

Hull General Cemetery Company.

(Incorporation of Company; Power to maintain and enlarge Cemetery in the parish of Cottingham, in the East Riding of the county of York; to Increase Capital; to set apart portions of the Cemetery as and for the burial places for such Parishes, Churches, or Chapels, within the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, whose Burial-grounds, Churches, or Chapels, may be closed under the provisions of the Act to Amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis; and for other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to incorporate the Company or Association, called "The Hull General Cemetery Company," who now carry on the business of the burial of the dead, of all sects and denominations, in their present cemetery, situate in the township of Cottingham, in the parish of Cottingham, in the East Riding of the county of York; and to enable the said Company to sue and be sued in the name of the said Company, or in the name or names of one or more of the directors or officers thereof; and to make other provisions for the constitution and regulation of the Company; and to vest in the said Company, when so incorporated, all the lands, buildings, and other works, debts, effects, and other property of every description, rights, powers, and privileges, now vested in the said Company or Association, or in any trustee for them, or otherwise belonging to, or exercisable by, the said Company or Association; to enable the said Company to maintain, alter, and improve their present cemetery, situate in the township of Cottingham and parish of Cottingham, in the East Riding of the county of York, containing in the whole nineteen acres of land or thereabouts, and bounded on the east by a certain road or lane, called Newland Tofts-lane or otherwise Toft-end-lane; on the north and west respectively by land belonging, or reputed to belong, to William Duesbery Thornton Duesbery, of Skelton Lodge, in the county of York, Esq., the trustee of the late William Watson Wilkinson, Esq., deceased; and on the south side by the Deringham Drain. And to construct and maintain an enlargement of their said cemetery, upon the whole or some portion of certain fields or closes of land, respectively belonging, or reputed to belong, to the said William Duesbery Thornton Duesbery, as trustee of the said William Watson Wilkinson, deceased, and now in the occupation of James Longhorn, as tenant thereof, and respectively situate in the township of Cottingham, and parish of Cottingham aforesaid, and lying on the north side of and adjoining the present existing cemetery of the said Company; and which said fields or closes of land are bounded on the east by the said road or lane, called Newland Tofts-lane or otherwise Toft-end-lane; on the north and west by other lands belonging, or reputed to belong, to the said William Duesbery Thornton Duesbery, as such trustee of the said William Watson Wilkinson, deceased, as aforesaid, and now in the respective occupations of William Longhorne and Robert Tindal, as tenants thereof respectively; and on the south by the present cemetery of the said Company, which said several boundaries firstly hereinbefore described are the limits of the said existing cemetery, and which said several boundaries secondly hereinbefore described are the limits within which the proposed enlargement of the said cemetery is intended to be made.

And it is intended to apply for powers to divert, alter, widen, or stop up, temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike and other roads, lanes, footpaths, ways, ditches, drains, and streams, within or adjacent to the said lands hereinbefore specified, as it may be necessary or expedient to divert, alter, widen, or stop up, for the purposes of the said intended cemetery, and enlargement thereof, or the works connected therewith respectively; and to make all necessary approaches and communications to and from the same.

And it is intended to apply for powers to purchase, compulsorily or by agreement, lands and houses required for the purposes of the said cemetery, and enlargement thereof, or the works connected therewith respectively; and to vary or extinguish all or any existing rights, easements, or privileges, in any manner connected with, or incidental to, such lands and houses which would in any way impede or interfere with the construction or use of the said cemetery, and enlargement thereof, or either of them; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights, privileges, or exemptions; and also to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the deed or deeds of settlement, or other deeds or bye-laws regulating the said Company, or to annul the same deed, or deeds and bye-laws, and to grant to the Company other and further powers and provisions in lieu thereof.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to contract with the burial board, or burial boards, of any parish or respective parishes for the interment in such cemetery or enlargement thereof, or in some allotted part of the same respectively, or otherwise, and upon such terms as the said Company and the said burial board or burial boards may think fit of the bodies of persons, who would have had rights of interment in the burial ground of any such parish or respective parishes, in which the place or places of burial shall have appeared to the rate-payers therein, insufficient or dangerous to health, and where it shall have thereupon been resolved by the vestry of such parish, or respective parishes that a burial ground or burial grounds, shall be provided for the same, under the provisions of the Act of the 15 and 16 Vic. c. 85, as extended and incorporated into the Act of the 16 and 17 Vic. c. 134, and so far as may be necessary to vary, amend, and extend the powers and provisions of such last mentioned Acts or either of them.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to increase the capital of the said Company, by the creation and issuing of additional shares or half-shares, with or without preference, and to consolidate such increased capital with the present capital of the Company, and to enable the respective shareholders to make such arrangements, as they shall think fit, with reference to such capital and the payment of dividends and interest thereon, and to allot shares to persons not being shareholders in the present Company, and to raise money on mortgage, bond, annuity or otherwise.

And it is intended to apply for powers, to enable the said Company, to levy fees, tolls, rates, rents and duties, for and in respect of the burial of the dead, within their said present cemetery, and also within the said intended enlargement thereof; and for and in respect of the use of the said cemetery, or the enlargement thereof, or the use of any chapel vault, building, or other work connected therewith respectively; and to sell and dispose of, to any person or persons desirous of purchasing the same, the exclusive right of burial, in any vault or grave, in the said cemetery, and to confer such rights and privileges in respect thereof, as to the said Company shall seem fit.

And to pay or compensate any clergyman
