

His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or divisions is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division, of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts or division, in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle "and determine the divisions of counties and the "limits of cities and boroughs in England and "Wales, in so far as respects the election of "Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division, into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Cumberland, in quarter sessions assembled, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council representing that the number of polling places for the western division of such county is insufficient, and praying that Abbey Holme, Bolton Gate, Gosforth, Maryport, Whitehaven, and Workington, may be polling places for the western division of the county of Cumberland, within which division such places are situate.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that Abbey Holme, Bolton Gate, Gosforth, Maryport, Whitehaven, and Workington, shall be polling places for the western division of the county of Cumberland, and that the justices of the peace for the said county in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said western division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 18th day of February, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for "rendering more easy the taking the poll at "county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or divisions is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division, of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the Third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle "and determine the divisions of counties and the "limits of cities and boroughs in England and "Wales, in so far as respects the election of "Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division, into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Montgomery, in quarter sessions assembled at Welchpool, in the said county, on the fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, representing that the number of polling places for such county is insufficient, and praying that the town of Welchpool, Cann Office, in the parish of Llangadfan, and the villages of Llanbrynmair, Llandisilio, and Llangynog, may be polling places for the said county of Montgomery, within which such places are situate.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said petition into consideration is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that the town of Welchpool, Cann Office, in the parish of Llangadfan, and the villages of Llanbrynmair, Llandisilio, and Llangynog, shall be polling places for the county of Montgomery; and that the justices of the peace for the said county, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of February, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of Her Majesty, "for the more easy "recovery of small debts and demands in Eng- "land," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court shall be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and from time to time to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court shall be holden in each district :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, of which the county of Somerset was one, and the town of Clutton was named as a place for holding one of the courts of
