Drayton and Edge Hill Road.

(Continuation of Term, Repeal, or Amendment of Act, and Power to alter existing Tolls.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to continue and extend the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge, some of the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing the road from the guide post, near the end of Drayton lane, near Banbury, in the county of Oxford, to the house called the Sun Rising, at the top of Edge Hill, in the county of Warwick," or to repeal the said Act, and to grant other and more effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for powers to levy and collect tolls upon the said road, or to alter, and if deemed expedient, to increase the existing tolls, and to confer, vary, or extinguish, exemptions from payment of tolls, and to confer, vary, or extinguish, other rights and privileges.

And it is intended by the said Act, to alter or vary the application of the money arising from the tolls collected on the said road, and to alter or vary existing provisions relative to the payment of the interest and principal of the debt due and owing on the credit of the tolls collected upon the said road, and to provide for altering the present, and fixing the future rate of the interest payable in respect of such debt, or the proportion of the tolls to be applied in payment of interest and principal, and to make other provisions with respect to the existing or unclaimed debts, and to the liquidation or extinguishment of any arrears of interest thereon, and of other charges and liabilities on the said road, and with respect to the ordering, arranging, and confirming, the securities of the creditors upon the tolls authorized to be collected upon the said road, and to such other matters as parliament shall deem proper or necessary.

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the proposed Act will be deposited on or before the thirty-first day of December next, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this twenty-ninth day of October, 1853.

John Fortescue, Solicitor, Banbury, Clerk to the Trustees.

Walmisley and Son, Parliamentary Agents, No. 23, Parliament-street.
