

houses, in the said parish of the Holy Trinity Micklegate, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'the Consolidated Chapelry of Dringhouses,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"Commencing at the north-east corner of an ancient lane or road called Hob Moor-lane, and proceeding thence in a south-westerly direction along the north-west side of the road leading from York to Tadcaster, to a point opposite to the end of an ancient lane leading from the York and Tadcaster-road at or near the north-east end of the village of Dringhouses, to the common pasture called Knavesmire, the fence on the north side of which said last-mentioned ancient lane having been lately taken away and the said ancient lane being now open to the common pasture, thence across the road leading from York to Tadcaster, to the south-west corner of the said ancient lane leading to Knavesmire, thence along the south side of the last-mentioned ancient lane to where the same enters Knavesmire, thence in a southerly, easterly, and south-easterly direction for the distance of about one thousand five hundred and fifty-seven yards, more or less, along the fence which divides the ancient inclosures of the township of Dringhouses, from the said pasture called Knavesmire, to a point near to the north-east corner of an ancient lane called Green-lane, thence in a south-westerly direction along the north-west side of the said last-mentioned lane to lands belonging to His Grace the Archbishop of York, thence in the same direction to an ancient lane leading from Bishopthorpe to the said York and Tadcaster-road, thence in a north-westerly direction along the north-east side of the said last-mentioned ancient lane to and across the road leading from York to Tadcaster aforesaid, thence in a south-westerly direction along the north-west side of the said last-mentioned road to the township of Askham Bryan, thence northerly along the fence which divides the township of Dringhouses from the township of Askham Bryan aforesaid, to the township of Acomb, thence north-easterly along the fence which divides the township of Dringhouses from the township of Acomb aforesaid, and along the southern boundary of the common pasture called Hob Moor to the north-west corner of the said ancient lane or road called Hob Moor-lane, thence in an easterly direction along the north side of the said last-mentioned lane to the point where the boundary of the said consolidated chapelry commences, namely, the north-east corner of Hob Moor-lane aforesaid, and which said consolidated chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured blue, green, and yellow:

"That the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of the said diocese of York, of the Right Honourable Robert Monsey, Baron Cranworth, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (Patron in right of the Crown of the parish churches of the said parishes of the Holy Trinity Micklegate and Saint Mary Bishopphill Senior), and of Edmund Barlow, of Essex-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire (Patron of the parish church of the said parish of Acomb), have been obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Dringhouses, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Robert Monsey Baron Cranworth and Edmund Barlow, as such respective patrons as aforesaid, testified as aforesaid, (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned, and also of the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Edward the Confessor, at Dringhouses aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by Matthew Alexander Eason Wilkinson, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Esquire, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry for the consecrated church of Edward the Confessor, at Dringhouses, be accordingly made, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of October, 1853.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the "burial of the dead in the metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the
