"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Saint James, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated chapel of Saint James, situate at Pentonville, in the said parish of Saint James, Clerkenwell, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' or of any other powers in this behalf, contained in the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Pentonville,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The district chapelry of Pentonville is to consist of the northern extremity of the parish of Saint James, Clerkenwell, and is bounded on the east, north, and west, by the parish of Saint Mary Islington, and on the south by the parish of Saint Pancras, and the northern boundaries of the district chapelry of Saint Philip and the district parish of Saint Mark Clerkenwell, as follows: The boundary line commences at that corner of White Lion-street situated in High-street, Islington, and proceeding northerly to the south side of Sermon-lane; thence westerly, in the line of the parish boundary across White Conduit, Penton, Rodney, Cumming, and Southampton-streets, including the south side of South-street and Melville-terrace; then across the Caledonian-road and southerly across a portion of Caledonian-crescent, crossing Pentonville-hill, the same being the boundary-line separating the parishes of Islington and Clerkenwell; then to the south-east, along Hamilton-row, to the west end of Penton-place, the same being the boundary-line separating the parishes of Saint Pancras and Clerkenwell; from thence in a north-easterly direction, by line of south boundary of garden walls belonging to the houses of Penton-place and Queen's-row, which walls are the boundary between Mr. Penton's estate and the estate of the New River Company; it then arrives at the north-west corner of Claremont-square, from which, proceeding northerly, across the New-road to Penton-street, and up the middle of Penton-street, as far as White Lion-street; then proceeding easterly along the middle of White Lion-street, to the corner whence the boundary commenced as the said district chapelry of Pentonville is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured blue.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed in the said chapel, at Pentonville aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be received for or on account of and paid to the present incumbent of the said parish of Saint James, Clerkenwell, during his incumbency thereof, but upon the first avoidance of the said parish which shall occur, the said fees should be paid and belong to the incumbent for the time being, of the said chapel of Saint James, Pentonville.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections, hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said Charles James, Bishop of London, has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the said consecrated chapel of Saint James, at Pentonville, in the parish of Saint James, Clerkenwell, be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings in the said chapel, and in respect of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

said bridge in a direct line north-westwardly, to the point where the turnpike-road leading from Dudley to Gospel Oak and Bilston commences; it then proceeds north-eastwardly along the middle of that road to Wednesbury Oak Bridge, where the boundary of the said district chapelry of Saint John Tipton commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, churchings and burials, should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint John, at Princes End aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

His Serene Highness the General President has been pleased to send me the following Decree.

ANTONIO LOPEZ DE SANTA ANNA,
&c. &c. &c.

Art. 1. In those Commercial Association contracts in which all the partners are foreigners, if three-fourths of them are of the same nation, the Association will bear the character of that nationality.

If the partners be of two nations, and equally divided as to persons, the nationality of the Company will be that of the persons who represent the greatest amount of capital; and should this be variable amongst partners of different nations, they must choose amongst themselves the nationality which they may deem most convenient, within three months after the publication of this Decree for already existing Companies, and within one month for those which may be formed in future.
