

years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the Church Building Acts," and of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that on or about the eighteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, your Majesty's said Commissioners (with the consents of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of the diocese of Winchester, and also of the Right Honourable and Reverend Francis, Earl of Guildford, Sir Matthew Blakiston, of Sandy Brook, in the county of Derby, Baronet, the Reverend William Wilson, Vicar of the parish of Holy Rood, in the town of Southampton, and Alexander Gordon, of Old Broad-street, in the city of London, Esquire, severally signified under hand and seal) made a representation to your Majesty in Council, that it appeared to them to be expedient, and they therefore humbly prayed that a particular district should be assigned to Trinity Church, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Southampton, in the said diocese of Winchester, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' in conjunction with the provisions contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to make further provision, and to amend and render more effectual three Acts passed in the fifty-eighth and fifty-ninth years of his late Majesty, and in the third year of His present Majesty for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and that the district so proposed to be assigned to the said church, called Trinity Church, should be named or called 'The Chapelry District of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Southampton,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those set forth in the said representation and next hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: on the north side, by a divisional line through the centre of the Northam-road, abutting upon lands in the said parish of Saint Mary; on the east side, by a divisional line through the centre of Saint Mary's-street, abutting upon other portions of the said parish; on the south side, by a divisional line through the centre of the newly widened road called South Front, King's-bridge-place, abutting on the lands called Hoglands, in the said parish; and on the west side of the boundary line that divides the said parish of Saint Mary from the parish of All Saints, and which said district was more particularly delineated on the map or plan annexed to the said representation, and coloured pink.

"That by an Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the eleventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, your Majesty was graciously pleased by and with the advice of your Privy Council to approve of the proposed assignment of the said district, and to order that the same should be accordingly made agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that having taken into consideration the present circumstances of the said parish of Saint Mary Southampton, and also of the said district chapelry so assigned to the said church, called Trinity Church as aforesaid, it appears to your Majesty's said Commissioners to be expedient that the boundaries of such district should be altered, under or by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts,' as enlarged by the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that the boundaries next hereinafter mentioned should be substituted for those comprised in your Majesty's said Order in Council of the eleventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight; that is to say:

"Bounded on the east by an imaginary line along the middle of the London and South-Western Railway as far as Northam-road-bridge, on the north by the said imaginary line proceeding westerly from the Northam-road-bridge along the middle of the Northam-road to the intersection of that road with Love-lane, and thence north-westerly along the middle of Love-lane, as far as Compton-walk, and then westerly along the middle of Compton-walk to the boundary line of the parish of Saint Mary Southampton, then proceeding southerly along such boundary line as far as South Front-road, then proceeding easterly along the middle of the said road, called South Front-road, and also along the middle of Bevois-street, as far as the said London and South-Western Railway, where the boundary line of the said district chapelry commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink.

"That the consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, and also as patron in right of his see of the parish church of the said parish of Saint Mary Southampton, and likewise the consent of the Reverend Joseph Cotton Wigram, Master of Arts, Rector and Incumbent of the same parish church, have been severally obtained to such proposed alteration of boundaries as aforesaid, as required by the two Acts and sections lastly hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof, the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, and Joseph Cotton Wigram, have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to approve thereof, and to order and it is hereby ordered, that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the boundaries of the said district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, in the parish of Saint Mary Southampton, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.
