PRESENT,

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Saint Cuthbert, in the city and diocese of Carlisle, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate in the said parish of Saint Cuthbert, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be called or named, 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Carlisle;' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: commencing at Holmhead, on the River Caldew, and then proceeding northwardly, down the River Caldew, to the Nelson Bridge; then eastwardly up the middle of Bridge-road to James-street; then southwardly along the middle of James-street to Wood-street; thence easterly along the middle of Wood-street to the southwestern side of the central railway station where it meets the ancient boundary of the city of Carlisle; thence by the line of the said ancient boundary, south-eastwardly and eastwardly, to Botchergate, and across Botchergate to Mary-street, and along the middle of Mary-street to the boundary-line between the parishes of Saint Cuthbert and Saint Mary; thence along the said boundary-line, eastwardly, to the boundary-line between the parishes of Saint Cuthbert and Stanwix; thence along the last-mentioned boundary-line to the boundary-line between the parishes of Saint Cuthbert and Wetheral; thence along the said last-mentioned boundary-line, southerly and south-westwardly, to the boundary-line of Upperby District, and along such boundary-line of Upperby District, westwardly, southwardly, and north-westwardly, to the River Caldew, where the boundary of the said District Chapelry of Christ Church, Carlisle, commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized and performed in the said church called Christ Church; and that the fees to arise therefrom should belong and be paid to the incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Hugh, Bishop of the diocese of Carlisle, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the church called Christ Church, situate in the parish of Saint Cuthbert, in the city of Carlisle, be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings in the said church, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Carlisle. *Wm. ## TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or Inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of Foreign or Colonial letters or newspapers, or any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and to make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof.

And whereas it is expedient that regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of the letters and packets hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf do by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order and direct, that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom, and any of Her Majesty's colonies next hereinafter mentioned (direct or through any other colony, or through any foreign country) that is to say, New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, Barbadoes, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick (which colonies are hereinafter throughout this Warrant termed "the colonies hereinbefore particularly mentioned"), there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, a uniform British rate of sixpence.

And we direct, that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any of the colonies hereinbefore particularly mentioned through the United Kingdom direct or through any other colony, or any foreign country, there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, a uniform British rate of one shilling.

And we direct, that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any of the colonies hereinbefore particularly mentioned, and any other of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom (whether through any colony or foreign country or not), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, the rates of British postage following; that is to say:

For the conveyance of every such letter between any of the colonies hereinbefore particularly mentioned and any part of the United Kingdom a rate of sixpence, and for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and any such colony or foreign country.

And we direct, that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say:

On every such letter, exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such letter exceeding three ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we direct, that in all cases in which any letter, in respect of which any rate of postage is chargeable by this Warrant, shall pass through a foreign country, any foreign postage payable thereon, shall be charged and paid thereon in addition to the British postage.

And we further direct that printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament may be sent by the post from the United Kingdom to the colonies of New South Wales, Barbadoes, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, direct or through any other colony; and that printed votes and proceedings of the Colonial Legislatures, may be sent by the post from any of such last-mentioned colonies to the United Kingdom direct, or through any other colony; and that on all such printed votes and proceedings there shall be charged, and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law thereon, the rates of British postage following; that is to say:

On every packet, consisting of a single printed publication of votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or the Colonial Legislature, the several sheets or parts of which, when more than one, shall be sewn or bound together, if not exceeding half a pound in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of six pence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding half a pound, and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of one shilling.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding two pounds in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of two shillings.

And for every additional one pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged and taken an additional rate of postage of one shilling, and every fraction of such additional pound shall be charged as an additional pound.

And we further direct, that no such packet, if containing more than one printed publication of votes or proceedings, or containing any paper or thing besides printed votes or proceedings, or containing any printed publication of votes or proceedings, the several sheets or parts of which, when more than one, shall not be sewed or bound together, or which packet, in length or breadth, or width, or depth, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet or twenty-four inches, shall be forwarded by the post, under the provisions of the said clause relating to printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament and the Colonial Legislatures.

And we further direct, that as to any packet of printed votes or proceedings hereinbefore authorised to be sent by the post under the provisions aforesaid, which shall be posted in the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall in every case be prepaid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper British postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post-paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account, and as to any such packet posted in any of the colonies of New South Wales, Barbadoes, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, the postage thereof shall in every case be prepaid, either in money or by the proper colonial postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, at the time of the same being posted.

And we further direct, that every such packet of printed votes or proceedings shall be sent without a cover, or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no writing or marks upon the cover or envelope thereof, or upon or within any part of the contents thereof, other than the name and address of the person to whom the packet shall be sent; unless any such packet be sent from any department or office, in or connected with, the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office, in London, in which case the same may, in addition to the name and address of the person to whom it shall be sent, have printed or written thereon, or upon the cover or envelope thereof, the words "On Her Majesty's service," and also the name of the department or public office from which the packet shall be forwarded, together with the name of any public officer employed in or belonging to any such department or office, who may be authorised to affix his name to letters and packets sent by the post, as a certificate that they are on the public service.

And in order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, we further direct, that it shall be lawful for any officer of the Post-office in the United Kingdom to delay the transmission of any packet of printed votes or proceedings posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant either for the space of twenty-four hours from the time at which (or at his option until the dispatch of the mail next after that by which) the same ought otherwise to have been forwarded by him.

And we further direct, that if any packet of printed votes or proceedings sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this present Warrant, shall contain any paper or thing, besides printed votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, or shall have any writing or marks upon the same, or upon the cover or envelope thereof, except the name and address of the person to whom it is forwarded: and also as to any such packet sent from any department or office in, or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office in London, except the words "On Her Majesty's service," and the name of the department or public office from which the same shall be forwarded with the name of any public officer employed in or belonging to any such department or office, who may be authorized to affix his name to letters and packets sent by the post, as a certificate that they are on the public service, or shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall in length, or breadth, or width, or depth, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or twenty-four inches, or shall contain more than one printed publication of votes or proceedings, or shall contain any printed publication of votes or proceedings the several sheets or parts of which, when more than one shall not be sewed or bound together, or if the postage of any such packet posted in the United Kingdom shall not be duly and properly prepaid by British stamps when posted (any such packet sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office in London, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such account only excepted); or, if the postage of any such packet posted in New South Wales, Barbadoes, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, shall not be duly and properly prepaid in money, or by colonial stamps when posted, the same shall, and may be detained and opened at any place in the United Kingdom, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and any such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any printed votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or the Colonial Legislatures, sent either through a foreign country or by private ships.

And we further direct, that nothing in this Warrant contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege granted by the said recited Act, in favour of petitions and addresses forwarded to Her Majesty by the post, nor the privilege granted by the same Act to Members of each House of Parliament, to receive by the post petitions and addresses to Her Majesty, and petitions addressed to either House of Parliament not exceeding thirty-two ounces in weight, exempt from postage; nor shall anything in this Warrant contained, in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service, and seamen and soldiers employed in the service of the East India Company, now by law enjoy of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.
