TUESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1853.

Whitehall, August, 30, 1853.

THE following Addresses were presented to The Queen on Her Majesty's journey to Ireland; and Her Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Tamworth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Tamworth, respectfully approach your Majesty to express our devoted loyalty and our continued attachment to your Majesty's person and family.

We remember, with feelings of the liveliest emotion and gratitude, that your Majesty honoured our ancient borough with your royal presence, when your Majesty was graciously pleased to visit your devoted and attached servant, our distinguished representative, the late Sir Robert Peel.

We then prayed that the Supreme Disposer of all events would bountifully pour down blessings on your Majesty and your Royal Consort, and we thank God that he has granted to your Majesty and your devoted subjects so many and great blessings; and we continue earnestly to pray that your Majesty, your Royal Consort and Family, may enjoy the protection of that Gracious Providence, which has so long granted to this highly favoured land, under your Majesty's beneficent rule, the blessings of Peace, of social happiness and general prosperity.

William Robinson, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the undersigned, the Clergy of the deanery of Tamworth and its neighbourhood, beg leave to approach your Majesty with unfeigned respect and affection, and to offer to your Majesty our loyal and dutiful submission, and our hearty congratulations on the occasion of your Majesty's present visit.

It is our earnest prayer that it may please Almighty God to preserve your Majesty in life and health for many years to come, and to grant us a long continuance of your Majesty's present happy and peaceful reign over these Realms, for the happiness of your Majesty's family, the prosperity of all classes of your Majesty's subjects, and for the protection and enlargement of that branch of Christ's Church of which your Majesty is the Head, and of which we, your Majesty's devoted servants, are Ministers.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and the Magistrates of your ancient and loyal city of Chester, beg leave, on behalf of ourselves and our fellow citizens, to tender to your Majesty the tribute of our respectful homage on the occasion of your Majesty's intended visit to Ireland.

We trust that the kind solicitude of your Majesty towards that part of your dominions will be hailed as a further proof of the interest your Majesty feels in the welfare of your subjects, and that it will more firmly cement the bonds which unite your empire.

We sincerely offer up our feelings of gratitude to an All-wise and Gracious Providence who has watched over your Majesty, your August Consort and Family, during the recent dispensation under which you have been suffering.

We trust that your Majesty will be pleased to accept the expression of our earnest desire for the health and happiness of yourself, and all that are near and dear to you; and we devoutly pray that, under the gracious Providence of Almighty God, your Majesty may live long to be the guardian of our religious and civil rights and liberties, and may see the increasing moral improvement and well being of your people the result of your powerful aid in this great object of your Majesty's benevolent sympathy and care.

Given under the common seal of the city of Chester, this 27th day of August, 1853.

Rd. Phillips Jones, M.D., Mayor of Chester.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, the inhabitants of the county of Anglesey, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of the profoundest attachment and respect.

We hail it as a blessing to this United Kingdom that your Majesty and your illustrious Consort deign to visit its remotest provinces, promoting by your royal presence the various improvements in arts and sciences, and encouraging the efforts of an enterprising people.

The presence of your Majesty's Fleet in the important harbour of Holyhead tends to prove the utility of the gigantic works now in progress ; which will at once connect more closely the British Islands, and prove an invaluable safeguard to their increasing commerce.

May your Majesty's voyage be propitious, and may you long live to sway the British Sceptre, amidst the applause and admiration of your loyal and faithful subjects.

Agreed to and adopted at a public meeting of the inhabitants of the county of Anglesey, duly convened and held at Holyhead, this 27th day of August, 1853.

R. W. Prichard, High Sheriff of the said County of Anglesey.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the inhabitants of the town of Holyhead, request permission to approach your Majesty to assure your Majesty of the great gratification afforded us by the presence of your Majesty and His Royal Highness Prince Albert, with the Prince of Wales and other members of the Royal Family within our town and harbour, and of our sincere hopes and wishes that, during your royal progress your Majesty may be favoured with propitious weather, and may be kept under the protection of God's Almighty Providence.

Your Majesty having been pleased to honour the spacious harbour now in the course of construction in Holyhead Bay by your royal presence, we entreat your Majesty graciously to allow your Majesty's name to be given to this great national work, as a memorial of your Majesty's present visit, and of its having afforded to your Majesty and the Royal Squadron secure shelter and protection.

And we further most heartily pray that your Majesty and Prince Albert, and your Royal Progeny, may, by the continued blessing of Providence, enjoy health, happiness, and length of days.

For the Inhabitants,
W. O. Stanley, Chairman.
