

Samples of the sugar (not less 2 lbs.), of the wheat (not less than 2 quarts), and of the soap (not less than a bar), must be produced by the parties tendering, and a sample of the canvas may be seen at this Office.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, at the office of Commander Bevis at Liverpool, and of the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him, duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and those for sugar, vinegar, and canvas must be accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £20 per cent. on the value for the due performance of each of the contracts.

CONTRACT FOR RUM.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, February 2, 1854.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 16th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

Rum, 50,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties.

Tenders will be received from any firm for any portion of the total quantity not less than 2,000 gallons.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, at the office of Commander Bevis, at Liverpool, and of the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and must be accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £20 per cent. on the value for the due performance of the contract.
