned part thereof (if any) as his legal personal representatives would have been by law entitled to in case he had died on that day, and the said see had thereby become void.

“4. Provided also, and it is hereby further mutually agreed between the said bishop and the said Commissioners, that all moneys which shall be due to the said bishop on account of his said see, or any such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, at the time of his avoidance of the said see, whether by death or otherwise, or which in case of the avoidance thereof by death, shall accrue to his legal personal representatives, including all arrears accrued due since the said thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, subject to such right of apportionment (if any) as aforesaid, shall be considered as belonging to the said Commissioners, and shall and may be received or recovered by them, or by the said bishop, or his representatives, on their behalf, and paid over to them with as little delay as practicable, and upon such avoidance an account shall forthwith be made and rendered by the said bishop or his representatives, as the case may be, to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall require, of all moneys received or to be accounted for as moneys received by him or them since the then last half yearly account, and also of all moneys then remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, and if it shall appear by such account that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount received, or to be accounted for, has exceeded so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income, or sum of four thousand five hundred pounds, as would be in proportion to the number of days which shall have intervened between the thirtieth day of June or the thirty-first day of December, which ever shall have happened next before such avoidance of the said see, and in that event; then the said bishop, or his representatives, as the case may be, shall pay over such surplus to the credit of the said Commissioners, at the Bank of England; or if it shall appear upon the examination of such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net income so received and to be accounted for is less in amount than so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income of four thousand five hundred pounds, as shall be in proportion to such intervening number of days as last mentioned, then the said Commissioners shall pay to the said bishop, or his legal personal representatives, such a sum of money as shall make up such deficiency.

“5. And the said bishop doth further agree that, before granting any lease, or entering into any agreement for granting a lease, by way of renewal, or in any other way disposing of the possession of any property belonging to the said see, or any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, on the property from whence the same shall arise, for any estate, term, or interest whatsoever therein, whether by parole or otherwise, and whether for valuable consideration or not, he will submit to the said Commissioners for their approval a statement in writing of his proposal to grant, enter into, or make such lease, agreement, or disposition, and of all the considerations (if any) whether by way of fine, premium, rent, royalty, or other nature, kind, or description whatsoever, to be received, taken, reserved, or rendered, for the granting or making thereof, together with all other terms of such intended lease, agreement, or disposition, and an explanation of the principle upon which such fine or other like consideration (if any) shall have been calculated, and that no such lease shall be granted, or agreement entered into, or other disposition made, without the consent of the said Commissioners, in writing under their common seal; and if it shall appear that the amount of any fine, or other like consideration, shall in any case exceed one-half of the said annual income of four thousand five hundred pounds, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct such fine to be paid to them, and the said bishop doth hereby agree that the same shall be so paid accordingly.

“6. Provided always, that this agreement, with all matters herein contained, is subject to the approval and ratification of Her Majesty in Council; and the said Commissioners do hereby agree forthwith to prepare and lay before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, recommending and proposing that Her Majesty should approve and ratify the same accordingly, so that the same, when ratified, shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

“In witness whereof the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have hereunto set their common seal, and the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, hath hereunto set his hand, the day and year first above written.

“(Signed) G. Peterborough.”

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the said agreement be approved and ratified by your Majesty in Council, so that the same shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Peterborough.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for regulating the incomes of the future deans and canons of the collegiate church of Westminster.

"Whereas it is by the first recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently may be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same), and subject to the provisions therein contained respecting the canonries in the collegiate church of Westminster, annexed to the rectories of Saint Margaret and Saint John, such fixed annual sums shall be determined on to be paid, and shall accordingly be paid to us by the dean and canons of the collegiate church of Westminster, as, after due inquiry, and a calculation of the present average annual revenues of the chapter of such church, shall leave to the said dean an average annual income of two thousand pounds, and to each of the canons of the same church the average annual income of one thousand pounds; but such provision is not to affect any dean or canon in possession at the passing of the same Act.

"And whereas by the secondly recited Act, it is declared and enacted, that notwithstanding such last recited provision, it shall be lawful to carry such purpose into effect by any mode of payment or contribution which may be deemed fit, as well as by the mode in the said first recited Act specified, and that the scale of payments and receipts may, from time to time, in any case be revised, and, if need be, varied by the like authority, so as to preserve, as nearly as may be, the intended average annual incomes respectively, but not so as to affect any dean or canon in possession at the time of making any such variation.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, issued in pursuance of the said Acts, and duly published in the London Gazette, it is provided that in order to leave to the dean and canons of Westminster, respectively appointed or to be appointed after the passing of the said first recited Act, the average annual incomes in the said Act specified, there shall be paid to us in the manner and at the times therein mentioned, and for the purposes of the said recited Acts, one equal fifth part of all moneys at any time accruing and payable to such dean, and one equal sixth part of all moneys at any time accruing and payable to any such canon.

"And whereas, upon further inquiry and consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that the scale of payments and receipts under the said Order in Council, should be revised and varied so as to regulate the incomes of future deans and canons, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that with respect to every dean and to every canon of the said collegiate church of Westminster, to be appointed after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, there shall be delivered to us by the treasurer of such church in every year, so soon as conveniently may be after the annual audit of the accounts of the chapter of the said church, a correct account in writing, in such form, and verified in such manner, as we shall from time to time direct, shewing every sum of money, from whatsoever source arising, which, according to the statutes and usage of the said collegiate church, or the chapter thereof, shall, irrespective of the provisions of the hereinbefore recited Order, and as if such Order had not been made, have become due and payable to any such dean or canon in respect of the deanery, or of any such canonry of the said church for the year ending on the day up to which such accounts shall have been so audited as aforesaid; and that if it shall appear by any such account that the amount which may have so become due and payable to any such dean, shall exceed the sum of two thousand pounds, or to any such canon the sum of one thousand pounds, then, and in every such case the amount of the surplus shall, at the same time, be paid by the said treasurer to our credit, at the Bank of England, and that upon any account so delivered being examined and approved by our treasurers for the time being, their receipt for the amount of any such surplus shall be given to the said treasurer of the said collegiate church, and shall be a good and valid discharge for the same, and also for all payments for which such treasurer may be liable in respect of such deanery or of any such canonry, as the case may be, under the provisions of the said hereinbefore recited Order; and that if it shall appear by any such account that the amount which may have so become due and payable, in the case of any such dean, shall be less than the sum of two thousand pounds, or in the case of any such canon less than the sum of one thousand pounds, then and in every such case there shall be paid by us forthwith to such treasurer, on account of such dean or canon, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency, and the receipt of such treasurer, countersigned by the same dean or canon, as the case may be, shall be a good and sufficient discharge for any claim which such dean or canon may have on us in respect of the average annual income to which he may be entitled for the year to which the same account relates, under the provisions of the said first recited Act.

"Provided always, and we further recommend and propose, that all moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said collegiate church, or the chapter thereof, and irrespective of the provisions of the said recited Order, may be receivable by any dean or canon thereof succeeding upon the first vacancy of the deanery and of each canonry, happening after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, shall be included in the next yearly account to be delivered to us as aforesaid; and that the income of the dean or canons so newly appointed shall be made up or limited, as the case may be, in manner aforesaid, to such part of the sum of two thousand pounds or one thousand pounds respectively, and no more, as shall be proportioned, according to such rate, to the period during which he shall have been appointed to such deanery or canonry.

"And that upon every subsequent vacancy of the deanery or any canonry, all the moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said collegiate church, or the chapter thereof, and irrespective of the provisions of the said recited Order would, if such vacancy had not taken place, have become due and payable to the dean or canon making such vacancy out of the revenues of the said collegiate church for the year ending on the day of the next ensuing annual audit as aforesaid, shall be included in the account so to be delivered to us as aforesaid after such audit; and that the whole of any surplus above the sum of two thousand pounds in the case of the dean, and one thousand pounds in the case of a canon, shall be paid to us; and that in case the amount of such moneys shall be below the said sum of two thousand pounds or one thousand pounds, as the case may be, we shall not be called upon to pay in respect of such deanery or canonry any greater sums for that year than shall, together with such moneys, be necessary to make up the income of such deanery or canonry for that year to two thousand pounds or one thousand pounds, as the case may be; and that the respective incomes of two thousand pounds to the dean and one thousand pounds to each canon, so to be secured as aforesaid, shall, on every such vacancy as last aforesaid, be strictly apportionable between the dean or canon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the dean or canon succeeding thereto, any statutes or usage of the said collegiate church, relating to the division of the corporate revenues thereof, to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said collegiate church, or the deans and canons thereof, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the diocese of London.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August, 1853,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Dolgelan, otherwise Dolgelley, in the county of Merioneth, in the diocese of Bangor, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Bryncoedifor, in the said parish of Dolgelley, under or by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels, augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes;' or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners, by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Bryncoedifor,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: on the south by the parishes of Mallwyd and Llanymowddu, on the east by the parish of Llanuwchllyn, on the north by the parish of Llanfachreth, and on the west by the remaining part of the said parish of Dolgellau, otherwise Dolgelley, from which the said district chapelry of Bryncoedifor is separated by a line drawn in a southerly direction down the middle of the road leading from Pont Newydd to Dinasmowddu until such road enters the parish of Mallwydd, which said district chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured yellow.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Paul, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Bangor, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the said consecrated church of Saint Paul, at Bryncoedifor in the parish of Dolgelley, be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns of matrimony, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bangor.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," and also in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," as enlarged by the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels, augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of King's Norton and Alvechurch, in the county of Worcester, and of the parish of Solihull, in the county of Warwick, and all in the diocese of Worcester, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Withall, in the said parish of King's Norton, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'the Consolidated Chapelry of Withall,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: the boundary of the consolidated chapelry of Withall commences at the boundary line of the said parishes of King's Norton and Alvechurch, where the same (being a small stream or brook) crosses a road leading from the Forhill, in the said parish of Alvechurch, to Headley Heath, in the said parish of King's Norton, and marked A on the map hereunto annexed; then along the said road, in a north-easterly direction, to Headley Heath aforesaid; then along the highway leading from Withall to King's Norton, in a northern direction, as far as the road leading, in an easterly direction, to Holly Wood, along which road it proceeds to Holly Wood aforesaid, and from thence it proceeds along a road which runs in a south-eastern direction over Trueman's Heath to the road leading from Headley Heath, in the said parish of King's Norton, to Shirley-street, in the said parish of Solihull; then along this road, for about a quarter of a mile, to the boundary of the said parishes of King's Norton and Solihull; then following this boundary to a point where it crosses a certain highway leading from Withall Church by Grimes Hill to Henley in Arden, where it enters the said parish of Solihull; and along the said road, in a south-eastern direction, to another highway leading from Forshaw Heath to Solihull, where it joins the boundary between the parishes of Solihull and Tanworth; then along the said boundary, in a south-west direction, to the junction of the parishes of Solihull and Beoley; then along such boundary-line, north-westerly and northerly, to the junction of the parishes of Solihull, King's Norton, and Beoley, at Inkford Brook; then in a western direction, along the boundary of the said parishes of King's Norton and Beoley, till it reaches the boundary between Alvechurch and Beoley, about two hundred and fifty yards south of Weatheroak Hill; then in a southern direction, along the boundary of the said parishes, to the highway it first crosses, which leads from Alvechurch to the Birmingham and Alcester turnpike-road, where it enters the said parish of Alvechurch; then, in a westerly direction, along the said road, to a highway called Ickneild-way, crossing and proceeding in the same line beyond the said Ickneild-way, one hundred yards; and from thence, in a northerly direction, parallel to and at the distance of one hundred yards from the said Ickneild-way till it approaches the road leading from Alvechurch to Silver-street; then in a north-west direction, in a line parallel to and at the distance of one hundred yards from the road leading from the said Ickneild-way to the Forhill Farm, as far as the commencement of a certain occupation road leading through the said farm to the road from Northfield to Forhill Ash; then in a northerly direction, along the said occupation road, and then in an easterly direction, along the boundary of the said parishes of Alvechurch and King's Norton, to the point where the boundary-line of the said consolidated chapelry of Withall commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured pink, green, and blue.

"That the consents of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, and also patron in right of his see of the parish church of the said parish of Alvechurch; of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Worcester (patrons of the parish church of the said parish of King's Norton); and of the Reverend Archer Clive, Master of Arts, Prebendary of the cathedral church of Hereford (patron in his own right of the parish church of the said parish of Solihull), by George Clive, of Whitfield, in the county of Hereford, Esquire, his lawfully constituted Attorney, have been severally obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Withall, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, and Archer Clive, by the said George Clive, have signed and sealed this representation; and the said Dean and Chapter have hereunto set their common or capitular seal.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, and George Clive (on behalf of the said Archer Clive, and the said Dean and Chapter, as such respective patrons as aforesaid, testified as aforesaid, with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint Mary, at Withall aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the incumbent, for the time being, of the parish church of the said parish of King's Norton.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that having taken into further consideration the circumstances of the said parish of King's Norton, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Balsall Heath, in the said parish of King's Norton, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' as enlarged by the third section of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled

'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Balsall Heath,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—on the west, by the parish of Edgbaston; on the north, by the parish of Aston; on the east, by the parish of Yardley, as far as an old hedge-row (on the west side of Stoney-lane) dividing fields or inclosures marked on the tithe apportionment map of the parish of King's Norton, and numbered respectively 4031 and 4065; the district chapelry of Balsall Heath is then bounded on the south, by proceeding westerly along such hedge-row, dividing such two last-mentioned fields to the western end thereof; then proceeding in a southerly direction along the hedge-row which divides the field numbered 4034, from the field numbered 4065, to the corner of the field numbered 4034; then proceeding north-westerly along the hedge-row dividing the field numbered 4034 from the field numbered 4064; then proceeding along the hedge-row dividing the field numbered 4034 from the field numbered 4040, and along the hedge-row dividing the field numbered 4036 from the field numbered 4039, as far as Lady Pool-lane, crossing that lane nearly opposite the last-named hedge-row, and proceeding along the hedge-row dividing the field numbered 3948 from the field numbered 3947, continuing up such hedge-row and the hedge-row dividing the field numbered 3942 from the field numbered 3941, where the ditch crosses the hedge; then proceeding along the hedge-row in a south-westerly direction to the Birmingham and Gloucester Railway, on a level crossing the said railway in a north-westerly direction, to the hedge-row dividing the field numbered 3919 from the field numbered 3921, proceeding along such hedge-row and also part of the field numbered 3916, as far as a road leading into the said Birmingham and Alcester Turnpike-road from Moseley; then along the centre of such road into the said turnpike-road; then proceeding southerly along the middle of the said turnpike-road to the toll-gate at the end of Edgbaston-lane; then proceeding westerly along the middle of the said lane, called Edgbaston-lane, to the boundary of the parish of King's Norton, where it joins the parish of Edgbaston at the River Rea, as the said district chapelry of Balsall Heath is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to Your Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms and churchings, and likewise burials (upon a burial ground being provided for such district chapelry), should be performed in Saint Paul's Church, at Balsall Heath aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, has been obtained thereto, as required by the two Acts and sections lastly hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a consolidated district to St. Mary's Church, at Withall, and of a district chapelry to Saint Paul's Church, at Balsall Heath, both in the parish of King's Norton, be accordingly made, and that the agreement in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent, as perpetual curate, to serve the said church of St. Mary, at Withall, in the said representation set forth, and the recommendation of the said Commissioners therein, in respect of the publication of banns of matrimony and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, and burials, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the third day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Awre, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Blakeney, in the said parish of Awre, under the powers contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual, an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;' and of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes;' and that such proposed district should be named or called 'the District Chapelry of Blakeney,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: on the south by the River Severn, on the west by the parish of Lydney, on the north-west and north by the Forest of Dean, and on the north-east and east by the remaining part of the parish of Awre, from which it is separated by an imaginary line commencing from the north-western angle of a certain building now belonging to Mary Hopkins, marked A on the annexed map, situate upon the northern boundary of the parish of Awre and at the extremity of a certain lane, commonly called Howlet's-lane; and thence proceeding south-easterly along the middle of the said lane to a point marked B on the map aforesaid, in the middle of the turnpike-road leading from Newnham to Chepstow; and thence along the middle of the said turnpike-road in a south-westerly direction to a point marked C as aforesaid opposite the north-eastern corner of a certain field called Shetfield, marked 714 on the parish tithe map and also on the annexed map; thence, first south-easterly along the north-eastern boundary of the said field, then southerly along the south-eastern boundary thereof, about twenty yards, more or less, to a point marked D on the annexed map, at which point a certain brook is reputed to take its rise; thence southerly along the western bank of the said Land Brook to the north-eastern angle of a field, called Grove, marked 729 on the parish tithe map and also on the annexed map, where it meets the boundary of the tithing of Hagloe, then proceeding along the boundary of the said tithing of Hagloe, in an easterly and southerly direction to a point marked E on the annexed map, where the boundary of the said tithing terminates at the mouth of a certain Pill, called Brim's Pill, as such district chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured yellow.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient, that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized and performed in All Saints Church, at Blakeney aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend James Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration and to make such Order therein as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the said consecrated church of All Saints, at Blakeney, be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns of matrimony, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts;
