And whereas it is expedient that regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of the letters and packets hereinafter mentioned.

Now, we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, by this

Warrant under our hands, direct, that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels in the Baltic Sea or the adjacent waters (the sea conveyance being by packet boat) there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform British rate of sixpence.

And we direct, that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels in the Baltic sea, or the adjacent waters, and any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom (the conveyance between any such ships or vessels and the United Kingdom being by packet-boat) there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, the rates of British postage following; that is to say:

And we direct, that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say:

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage; and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce; and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we further direct that all printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent by private ships from the United Kingdom to any of the colonies next hereinafter mentioned (direct or through any other colony or through any foreign country), that is to say: Canada, Prince Edward Island, Bermuda, Saint Helena, the Gold Coast, Ceylon, Antigua, Grenada, Barbice, Demerara, Trinidad, Carriacou, Tobago, Montserrat, Nevis Tortola, Dominica, Saint Kitts, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent, Jamaica, Bahamas, Honduras, Malta, Gibraltar, and Hong Kong, and all
