Traethbach Bridge and Road Bill.

Alterations in Bridge and crossing of Estuary and River Dwyryd.

WHEREAS a Bill is now pending in Parliament, intituled "A Bill making a Turnpike Road from Garth Penbryn to Adwyddu, in the county of Merioneth, with a Bridge over the Estuary of Traeth Bach, in the same county."

And whereas, since the introduction of the said Bill into Parliament, certain alterations in the dimensions, position, and construction of the intended bridge, and in the proposed mode of crossing and dealing with the Traethbach Estuary and the River Dwyryd, as shown on the plans and sections of the intended works, deposited in the month of November last with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Merioneth, and with the parish clerks of the several parishes of Llandecwyn and Llanfihangel Traethau, in the said county of Merioneth, have become requisite in consequence of a report made to Parliament by the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral :

Now notice is hereby given, that provisions will be inserted in the said Bill authorising the construction of the bridge and works, and the crossing of the said estuary and river, in conformity with the requirements of that report ; and that a plan and sections showing the alterations necessary for that purpose have been deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Merioneth, at his office at Bron Eryri (near Port Madoc), in that county, and with the parish clerk of each of the aforesaid parishes, at his place of abode.

Dated this twenty-eighth day of April, 1854.

*Poole, Powell, and Poole, Carnarvon,
