TO be sold by auction, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made by the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, in a cause of Savage v. Walker and another, at the Talbot Hotel, King-street, Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, on Wednesday the 3rd day of May, 1854, at six o'clock in the evening, by Mr. Randle Shaw Walker, the Auctioneer, in five lots, the following property, that is to say:

Lot 1. All that valuable freehold piece or parcel of building land, having a frontage to Graiseley-street, Russell-street, and Dale-street, Wolverhampton, and containing 724 square yards or thereabouts.

Lot 2. All those four freehold messuages, tenements, or dwelling-houses, with the brewhouses and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate in and fronting to Russell-street, in Wolverhampton, in the several occupations of Henry Ledger, George Brown, Alexander Bell, and George Mansell, and producing an annual rental of £36 8s.; together with a right of way along a passage three feet wide from Dale-street.

Lot 3. All those two freehold messuages, tenements, or dwelling-houses, with the brewhouses and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate in and fronting to Dale-street, Wolverhampton, in the respective occupations of David Morris and William Craggs, together with the room over the gateway in lot 4, and producing the annual rental of £21.

And also all that piece of freehold land adjoining the same and having a frontage of fourteen feet to Dale-street aforesaid, on which land there is sufficient space for the erection of a third message and premises.

Lot 4. All that valuable freehold message, known as the Prince of Wales Inn, situate in Russell-street, Wolverhampton, with the brewhouse, stables, outbuildings, and yard thereto belonging, of the estimated value of £35 per annum; together with the right to use a pump at the rear of the adjoining houses, belonging to Mr. Benjamin Hartland.

And also all that freehold piece of building land adjoining the above premises, having a frontage of 28 feet to Russell-street, and adapted for the erection of two dwelling-houses.

The property comprised in this lot has frontages to Russell-street and Dale-street, and the stables fronting Dale-street might, at a small outlay, be converted into dwelling-houses.

Lot 5. All those two freehold messuages, tenements, or dwelling-houses, with their appurtenances, situate in Baker-street and Phillip-street, Wolverhampton, in the respective occupations of William Smith and William Matthews, producing an annual rental of £19 16s.
