LAW,

27th May, 1853.

GRANTING freedom to certain ports and territories in the Province of Chocó, and establishing Custom-Houses.

The Senate and Chamber of Representatives of New Granada in Session

DECREE:

ART. I. The following ports and territories of the Province of Chocó shall be free for all nations in the world, from the 1st of January, 1854, for 20 years.

1. The ports of the Atlantic, and the territory watered by the River Atrato, from its mouth to its confluence with the River Guito, comprehended between the western chain of the Andes and that branch of it towards the eastward, which separates said Province from that of Antiochia.

2. The ports of the Pacific, and the territory watered by the River San Juan, from its embouchure as far as the city of Novita, contained between the above-mentioned chain of the Andes and that branch of it which separates it towards the southward from the Province of Buonaventura.

ART. II. Consequently no Custom-houses can be established in said ports and territories within the time specified, nor can any duties be levied, save those of toll passage and excise corresponding to the municipal revenues, and in conformity with existing laws.

ART. III. In order to recover the duties on importation of foreign merchandize which may be introduced for the consumption of the interior of the rest of the province, and other provinces of the Republic there shall be established two Custom-houses, one in the city of Quibdo, and the other in the city of Novita, with the following officers, and their yearly salaries.

[Here follows an enumeration of the different officers and their respective salaries.]

ART. IV. The Executive Power is authorized, when it deems it indispensable for weighty motives of public convenience, to assign other ports for Custom-houses than those expressed in this law, in which case the maritime ports expressed in Article I. and the territory comprised between the coasts and the spot on which such Custom-houses shall be fixed, alone can enjoy freedom.
