The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the fourth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act concerning banns and marriages in certain district churches or chapels," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that on or about the eighteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, your Majesty's said Commissioners (with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the diocese of London), made a representation to your Majesty in Council, that it appeared to them to be expedient, and they therefore humbly prayed, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas, situate in Addison-road, in the parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and that such proposed district should be named 'The Chapelry District of Saint Barnabas, Kensington;' and that the boundaries thereof should be such as were mentioned or described in the said representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners further represented that it appeared to them to be expedient that baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Barnabas, in Addison-road aforesaid, and that the fees to arise from baptisms and churchings should belong to the minister of the said church, and that the fees to arise from burials should be equally divided between the incumbent of the said parish and the minister of the said church.

"That by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, your Majesty was graciously pleased by and with the advice of your Privy Council, to approve of the assignment of the said district, and to order that the same should be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that having taken into consideration the present circumstances of the said chapelry district of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, it appears to your Majesty's said Commissioners to be expedient that banns of marriage should hereafter be published, and that marriages should hereafter be solemnized in the said church of Saint Barnabas, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being, and that a supplemental Order for that purpose should be made pursuant to the provisions of the fourth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act concerning banns and marriages in certain district churches or chapels.'

"That the consent of the said Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section lastly hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is by this supplemental Order in Council ordered, that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages in the consecrated church or chapel of Saint Barnabas, in the parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this supplemental Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.
