

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of July, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for permanently annexing a small portion of land to the residentiary house of the Dean of the cathedral church of Salisbury.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that in every cathedral or collegiate chapter wherein there might exist any statute or custom for assigning to the dean or to any canon any land, tithes, or other hereditaments, in addition to his share of the corporate revenues, or for appropriating separately to the dean or any canon, during his incumbency, the proceeds of any land, tithes, or other hereditaments, part of the corporate property of the chapter, every such statute and custom, or every such part thereof, as should relate to such assignment or appropriation, should be repealed and annulled as to all deans and canons appointed after the passing of that Act; provided, nevertheless, that any small portion of land situate within the limits and precincts of any cathedral or collegiate church, or in the vicinity of any residentiary house, might be reserved to such church, or permanently annexed to such residentiary house, by the authority in the said Act provided, namely, by a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council;

"And whereas the piece of land hereinafter described, being part of the corporate estate of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Salisbury, was, during the incumbency of the Very Reverend Hugh Nicholas Pearson, formerly dean thereof, added to the deanery garden, and inclosed by a boundary wall, erected to separate the said garden from the adjoining premises, and has ever since been occupied as part of such garden; and whereas, the Very Reverend Henry Parr Hamilton, the present dean of the said cathedral church, was appointed to that dignity and office since the passing of the said Act, that is to say, on the fourteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and the said dean and chapter being desirous that the said piece of land should be permanently annexed to the said residentiary house, have applied to us accordingly, and we are of opinion that such annexation would be expedient.

"We therefore humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Salisbury, testified by their having hereunto affixed their common seal, that all that piece or parcel of land, situate, lying, and being in the close of the canons of the cathedral church of Salisbury, on part whereof a certain tenement or mansion house now pulled down, formerly stood, and which is now, and for some time past has been used and occupied as part of the deanery garden, the same piece or parcel of land being bounded on the north by the residentiary house and garden of the dean of the said cathedral church, on the south by the residentiary house formerly belonging to the subchanter, but now used as the training school, on the west by the river Avon, and on the east by the roadway in front of the said deanery house, shall, so soon as any Order of your Majesty in Council for ratifying this scheme shall have been duly gazetted, become and be permanently annexed to the said residentiary house or mansion house of the said dean, and be for ever thereafter held, enjoyed, reputed, deemed and taken as part and parcel thereof.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matter aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty by, and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.
