AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Militia," it was enacted "that it should be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, where with the advice of Her Privy Council she might see fit so to do, to extend or reduce the period of training and exercise of all or any part of the Militia, so as the whole period of training or exercise in any year should not exceed fifty-six days, nor be less than three days."

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to extend the period of training and exercise of the Militia in the present year, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the period of training and exercise of all the regiments and corps of the Militia in England and Wales be extended for and during the present year, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, so that the whole period of training and exercise of the said regiments and corps in the said year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall not in any case exceed fifty-six days, nor be less than three days; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and be transmitted to the respective Lieutenants of the counties, ridings, and places in England and Wales, in order that they should proceed upon the same in pursuance of the directions of the said Act of Parliament.

And the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January, 1854.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act, or of the rules to be made in pursuance thereof, shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England or Wales, and that within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, such provisions and rules respectively shall extend to and apply in manner directed by such Order; and that any such order may be in like manner, from time to time, altered or annulled:

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the provisions of the said Act, and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof (with the exceptions hereinafter stated), should apply to the Court of Record, in the borough of Cambridge, called the Court of Pleas:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that within one month after this Order shall have been published in the London Gazette, the provisions of the said "Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," and the rules made, and to be made, in pursuance thereof (except sections, 97, 98, and 120, of the said Act, rules 57, 81 to 111, both inclusive, 115 to 117, both inclusive, 123 to 134, both inclusive, 173 and 175, and except such parts of the said Act as relate to Special Juries, Terms, and Pleadings between the tenth day of August, and the twenty-fourth day of October, in any year), shall apply to the said Court of Record of the borough of Cambridge, called the Court of Pleas.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, it was enacted that when and as often as it should seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of the said Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under the said Act, it should be lawful for the said justices, in general quarter session assembled, to resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof should be given to the coroner or coroners of such county as hereinafter provided; and that the clerk of the peace should give notice of any such resolution to every coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices should confer with every such coroner who should attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of such proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employments, and such other circumstances as should appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of this Act; and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, should be certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition should be agreed to, and the clerk of the peace for
