[The following Order in Council is substituted for that which appeared in the Gazette of Tuesday last.]

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January, 1854.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, it was enacted that when and as often as it should seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of the said Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under the said Act, it should be lawful for the said justices, in general quarter session assembled, to resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof should be given to the coroner or coroners of such county as hereinafter provided; and that the clerk of the peace should give notice of any such resolution to every coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices should confer with every such coroner who should attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of such proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employments, and such other circumstances as should appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of this Act; and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, should be certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition should be agreed to, and the clerk of the peace for such county should forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every coroner for such county.

And whereas the justices of the county of Northumberland, in quarter sessions assembled, did, on the nineteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty three, resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that the said county should be divided into two districts, for the purposes of the aforesaid Act, and thereupon the consideration of the said petition was adjourned according to the provisions of the said Act, and due notice of the said resolution, and of the time when the same would be taken into consideration, was duly given to the existing coroner for the said county; and the said petition was afterwards duly taken into consideration and agreed to by the justices of the said county, in pursuance of the said Act; and the Clerk of the Peace for the said county did forthwith, on the said petition being agreed to, give a true copy thereof, certified under his hand, to the existing coroner for the said county; and whereas the said petition hath been certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two of the justices present when the same was agreed to.

And whereas the said petition sets forth: "That the county of Northumberland is a very large district in point of area, and considerable in point of population; that hitherto there have been two coroners elected for the whole county; that one of the coroners is lately dead; that Her Majesty's justices of the peace, in quarter sessions assembled, on the nineteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, came to a resolution that it was expedient, for the purpose of saving great and unnecessary expenses in the election of a coroner, to divide the county of Northumberland into two districts, for the purpose of carrying into effect a statute passed in the session of the seventh and eighth of Her Majesty's reign, cap. ninety-two, intituled 'An Act to amend the law respecting the office of county coroner,' and that such districts should be the Northern and Southern Divisions of the said county, as they are thereafter more particularly described; that, besides the saving of the expense of elections contemplated by the statute, by adopting the said resolution, much cost will also be saved to the county, by not having in many cases to bring the coroner from great distances, and to parishes and townships, by the constables thereof not having to travel such distances to the coroner to give notice of deaths; that notice of the above resolutions has been given to Stephen Reed, Esquire, the present coroner for the said county, and that the said petition would be taken by the said justices into consideration on the third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, at the court-house at Morpeth, in the said county; that hitherto the two coroners of the said county have, by a common understanding, confined themselves to the said districts, although, in point of law, each of them had jurisdiction over the whole county, and each of them were elected by the freeholders thereof; that the petitioners consider that it would be better to legalize this subdivision under the statute above referred to, and that the description of the districts and the boundaries thereof, which it is proposed by the said petition to adopt, should be as follows; that is to say; that the Northern Division of the county of Northumberland should include the whole of the several wards of Bambrough, Coquetdale, Glendale, Morpeth and Norham, and Islandshires, but excluding therefrom the townships of Tweedmouth and Spittal, as they now by statute form part of the county of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and that the Southern Division should include the whole of the several wards of Tynedale, Castle, and Bedlingtonshire, but excluding therefrom the several townships of Byker, Heaton, Jesmond, Westgate, and Elswick, as they now by statute form part of the town and county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne; that another reason upon which the said petition is founded arises from the fact of the great increase of population in the southern part of the county, near to the town and county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, which population has vastly increased within the last twenty years, and that, therefore, in the southern part of the county, the duties of coroner have very much increased, so much so as to make it necessary that a coroner should reside constantly in that district of the county."

And whereas it appears to Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the customary division of the said county, mentioned in the said petition, had subsisted for more than seven years before the passing of the said Act; and whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking the said petition into consideration, to order that the said county shall be divided into two districts, hereinafter described, for the purposes of the said Act, being the same districts into which the said county hath been customarily divided as aforesaid: Now it is hereby ordered that the county of Northumberland shall be, and is hereby, divided into two districts for the purposes of the said Act; that the districts be called the Northern Division of the county of Northumberland, and the Southern Division of the county of Northumberland respectively; that the district called the Northern Division shall consist of and include the whole of the wards of Bambrough, Coquetdale, Glendale, Morpeth, Norham, and Islandshires, excluding the townships of Tweedmouth and Spittal, and that the court for the election of coroner for the said district shall be held at Alnwick; that the district called the Southern Division shall include the whole of the wards of Tynedale, Castle, and Bedlingtonshire, excluding the townships of Byker, Heaton, Jesmond, Westgate and Elswick, and that the court for the election of coroner for the said district should be holden at the Moot Hall of the Castle of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland; that the district in and for which the said Stephen Reed, Esquire, usually acted before the passing of this Act, being the district called the Southern Division, shall be assigned to the said Stephen Reed, in pursuance of the said Act. And it is further ordered that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable Her Majesty to abolish, otherwise than by treaty, on condition of reciprocity, differential duties on foreign ships," it is provided that where it shall appear to Her Majesty that by the laws or regulations of any foreign power, the trade and shipping of Great Britain, in the ports of such foreign power, have been placed upon the same footing as the trade and shipping of such foreign power, either absolutely or on condition of equal or like benefits being conceded to the vessels of such foreign power in the ports of Her Majesty, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order to be by Her made, with the advice of Her Privy Council, and to be published in the London Gazette, to order and declare that the trade and shipping of such foreign power shall have the benefit of the provisions of the said Act.

And whereas it appears to Her Majesty that, by the regulations of the government of Tahiti, the trade and shipping of Great Britain in the ports of Tahiti, have been placed on the same footing as the trade and shipping of Tahiti, on condition of equal or like benefits being conceded to the vessels of Tahiti, in the ports of Her Majesty.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, the trade and shipping of Tahiti shall have the benefit of the provisions of the said recited Act.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or Inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight, to be contained in such Warrant; and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and to make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof.

And whereas it is expedient that regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of the letters and newspapers hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, by this Warrant under our hands, direct, that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in or addressed to the Island of Heligoland, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and Heligoland, either direct or via Cuxhaven or Hamburg (the sea conveyance being by private ship), there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters an uniform British rate of sixpence.

And we direct, that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say:

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such letter, exceeding three ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we further direct that such printed newspapers as are hereinafter mentioned may be sent by the post, according to the regulations and rates hereinafter set forth, which rates shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such newspapers; that is to say:

British newspapers, and such British publications as are allowed to pass by the post as newspapers, in the United Kingdom, may, if posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Heligoland, be sent from the United Kingdom to Heligoland direct, or via Cuxhaven or Hamburg, by private ship, at the rate of one penny each.

Newspapers published in Heligoland may be sent from thence to any part of the United Kingdom direct, or via Cuxhaven or Hamburg, by private ship, at the rate of one penny each.

And we direct, that every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper, shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

And we direct, that no such printed newspapers shall be sent by the post at the rates aforesaid, unless the following conditions shall be observed:

First. Every such newspaper shall be sent without a cover or in a band or cover open at the sides or ends.

Second. There shall be no word or communication printed on the newspaper, after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon it, or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent.

Third. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper.

And in case any one of such conditions shall not be fulfilled the whole paper or packet shall be charged with the letter rates of postage.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, or by any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post-office, and that all such exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

And we further direct, that the several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act.

And we further direct, that this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Provided, lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
