

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.
Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that—

794. James Findlow, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Joiner, has given notice at the Office of the Commissioners of his intention to proceed with his application for letters patent for the invention of "improvements in beds or couches for sick persons."

797. And William Beckett Johnson, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Manager for Messrs. Ormerod and Son, Engineers and Iron Founders, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in steam engines, and in apparatus connected therewith."

806. And Antoine Burq, of Paris, Chemist, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of certain instruments, apparatus, and articles for the application of electro-galvanic and magnetic action for medical purposes."

As set forth in their respective petitions, all recorded in the said office on the 4th day of April, 1853.

854. And Stephen Taylor, of New York, in the United States of America, Gentleman, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improved machinery for weaving seamless goods."—A communication.

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 8th day of April, 1853.

865. And William Russell Palmer, of Elizabeth City, State of North Carolina, and in the United States of America, at present residing in the city and state of New York, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in the construction and arrangement of machines for the application of horse power, which he designates as 'Palmer's improved horse power.'"

866. And William Russell Palmer, of Elizabeth City, Pasquotunk County, North Carolina, in the United States, now residing in the city and state of New York, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in machines for threshing seeds and grains and for cleaning them from the straw and chaff after they are threshed, which he designates as 'Palmer's American Seed and Grain Thresher, and Winnower.'"

As set forth in his petitions, recorded in the said office on the 11th day of April, 1853.

901. And John Chadwick, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Silk Manufacturer, and Thomas Dickins, of the Spring Vale Works, near Middleton, in the county of Lancaster, Silk Dyer, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in the production of raw and thrown silk."

914. And François Marie Antoine Serruys, of Bruxelles, in the Kingdom of Belgium, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in tanning."—A communication from Herman de Bock, of Bruges, in Belgium.

As set forth in their respective petitions, both recorded in the said office on the 14th day of April, 1853.

924. And Jean Marie Souchon, of Paris, in France, Chemist, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in the manufacture and purification of gas for illumination, and certain products therefrom, and in apparatus for that purpose."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 16th day of April, 1853.

931. And Richard Ford Sturges, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Manufacturer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "a new or improved apparatus for making vegetable and other infusions and solutions."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 18th day of April, 1853.

938. And François George Sicardo, of Marseilles (France), and of 4, South-street, Finsbury, London, Gentleman, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "a new rotary steam engine."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 19th day of April, 1853.

1135. And John Fisher, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in machinery for propelling vessels, and in the mode of manufacturing the same."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 9th day of May, 1853.

1145. And Gregory Kane, of the city of Dublin, Camp Furniture Manufacturer, has given the like notice in respect of an invention for "the construction of portable houses or portions thereof out of parts which may be used for other purposes."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 10th day of May, 1853.

1159. And Henry Potter Burt, of 2, Charlotte-row, in the city of London, Civil Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in portable houses."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 11th day of May, 1853.

1345. And Maxwell Scott, of Birkenhead, in the county of Chester, Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in propelling."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 1st day of June, 1853.

1427. And William Henry Smith, of Bloomsbury, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in the permanent way of railways."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 13th day of June, 1853.

1759. And Farnham Maxwell Lyte, of Florian, Torquay, in the county of Devon, Esquire, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in obtaining iodide of potassium when treating certain metals."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 26th day of July, 1853.

1824. And Richard Brown Roden, of Abersycham Iron Works, near Newport, Monmouthshire, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in rolling iron and all other malleable metals and alloys."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 4th day of August, 1853.

1837. And Martin Zadick Just, of the city of Manchester, Merchant, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in machinery for hulling and dressing paddy or rice."—A communication.

1838. And John Hughes, of 34, Great George-street, in the city of Westminster, Civil Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in building or forming structures under water, or below the surface of the ground."

As set forth in their respective petitions, both recorded in the said office on the 6th day of August, 1853.