TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1854.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 6, 1854.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 27th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Ladies, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Ante-room, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be delivered at the Lord Chamberlain's Office before Tuesday the 25th instant, by twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, which names shall correspond with those previously sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 6, 1854.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 3rd of May next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Ante-Room, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be delivered at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before Monday the 1st of May next, by twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levee but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having petitions or addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee, are to deliver a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come), to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, on the Monday previous to the Levee above announced; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to the Queen; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 7th day of April, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metro-

"polis, and to amend the Act concerning the "burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Orders in Council of the eighteenth of February and twenty-ninth of March last, to direct that burials should be discontinued in the burial-grounds and vaults of the Temple Wesleyan and Methodist Chapel, Upper High-street, Taunton, from and after the first of March, and in the churchyards of the parishes of All Saints, West Ham, Essex, and of Bishops Hull, in the county of Somerset, from and after the eighth of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has represented that the time for closing the said burial-grounds and vaults and the said churchyards may be extended.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said representations into consideration, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the burial-grounds and vaults of the Temple Wesleyan and Methodist Chapel Upper High-street, Taunton, and in the churchyard of All Saints West Ham, be discontinued from and after the first of June, and that burials in the churchyard of Bishop's Hull be discontinued from and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, instead of from and after the days directed by the aforesaid Orders in Council respectively.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 7th day of April, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Orders in Council of the twenty-ninth of March last, to regulate burials in the churchyard of Arundel, and to direct that burials should wholly cease therein from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has represented that he is of opinion that such limitation of time may be withdrawn, the other conditions respecting burials in that churchyard remaining in force.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken such representation into consideration, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of March last, and no more, as directs that burials should wholly cease in the churchyard of Arundel from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 7th day of April, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish.

taries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened without the consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the undermentioned places, and that burials in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the eighteenth of February last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the first day of April instant, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette ; and copies thereof have been affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said first day of April.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the following places and parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State ; and that burials in the said places be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the eighteenth day of April instant (except as is herein otherwise directed), viz :

CHICHESTER.—Burials to be discontinued forthwith under the Cathedral, under the church of Saint Peter the Less, and in the burial-ground of the parish of Saint Andrew ; and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the burial-ground of the parish of Saint Bartholomew ; and from and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the burial-ground of the parish of All Saints ; and in the Cloisters, and in the Paradise, situate in the parish called the Precincts of the Close ; and in the churchyard of the Cathedral, in the parish of Subdeanery. In the Friends' Burial-ground, and in the General Baptists Burial-ground, both in the parish of Rumbolds Wyke, and in the Friends' Burial-ground in Saint Andrews Parish, except in family vaults and graves, only one body to be buried in each grave. Burials to cease forthwith in the Unitarian Burial-ground, Baffin's-lane, in Saint Andrew's parish. In the burial-ground called the Liten, in Saint Pancras parish, no burial to take place within three yards of the enclosing wall ; with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body to be buried in each grave ; and no interment to take place at a less depth than four feet, measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the level of the ground. Burials to be discontinued within five yards of the church of Saint Paul, no burials to take place within three yards of the eastern and western boundary walls of the burial-ground ; with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body to be buried in each grave ; no burial to take place at a less depth than four feet, measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the level of the ground ; and in the western portion of this burial-ground allotted to the district of Saint Paul, burials to be wholly discontinued from and after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

MERTHYR TYDFIL.—Burials to be discontinued forthwith in the church and churchyards of Saint Tydfil, and of Dowlais, and in the parochial burial-ground at Twyn-y-rodin, also in Ynis Coy Chapelyard, and in Bethesda Chapelyard (reserving to Mary Cornelius and David Davies the right of being buried in a private vault and brick grave respectively in the said chapelyard), and in Bethel Burial-ground in Dowlais.

NEATH.—Burials in the parish churchyard to be forthwith discontinued within five yards of the church.

HOLBEACH.—Burials under the church to be discontinued forthwith, and in the churchyard from and after the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

ISLEWORTH, MIDDLESEX.—Burials to be wholly discontinued underneath the church and in the old churchyard ; and in the new burial-ground, with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body to be buried in each grave.

MIDHURST.—Burials to be discontinued forthwith underneath the church, and in the old churchyard ; in the new burial-ground no burials to take place within ten yards of any dwelling-house ; with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body to be buried in each grave ; no interment to take place at a less depth than three feet and a half, measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the level of the ground ; this new burial-ground to be sufficiently drained so that graves be kept free from water. In the burial-ground of the Baptist Chapel no burial to take place within five yards of the walls of the chapel, nor within ten yards of any dwelling-house ; and, with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body to be buried in each grave.

MARLBOROUGH.—Burials to be wholly discontinued forthwith in the parish of St. Mary the Virgin ; and in the parish of St. Peter, from and after the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four ; except in the burial-ground of the Independent Chapel in that town.

EALING.—Burials to be discontinued forthwith in the old portion of St. Mary's churchyard ; with the exception of family vaults and graves only one body to be buried in each grave in the new portion thereof ; and burials to cease forthwith under St. Mary's Church. In the burial-ground of St. George's Chapel Old Brentford (with the exception of family vaults and graves), only one body to be buried in each grave ; burials to be discontinued forthwith within five yards of the chapel and in the vaults underneath it ; and to be wholly discontinued in the burial-ground from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five. In the burial-grounds of Boston Road or Baptist Chapel, Old Brentford, and of the Baptist Chapel, New North Road, Old Brent- ford (with the exception of family vaults and graves), only one body to be buried in each grave ; burials to be discontinued forthwith within five yards of the chapel, in the first case, and of the schoolroom and houses adjoining the burial-ground, in the second case ; and burials to be wholly discontinued in both these grounds from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 7th day of April, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require ; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered ; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish.

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground shall be opened in the borough of LIVERPOOL, or within two miles of its boundaries, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued in the said borough, with the following modifications :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her

Order in Council of the eighteenth of February last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the first day of April instant; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said first day of April.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the borough of LIVERPOOL, or within two miles of its boundaries, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials within the same be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the eighteenth day of April instant (except as is herein otherwise directed), viz.:

Burials to be wholly discontinued in St. Paul's Churchyard, St. Thomas's Churchyard, St. Anne's Churchyard and under the church, St. Philip's Churchyard, Trinity Churchyard and under the church, St. Mark's Churchyard, St. Andrew's Churchyard and under the church, in the Baptist Burial-ground Everton-road, in the burial-grounds of All Saints Roman Catholic Chapel, of Great George-street Chapel, of Newington Independent Chapel Renshaw-street, of St. Nicholas Roman Catholic Chapel Copperas-hill, of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Chapel Seel-street, and in the vaults under the last two chapels, in St. Peter's Churchyard, in St. Nicholas Church and Churchyard, in the burial-ground of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Chapel and under the chapel, and in the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel Burial-ground Upper Stanhope-street.

With the exception of private vaults and graves, no more than one body to be buried in any grave in the burial-grounds of the Necropolis, and of St. Mary's Cemetery, of the Scotch Presbyterian Church Oldham-street, of the Scotch Presbyterian Church Rodney-street, and of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Chapel Scotland-road; and burials to be wholly discontinued in the last three mentioned grounds from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

With the same exception, no more than one body to be buried in any grave in St. Michael's Churchyard, and burials to be wholly discontinued therein from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

With the same exception, no more than one body to be buried in any grave in the churchyard of St. George Everton.

With the same exception, no more than one body to be buried in any grave in the burial-ground of St. Anne's Chapel Edgehill; no burial to take place within twenty feet of the schools; and, with the same exceptions, burials to be wholly discontinued therein from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five. Burials in the vaults under this chapel to cease forthwith.

Burials to be wholly discontinued in St. Martin's Churchyard from and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four; in the burial-grounds of Brunswick Chapel

Moss-street, and of the Unitarian Chapel Renshaw-street, from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; and in the Quakers' burial-ground Hunter-street, from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

Burials to be wholly discontinued in all that part of St. Martin's Parochial Cemetery which has already been buried in, and to cease wholly within the cemetery from and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Burials to be discontinued forthwith in all the part of the Independent Chapel Burial-ground Toxteth Park, which is situated to the east and south of the chapel, and to cease wholly therein from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish.

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation, stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in BRISTOL, without the consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the eighteenth of February last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the first day of April instant ; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said first day of April.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in BRISTOL without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State ; and that burials in the said city be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the eighteenth day of April instant (except as is herein otherwise directed), viz :

Burials to be discontinued forthwith in the burial-grounds of St. Michael, St. Augustine the Less, St. Mary Redcliffe, St. Stephen's, St. Peter, St. James, St. John the Baptist, the Temple parish, and of St. Philip and St. Jacob ; in the crypt and before the church of St. Nicholas ; in the Rackay Burial-ground, and the Welch Burial-ground ; in St. Thomas's Church, Chancel, Churchyard, and New Burial-ground ; in All Saints' Church and passage ; in the crypt, churchyard, and Pethay Burial-ground of Christ Church ; and in St. Werburgh's Churchyard ; in Francis's Burial-ground, West-street ; William's Burial-ground, West-street ; Thomas's Burial-ground, at or near Clarence-place ; Dolman's Burial-ground, Pennywell-street ; Howland's Burial-ground, Newfoundland-street ; in the Infirmery Burial-ground, in St. James's Parish ; in the Broadmead Chapel-yard, in St. James's Parish ; in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Chapel, in St. Paul, Trenchard-street ; and in the Counterslip Baptist Chapel, in the Temple Parish.

In the following places only one body to be buried in each grave ; viz. : in the Quakers' Burial-ground, called the Friars' ; in the Quakers' Burial-ground, Redcliff Pet ; in the Quakers' Burial-ground, near the workhouse ; in the Jews' Burial-ground, St. Philip's Marsh ; and in the Jews' Burial-ground, in Temple Parish.

Burials to be discontinued within five yards of the church, or of any housewall in the churchyard of St. George Brandon-hill, and only one body to be buried in each grave.

Burials to be discontinued within five yards of Zion Independent Chapel in the parish of St. Mary Redcliffe, and only one body to be buried in each grave.

Burials to be discontinued in such parts of the burial-ground of the Cathedral of St. Augustine as are within five yards of any house, and only one body to be buried in each grave.

Burials to be discontinued within five yards of Portland-street Wesleyan Chapel in the parish of Westbury-on-Trym.

Burials to be discontinued in St. Paul's Churchyard, except of members of the families of those already interred therein.

Burials to be discontinued in the Redcross-street Baptist Burial-ground, and in the Wesleyan Chapel-yard Redcross-street (except to members of the congregation), and only one body to be buried in each grave in these grounds.

Burials to be discontinued in Bunhill-fields Redcross-street within five yards of any house, and except for members of the Tabernacle congregation, and only one body to be buried in each grave.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis ;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification ; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require ; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered ; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish.

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened without the consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the undermentioned places, and that burials in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the eighteenth of February last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the first day of April instant, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette ; and copies thereof have been affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said first day of April.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the following places without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State ; and that burials in the said places be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the eighteenth day of April instant (except as is herein otherwise directed), viz. :

EDMONTON.—Burials to be forthwith discontinued underneath the church, and in the churchyard within ten yards of the church ; with the exception of family vaults and graves, to be discontinued within five yards of the boundary wall on the north side of the churchyard, and within five yards of the almshouses adjoining the churchyard ; and, with the same exception, only one body to be buried in each grave in the churchyard. From and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials to be wholly discontinued in the burial-grounds of Ebenezer Chapel, the Old Independent Chapel, Providence Chapel Winchmore Hill, and the Independent Chapel Southgate ; and burials to be forthwith discontinued in the burial-ground of the Friends' Chapel Winchmore Hill within five yards of the walls of the chapel.

STAINES.—Burials to be forthwith discontinued underneath the parish church, and the Independent Chapel ; and from and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, to be wholly discontinued in the parish churchyard, and in the burial-ground of the Independent Chapel.

NEW BRENTFORD.—Burials to be forthwith discontinued underneath the church, and in the front portion of the churchyard which adjoins the street, and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, to be wholly discontinued in the churchyard.

CHISWICK.—Burials to be forthwith discontinued underneath the parish church and the vestry-room situate in the churchyard, and in the churchyard, except in the portion which has hitherto never been used ; and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, to be wholly discontinued therein.

MERTON, SURREY.—Burials underneath the church, or within five yards of the walls thereof, to be forthwith discontinued, and, with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body to be buried in each grave ; burials to be forthwith discontinued in the burial-ground of the Independent Chapel.

RICHMOND, SURREY.—Burials to be discontinued underneath the parish church forthwith ; and from and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the churchyard, in the parish burial-ground, and in the burial-ground of the Independent Chapel.

MORTLAKE.—Burials under the church to be discontinued forthwith, and in the churchyard from and after the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four. In the burial-ground of Sheen Vale Independent Chapel (with the exception of family vaults and graves), only one body to be buried in each grave.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 7th day of April, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials, under the following modifications, should be discontinued in the undermentioned places :—

BOLTON, LANCASHIRE.—Burials to be discontinued within the Parish Church forthwith ; and from and after the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the Parish Churchyard, in the churchyards of St. George, the Holy Trinity, All Saints, and Christ Church, and in the burial-grounds of the following chapels, namely, the Baptist Chapel Moor-lane, the Wesleyan Chapel Bridge-street, the Wesleyan Chapel Fletcher-street, the Roman Catholic Chapel St. Peter and St. Paul Pilkington-street, the Independent Chapel Mawdsley-street, Albert-place Chapel, the Independent Methodist Chapel Fold's-road, the Primitive Methodist Chapel Higher Bridge-street, the Unitarian Chapel Deansgate, and the Refugee Chapel Hanover-street, in the Ridgway Gates Wesleyan Burial-ground, and in the Quakers' Burial-ground.

No more than one body to be buried in each grave in the churchyards of Emmanuel, and of St. Stephen and All Martyrs Lever-bridge ; no coffin in these churchyards to have a covering of less than four feet and a half of earth measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the level of the ground ; and burials to be wholly discontinued in Emmanuel Churchyard from and after the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

BURY, LANCASHIRE.—No new burial-ground to be opened without the previous approval of a Secretary of State within the townships of Bury and of Elton.

Burials to be discontinued forthwith within the Parish Church, the New-road Independent Chapel, the Baptist Chapel and Burial-ground Freetown, and the Union-street Wesleyan Chapel; and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the Parish Churchyard, St. John's Churchyard, Bethel Chapel Burial-ground, the New-road Independent Chapel Burial-ground, the Presbyterian Chapel Burial-ground, the Union-street Wesleyan Chapel Burial-ground, and in Castlecroft Chapel Burial-ground.

In St. Paul's Churchyard, in Brunswick Cemetery, and in Elton Churchyard, no burial (except in existing private vaults and graves) to take place within twenty feet of the church, chapel, or schools; with the same exception, no more than one body to be buried in each grave; and no burial to take place without a covering of not less than four feet six inches of earth, measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the level of the ground.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-second day of May next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-second day of May.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 7th day of April, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials (with the following modifications) should be discontinued, in the undermentioned places:—

FALMOUTH.—Burials to be wholly discontinued in the churchyard of St. Charles the Martyr, from and after the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

PENZANCE.—Burials (except in vaults and family graves which have not been opened during ten years) to be discontinued in the churchyard of Saint Mary's, from and after the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

KINGSTON-ON-THAMES.—Burials to be discontinued forthwith in the parish church, and from and after the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the Old and New Burial-grounds, and in the burial-grounds of the Independent Chapel, and of the Baptist Chapel; in the burial-ground of Surbiton Church, burials to be discontinued within five yards of the walls of the church, and, with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body to be buried in each grave.

HASTINGS.—Burials to be discontinued forthwith under the churches of St. Mary in the Castle, and of St. Clements, and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in St. Mary's parish burial-ground, and St. Clements Burial-ground near the Croft; in the burial-ground of St. Clement's Chapel Halton burials to be forthwith discontinued within five yards of the houses situated on the east side of the burial-ground and also (with the exception of family vaults and graves) only one body to be buried in each grave; from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials to be discontinued in the burial-ground of Croft Chapel; in the burial-ground of All Saints (with the exception of family vaults and graves) only one body to be buried in each grave; burials to be discontinued forthwith under All Saints Church and in the old original churchyard; and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the whole of burial-ground of All Saints parish.

ST. LEONARDS, SUSSEX.—Burials to be discontinued forthwith under the church of Saint Leonards; and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the parish burial-ground; and burials to be discontinued forthwith underneath All Souls Catholic Chapel.

ST. LEONARDS-ON-THE-SEA.—Burials to be discontinued from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the burial-ground of the Wesleyan Chapel, in the parish of St. Mary Magdalene, St. Leonards.

EAST RETFORD.—Burials to be discontinued forthwith within the Wesleyan Chapel Grove-street, East Retford, and in the burial-ground of the same from and after the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, except of members of the families of those already buried therein.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-second day of May next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-second day of May.
