AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of June, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Saint Martin, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Ladywood, in the said parish of Saint Martin, Birmingham, under and by virtue of the power and authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be called or named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John Lady-wood, Birmingham,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The boundary line of the said district chapelry commences at the southern angle where Ladywood-lane is met by Morville-street, and proceeds along the middle of Morville-street north-easterly to the Wolverhampton and Birmingham Canal; then north-westerly along the middle of that canal as far as the Dudley-road; then westerly along the middle of the Dudley-road as far as the Public-house called the Cape of Good Hope and the boundary-line of the parish of Harborne; then south-westerly along such boundary as far as the Bear Inn, where it meets the boundary-line of the parish of Edgbaston; then easterly along such boundary-line across the reservoir, and along the middle of the Reservoir-road and Ladywood-lane to Morville-street aforesaid, where the boundary-line of the said district chapelry commenced; and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized and performed in the said church of Saint John at Ladywood aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Ladywood, in the parish of Saint Martin, Birmingham, be accordingly made, and the
